experienced meditators this presentation is a brand new approach to loving kindness meditation being published in English for the first time The Healing Power of Mind Tulku Thondup,1998-02-03 The true nature of our minds is enlightened and peaceful as the depth of the ocean is calm and clear But when we mentally grasp and emotionally cling to our wants and worries with all our energy we lose our own enlightened freedom and healing power only to gain stress and exhaustion suffering and overexcitement like the turbulent waves rolling on the surface of the ocean Our minds possess the power to heal pain and stress and to blossom into peace and joy by loosening the clinging attitudes that Buddhists call grasping at self If we apply the mind s healing power we can heal not only our mental and emotional afflictions but physical problems also This book is an invitation to awaken the healing power of mind through inspiring images and sounds mindful movements positive perceptions soothing feelings trusting confidence and the realization of openness The healing principle on which these exercises are based is the universal nature and omnipresent power envisioned in Mahayana Buddhism Yet for healing we don t have to be believers in any particular faith We can heal body and mind simply by being what we truly are and by allowing our own natural healing qualities to manifest a peaceful and open mind a loving and positive attitude and warm joyful energy in a state of balance and harmony Incarnation Tulku Thondup,2011-08-09 A tulku is a fully enlightened one buddha or highly accomplished adept siddha who chooses to be reborn again and again for the benefit of all beings Most tulkus though are the rebirths of well trained masters who are engaged in spiritual training and serving others Tibetan Buddhists have for well over a millennium been meticulously following the tradition of finding recognizing enthroning training and venerating these revered figures who provide teachings of liberation for both monks and laypeople This guide to the tulku tradition covers its long history separating fact from fiction giving an overview of how the system works and providing short biographies of some of the great tulkus of the past and present Included are accounts of the magical occurrences that are associated with these remarkable beings and advice for how anyone can set out on the tulku path

The Practice of Dzogchen Longchenpa, 2014-10-28 A classic collection of writings on the meditation practice and theory of Dzogchen, the Great Perfection, by the celebrated fourteenth-century scholar and adept Longchen Rabjam Longchenpa. This classic collection of texts on the meditation practice and theory of Dzogchen presents the Great Perfection through the writings of its supreme authority, the fourteenth-century Tibetan scholar and visionary Longchen Rabjam. The pinnacle of Vajrayana practice in the Nyingma tradition of Tibetan Buddhism, Dzogchen embodies a system of training that awakens the intrinsic nature of the mind to reveal its original essence, utterly perfect and free from all duality, buddha nature, or buddhahood itself. In The Practice of Dzogchen, Tulku Thondup translates essential passages from Longchen Rabjam's voluminous writings to illuminate and clarify this teaching. He also draws on the works of later masters of the tradition, placing Dzogchen in context both in relation to other schools of Buddhism and in relation to the nine-vehicle outline of the Buddhist path described in the Nyingma tradition. This expanded edition includes Counsel for Liberation, Longchenpa's poetic exhortation to readers to quickly enter the path of liberation, the first step toward the summit of Dzogchen practice.
