Haigler, Kathryn B. Mims, Jack A. Nottingham, 1998 Caring for persons with chronic illnesses or disabilities is a rewarding endeavor but it often places extreme demands on those providing care Caregivers need both education and support to understand their caregiving roles and to cope with the difficult situations they face All too often there is a chasm between professionals who are part of the formal caregiving system and family members friends and neighbors who provide daily care The Caring for You Caring for Me education and support program is a valuable tool for use in providing caregivers with education and support The program is designed to bring formal professional and informal lay family caregivers together to gain a better understanding of each other's perspectives on what it means to be a caregiver with the hope that in the process both will

Nursing UK This is a timely book which addresses head on questions about what mental health nurses can do to be effective with their patients At last we have a book that mental health nurses can draw on to understand why and how various therapeutic approaches are used The range is from cognitive behavioural therapy to psychodynamic approaches to mindfulness with others in between Each chapter is written by an expert and each offers concrete examples of what it involved in each of the approaches These examples are imperative if readers are to understand how to use interventions in their everyday work This ground breaking book will be compulsory reading for everyone involved in the care of those with mental health problems A wonderful book Philip Burnard Emeritus Professor of Nursing Cardiff University UK
