Troy Duster Berkeley Sociologist Activist:

Troy Duster John F. Galliher, 2015-12-03 This book is a biography of University of California Berkeley sociology professor Troy Duster. Troy Duster received an MA and PhD in sociology from Northwestern University in Evanston IL. Duster is a black man who was born in South Chicago. His maternal grandmother is the famous Ida B Wells. He initially had a research interest in the sociology of law and later in human genetics. He worked with approximately 100 graduate students at Berkeley, all minority students. Each of his research interests had a special slant given that Troy Duster is an African American. Troy Duster has always been firmly committed to the idea that race is a sociological, not a biological concept.

Women and Inequality in a Changing World Hoda Mahmoudi, Jane L. Parpart, Kate Seaman, 2023-10-24 Women and Inequality in a Changing World explores the obstacles women continue to face to their equal participation in all areas of daily life: political, social, and economic, which persist despite the growth in the education of girls, large-scale social movements, and political waves. The volume widens and deepens understanding of women in relation to the inequalities they face, based not only on gender but also on race, class, religion, and more. It also highlights the progress that women have made and how this progress contributes to the creation of more peaceful and prosperous societies. This interdisciplinary book brings together leading scholars and practitioners from across the globe to provide a wide range of perspectives and experiences, examine crucial questions, and offer new ideas and innovative solutions to increasing the role of women moving forward. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of gender studies, women's studies, and political science, as well as practitioners working at the intersection of women and global issues. Goffman Dmitri N. Shalin, 2024-12-03 Erving Goffman is the most cited American sociologist. There is no shortage of studies exploring Goffman's scholarship, but no extant biography of Erving Goffman. The chief reason is that a man who looked behind the facades people erect to protect their private selves zealously guarded his own backstage. This book is the first comprehensive biography of Goffman, an intellectual of Russian Jewish descent who turned the Potemkin village trope into a powerful research program. The present study shows how key turns in Goffman's career reflected dramatic events in his family and personal history. It is based on the materials gathered in the Erving Goffman Archives, a repository curated by the author who has been collecting documents and conducting interviews with Goffman's relatives, colleagues, and friends. The archival work turned up documents which improve our understanding of Goffman the scholar the teacher and the man The approach adopted in this investigation sheds new light on Goffman s scholarship which has had an enormous and continuous impact across the social sciences and humanities Illiberal Education Dinesh D'Souza,1991 As it illuminates the crisis of liberal education and offers proposals for reform which deserve full debate Morton Halperin American Civil Liberties Union Illiberal Education documents how the politics of race and gender in our universities are rapidly eating away traditions of scholarship and reward for individual achievement Robert H Bork Education Teaching Between Fear and Hope Andrew L. Barlow,2003-06-05 Globalization is transforming societies everywhere in paradoxical and contradictory ways This book examines globalization s impact on race in the United States since the mid 1970s On one hand globalization is creating conditions that support intensified efforts to claim white privileges But globalization also creates new possibilities for anti racist movements and thus the potential to undermine racial privileges Globalization is thus transforming the terrain of all racial projects in the United States This book is an original contribution to the study of race It provides a structural analysis of race and a methodology for connecting global to national and local racial processes Written in a lively and down to earth style this book is a call to action in a time of fear and hope The Wise Writer Thomas Clifford Bibb,Shirley Marie Jordan,Thomasina Austin,2001-09 Stanford ,1997 Reporting Inequality Sally Lehrman,Venise Wagner,2019-03-04 Under increasingly intense newsroom demands reporters often find it difficult to cover the complexity of topics that deal with racial and social inequality This path breaking book lays out simple effective reporting strategies that equip journalists to investigate disparity s root causes Chapters discuss how racially disparate outcomes in health education wealth income housing and the criminal justice system are often the result of inequity in opportunity and also provide theoretical frameworks for understanding the roots of racial inequity Examples of model reporting from ProPublica the Center for Public Integrity and the San Jose Mercury News showcase best practice in writing while emphasizing community based reporting Throughout the book tools and practical techniques such as the Fault Lines framework the Listening Post and the authors Opportunity Index and Upstream Downstream Framework all help journalists improve their awareness and coverage of structural inequity at a practical level For students and journalists alike Reporting Inequality is an ideal resource for understanding how to cover structures of injustice with balance and precision The Western Journal of Black Studies ,2009 Peace Law Docket, 1945-1990 ,1991 Human Rights Organizations & Periodicals Directory ,1990 We, Too, Sing America Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni,1998 Divided into ten thematic sections this work illuminates the ways in which lives connect in spite of the differences that derive from ethnicity community age class or gender Exposing students to lifestyles values concerns and problems different from their own it encourages them to make meaningful contributions to class discussions Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,1995 Critical Perspectives of Third World America ,1983 World Monitor ,1992-07 Cultures Emily Thiroux,1997 Drawn from popular magazines and newspaper articles this absorbing collection of seventy five readings reflects the diverse heritages students bring to class by spotlighting various cultures The readings in Cultures are brief informative and interesting enough to maintain even the most reluctant reader s attention And Cultures is one of the only readers on the market to cover thoroughly each step of the writing process for each article The articles fall into three broad areas of general interest people and careers issues and ideas and culture and tradition The author covers the entire writing process with exercises in prereading defining reading prewriting revising and editing Building Community on Campus Jeanne Gazel,2001 Footnotes ,2004 Student Movements for Multiculturalism David Yamane,2001-06-18 Yamane successfully argues the need for a multicultural curriculum by attempting to bridge the arguments of those for and against such a requirement and pushes the reader to not be satisfied with the current marginalization of the multicultural curricular requirement as only one or two courses of a student s general education requirement Journal of College Student Development
