Tuhami Portrait Moroccan Vincent Crapanzano:

Tuhami Vincent Crapanzano,1980 Tuhami is an illiterate Moroccan tilemaker who believes himself married to a camel footed she demon A master of magic and a superb story teller Tuhami lives in a dank windowless hovel near the kiln where he works Nightly he suffers visitations from the demons and saints who haunt his life and he seeks with crippling ambivalence liberation from A isha Qandisha the she demon In a sensitive and bold experiment in interpretive ethnography Crapanzano presents Tuhami s bizarre account of himself and his world In so doing Crapanzano draws on phenomenology psychoanalysis and symbolism to reflect upon the nature of reality and truth and to probe the limits of anthropology itself Tuhami has become one of the most important and widely cited representatives of a new understanding of the whole discipline of anthropology Tuhami Vincent Crapanzano,1986 Tuhami, Portrait of a Moroccan Vincent

Crapanzano,1980 Recapitulations Vincent Crapanzano,2015-03-17 A distinguished anthropologist tells his life story as a wistful novelist would watching himself as if he were someone else This memoir recaptures meaningful moments from the author s life as his childhood on the grounds of a psychiatric hospital his psychiatrist father s early death his years at school in Switzerland and then at Harvard in the 1960s his love affairs his own teaching and his far flung travels Taken together these stories have the power of a nothing taken for granted vision fighting those conventions and ideologies that deaden the creative and inquiring mind Dialogue as a Trans-disciplinary Concept Paul Mendes-Flohr,2015-06-16 This volume of essays constitutes a critical evaluation of Martin Buber s concept of dialogue as a trans disciplinary hermeneutic method So conceived dialogue has two distinct but ultimately convergent vectors The first is directed to the subject of one s investigation one is to listen to the voice of the Other and to suspend all predetermined categories and notions that one may have of the Other dialogue is first and foremost the art of unmediated listening One must allow the voice of the Other to question one s pre established positions fortified by professional emotional intellectual and ideological commitments Dialogue is also to be conducted between various disciplinary perspectives despite the regnant tendency to academic specialization In recent decades an increasing number of scholars have come to share Buber s position to foster cross disciplinary conversation if but to garner as Max Weber argued useful questions upon which he would not so easily hit upon from his own specialized point of view Accordingly the objective of this volume is to explore the reception of Buber s philosophy of dialogue in some of the disciplines that fell within the purview of his own writings Anthropology Hasidism Religious Studies Psychology and Psychiatry

Channeling Moroccanness Becky L. Schulthies,2020-12-01 Honorable Mention 2022 L Carl Brown AIMS Book Prize in North African Studies What does it mean to connect as a people through mass media This book approaches that question by exploring how Moroccans engage communicative failure as they seek to shape social and political relations in urban Fez Over the last decade laments of language and media failure in Fez have focused not just on social relations that used to be and have been lost but also on what ought to be and had yet to be realized

Such laments have transpired in a range of communication channels from objects such as devotional prayer beads and remote controls to interactional forms such as storytelling dress styles and orthography to media platforms like television news religious stations or WhatsApp group chats Channeling Moroccanness examines these laments as ways of speaking that created Moroccanness the feeling of participating in the ongoing formations of Moroccan relationality Rather than furthering the discourse about Morocco s conflict between liberal secularists and religious conservatives this ethnography shows the subtle range of ideologies and practices evoked in Fassi homes to calibrate Moroccan sociality and political consciousness

Spirit Possession around the World Joseph P. Laycock, 2015-05-26 This book provides a fascinating historical and cultural overview of traditional beliefs about spirit possession and exorcism around the world from Europe to Asia and the Middle East to the Americas Possession and exorcism are elements that occur in nearly every culture Why is belief in spiritual possession so universal This accessible reference volume offers a broad sample of the traditions and cultures involving possession and exorcism presenting thoughts on this widely popular topic by experts from the fields of anthropology sociology religious studies history neuroscience forensics and theology The entries cover the subject of possession and exorcism across all inhabited continents from the Bronze Age to the 21st century providing information that is accessible and intriguing as well as scholarly and authoritative Beyond addressing the Christian tradition of possession and exorcism Pentecostalism and New Age and less widely known Western concepts about possession and exorcism this work examines ideas about possession and exorcism from other world religions and the indigenous cultures of Asia Africa and the Americas It also covers historic cases of possession and presents biographies of famous theologians exorcists and possessed individuals High school and undergraduate readers will learn about world history religious and spiritual traditions and world cultures through a topic that figures prominently in popular culture and modern entertainment Bibliographies that accompany each entry as well as a selected general bibliography serve to help students locate print and electronic sources of additional information

The Interview Jonathan Skinner, 2020-06-03 What are new interview methods and practices in our new interview society and how do they relate to traditional social science research This volume interrogates the interview as understood used and under used by anthropologists It puts the interview itself in the hotseat by exploring the nature of the interview interview techniques and illustrative cases of interview use What is a successful and representative interview How are interviews best transcribed and integrated into our writing Is interview knowledge production safe ethical and representative And how are interviews used by anthropologists in their ethnographic practice This important volume leads the reader from an initial scrutiny of the interview to interview techniques and illustrative case studies It is experimental innovative and covers in detail matters such as awkwardness silence and censorship in interviews that do not feature in general interview textbooks It will appeal to social scientists engaged in qualitative research methods in general and anthropology and sociology students using interviews in their research and writing in particular

Academic Study of

Religions in a Cognitive, Anthropological and Sociological Perspective Tomáš Bubík, Jakub Havlíček, Silvie Kotherová, Dušan Lužný, Rudolf Havelka, 2021 The book deals with current issues of the study of religion as an academic discipline especially cognitive anthropological and sociological research of religious thought and behaviour Publikace pojednává o aktuálních problémech religionistiky jako akademické disciplíny zejména o kognitivním antropologickém a sociologickém výzkumu náboženství a jeho vývoji

The Sacred and its Scholars Idinopulos, Yonan, 1996-10-01 This volume of essays is devoted to a careful examination of the importance of methodology in the study of primary religious data The essays focus on the Sacred as an ultimate object of descriptive analysis and critical scrutiny on the part of a select number of North American and European methodologists in the study and teaching of the history of religions and its allied disciplines The central question to which the contributors respond are these What is the Sacred Is it a being or a concept of a being is it a mental state or an objective reality or something else entirely Can the Sacred be described as an empirical fact or as a formal rule for religious inquiry If the Sacred is a valid category in the study and teaching of religion then what can be said about the antithesis of the sacred namely the profane or the secular This volume probes these questions with great care in order to justify a number of ways the Sacred can be construed as an indispensable notion for the study and teaching of religion
