True Story How To Combine Story And Action To Transform Your Business:

True Story Ty Montague, 2013 Is your company a storyteller or a storydoer The old way to market a business was storytelling But in today's world simply communicating your brand's story in the hope that customers will listen is no longer enough Instead your authentic brand must be evident in every action the organization undertakes Today's most successful businesses are storydoers These companies create products and services that from the very beginning are manifestations of an authentic and meaningful story one told primarily through action not advertising In True Story creative executive Ty Montague argues that any business regardless of size or industry can embrace the principles of storydoing Indeed our best run companies from small start ups to global conglomerates organize around a coherent narrative that is then broadcast through every action they take from product design to customer service to marketing Montague shows why storydoing firms are nimble more adaptive to change and more efficiently run businesses Montague is a founder of the growth consultancy co collective and the former president and CCO of J Walter Thompson the largest advertising agency in North America He brings his depth of creative business experience to the book and provides a clear framework and proven process for bringing you and your customers together in the creation of your brand story Montague introduces five critical elements what he calls the the four truths and the action map that are the foundation of storydoing the participants your customers partners and employees the protagonist your company today the stage the world around your business the quest your driving ambition and contribution to the world your action map the actions that will make your story real for participants The book is filled with examples of how forward thinking organizations including Red Bull Shaklee Grind TOMS Shoes and News Corporation are effectively using storydoing to transform their organizations and drive extraordinary results Organizational

Storytelling: A Leadership Connection Dr. Linda Ellington, 2024-10-24 If you are the leader who tells organizational stories people will start looking at you oddly You want them to because you have achieved a tiny victory You are fending off staleness by being the storyteller who reaches out and grabs the audience into the story instantaneously rather than so many other leaders who only give their audience a case of the blahs Be the person who leads in a zany laughter filled environment where politics is as absent as it can be in a human i e imperfect enterprise Strip off your blinders as the crazy past is soon going to look like a mellow prelude and create the organization that is exciting creative innovative and a hoot Just maybe the organizational fun line and the bottom line can intersect The Definitive Guide to Strategic Content Marketing Lazar

The Patient Centered Value System Anthony M. DiGioia, Eve Shapiro, 2017-09-11 Imagine You are a hospital Chief Executive Officer Chief Financial Officer medical or nursing director patient safety specialist quality improvement professional or a doctor or nurse on the front lines of patient care Every day you re aware that patients and families should be more engaged in their care so they would fare better both in the hospital and after discharge their care could be safer and more seamlessly coordinated patients should be ready for discharge sooner and readmitted less often your bottom line stronger your staff more fulfilled You enter into new payment models such as bundling with an uneasy awareness that your organization is at risk because you don t know what the care you deliver actually costs Like most healthcare leaders you are also still searching for a way to deliver care that will help you to achieve the Triple Aim care that leads to improved clinical outcomes better patient and family care experiences and reduced costs Sound familiar If so then it s time to read The Patient Centered Value System Transforming Healthcare through Co Design This book explains how to introduce the Patient Centered Value System in your organization to go from the current state to the ideal The Patient Centered Value System is a three part approach to co designing improvements in healthcare delivery collaborating with patients families and frontline providers to design the ideal state of care after listening to their wants and needs Central to the Patient Centered Value System is seeing every care experience through the eyes of patients and families The Patient Centered Value System is a process and performance improvement technique that consists of 1 Shadowing 2 the Patient and Family Centered Care Methodology and 3 Time Driven Activity Based Costing Shadowing is the essential tool in the Patient Centered Value System that helps you to see every care experience from the point of view of patients and families and enables you to calculate the true costs of healthcare over the full cycle of care Fundamental to the Patient Centered Value System is the building of teams to take you from the current state of care delivery to the ideal Healthcare transformation depends not on individual providers working to fix broken systems but on teams of providers working together while breaking down silos The results of using the Patient Centered Value System are patients and families who are actively engaged in their care which also improves their outcomes providers who see the care experience from the patient's and family's point of view and co design care delivery as a result the tight integration of clinical and financial performance and the realization of the Triple Aim
