V6a Writing From Vancouvers Downtown Eastside:

V6A John Asfour, Elee Kraljii Gardiner, 2012 Stories essays and poems about life in Vancouver s Downtown Eastside Canada s most impoverished neighborhood V6A John Mikhail Asfour, Elee Kraljii Gardiner, 2012-09-04 An anthology that refracts the experience of writers new and established who have been part of Vancouver s notorious Downtown Eastside in some way Their work reappropriates the coding of the area and recasts the neighborhood as a site of creative energy and human dignity Spectrums and Spaces of Writing , 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 The chapters in this book provide an overview of both global and interdisciplinary perspectives on Writing In an era when technology in general and social media in particular has appeared to overtake academic discussion in regard to how we communicate the thoughts research and praxes in this volume reveal that while the concept of writing has changed dramatically in the past decades the flow of words on a page or computer screen as a large flow of text still remains one of the key forms in which humans are able to crystallize thoughts Each chapter reveals a particular facet of this process revealing that it is only through the crafting process of producing words through the conduit of head to heart to hand that we can create and understand the external composite of internal creativity and reveal the power of human reflection The clearly demonstrates that writing is encapsulated humanity Remembering Vancouver's Disappeared Women Amber Dean, 2016-01-27 Between the late 1970s and the early 2000s at least sixty five women many of them members of Indigenous communities were found murdered or reported missing from Vancouver s Downtown Eastside In a work driven by the urgency of this ongoing crisis which extends across the country Amber Dean offers a timely critical analysis of the public representations memorials and activist strategies that brought the story of Vancouver s disappeared women to the attention of a wider public Remembering Vancouver s Disappeared Women traces what lives on from the violent loss of so many women from the same neighbourhood Dean interrogates representations that aim to humanize the murdered or missing women asking how these might inadvertently feed into the presumed dehumanization of sex work Indigeneity and living in the Downtown Eastside of Vancouver Taking inspiration from Indigenous women s research activism and art she challenges readers to reckon with our collective implication in the ongoing violence of settler colonialism and to accept responsibility for addressing its countless injustices Cycling with the Dragon Elaine Woo, 2015-07-15 Cycling with the Dragon is a personal investigation of family love culture self and the helpless feeling of smallness Elaine Woo s poems take the form of the words that they speak she forms an o for the buoy that is a child s safety raft found in the solitude of a notebook and Harriet the Spy and weaves a poem about fearing snakes and dreams into a descending slither Woo s poems weave meaning with form writing in a pastiche of diverse poetic voices who are small by virtue of age or status be they women children ethnic minorities or the creatures of nature And like tenacious seeds they break through to reach the sun to face an abusive parent bullies the pain of shyness envy or racism Prism International , 2018 The Changing Image of Affordable

Housing Ulduz Maschaykh, 2016-03-09 Illustrated by a range of case studies of affordable housing options in Canada this book examines the liveability and affordability of twenty first century residential architecture Focussing on the architects and communities commitment to these housing programmes as well as that of the private building sector it stresses the importance of the context of the neighbourhoods in which they are placed which are either in the process of urban transition or already gentrified In doing so the book shows how and to what extent twenty first century dwelling architecture developments can help to create an integrated sense of community diminish social and demographic exclusions in a neighbourhood and incorporate people s desires as to what their buildings should look like This book shows that there are significant architectural projects that help to meet the needs and desires of low to middle income households as well as homeowners and that gentrification does not necessarily lead to the displacement of low income families and singles if housing policies such as those highlighted in this book are put into place Moreover the migration of the middle class can result in a healthy mix of classes out of which everyone can enjoy a peaceful and habitable coexistence

Ghost Fishing Melissa Tuckey, 2018-04-01 Ghost Fishing is the first anthology to focus solely on poetry with an eco justice bent A culturally diverse collection entering a field where nature poetry anthologies have historically lacked diversity this book presents a rich terrain of contemporary environmental poetry with roots in many cultural traditions Eco justice poetry is poetry born of deep cultural attachment to the land and poetry born of crisis Aligned with environmental justice activism and thought eco justice poetry defines environment as the place we work live play and worship This is a shift from romantic notions of nature as a pristine wilderness outside ourselves toward recognition of the environment as home a source of life health and livelihood Ghost Fishing is arranged by topic at key intersections between social justice and the environment such as exile migration and dispossession war food production human relations to the animal world natural resources and extraction environmental disaster and cultural resilience and resistance This anthology seeks to expand our consciousness about the interrelated nature of our experiences and act as a starting point for conversation about the current state of our environment
