Truancy and Non-attendance in the Chicago Schools Edith Abbott, Sophonisba Preston Breckinridge, 1917

Truancy and Non-Attendance in the Chicago Schools Edith Abbott, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from Truancy and Non Attendance in the Chicago Schools A Study of the Social Aspects of the Compulsory Education and Child Labor Legislation of Illinois This study of the truant and non attending school children of Chicago was begun as a continuation of an inquiry into the care of the wards of the Juvenile Court of Cook County which we undertook some years ago in the Department of Social Investigation of the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy A study of the delinquent children of the court was published four years ago and it was planned to follow that volume with similar studies of the truant and the dependent children who also come before the Chicago Court The present volume however has taken us beyond the juvenile court children with whom we began A study of truant children which was planned as the second volume in a juvenile court series led us into the larger problem of school attendance for it was apparent that a study of truancy would be of little value without an inquiry into the broader questions of non attendance during the compulsory attendance period and the enforcement of the child labor laws which should protect the children who are near the age when the required period of school attendance comes to an end Thirty three years have passed since the principle of compulsory school attendance was adopted in the state of Illinois by the passing of the first Act to secure to children the benefit of an elementary education About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works instruction It appears from the recent census of the city that the number of children in Chicago between the ages of five and fifteen years is about 17 100 I take the period between five and fifteen years because these are generally regarded as the limits of the school age though many pupils remain in Truancy and Non-attendance in the Chicago Schools Edith Abbott,1970 Rethinking Chronic Absenteeism Sarah Winchell Lenhoff,Jeremy Singer,2025-03-05 A call for community based approaches to reducing the barriers that prevent regular attendance in K 12 schools Rules, the Education Department of the Board of Education of the City of Chicago Chicago (Ill.).
