Gun Women Mary Zeiss Stange, Carol K. Oyster, 2000-09-01 Women we are told should not own guns Women we are told are more likely to be injured by their own guns than to fend off an attack themselves This fact is rooted in a fundamental assumption of female weakness and vulnerability Why should a woman not be every bit as capable as a man of using a firearm in self defense And yet the reality is that millions of American women somewhere between 11 000 000 and 17 000 000 use guns confidently and competently every day Women are hunting using firearms in their work as policewomen and in the military shooting for sport and arming themselves for personal security in ever increasing numbers What motivates women to possess firearms What is their relationship to their guns And who exactly are these women Crucially can a woman be a gun owner and a feminist too Women s growing tendency to arm themselves has in recent years been political fodder for both the right and the left Female gun owners are frequently painted as trying to be like men the conservative perspective or capitulating to patriarchal ideas about power the liberal critique Eschewing the polar extremes in the heated debate over gun ownership and gun control and linking firearms and feminism in novel fashion Mary Zeiss Stange and Carol K Oyster here cut through the rhetoric to paint a precise and unflinching account of America s gun women
