Turkey's Path To Democratization Barriers Actors Outcomes:

Turkey's Path to Democratization Muhammed Cetin, 2014-09-16 In this timely book the author addresses a number of key questions about Turkey's hard road to democratization. Is it still underway? What are the hindrances or blockages? What are the motivations and roles of civil society groupings in this evolving democracy? What is the current stance of and role of the military given Turkey's recent history of recurrent military coups d'état? The articles which follow the historical account and which provide a commentary on contemporary social and political events were written over a period of three years for publication in the English language newspaper Today's Zaman and are grouped in this book according to theme.

Turkey's Difficult Journey to Democracy İlter Turan, 2015 Turkey's Difficult Journey to Democracy provides a thorough examination of the evolution of Turkey's democracy to the present day. After the Second World War Turkey was considered to have made a highly successful transition from a single party authoritarian state to political competition. Yet within ten years Turkey had experienced its first military intervention. During the next forty years the country vacillated between democratic openings and direct or indirect military interventions. The ascendance in the importance of questions of economic prosperity has helped the deepening and maturing of Turkish democracy but some impediments persist to produce malfunctions in the operation of a fully democratic system. Through studying the Turkish experience of democratization Turkey's Difficult Journey to Democracy seeks to provide understanding of the challenges countries that are trying to become democracies encounter in this process.

Oxford Studies in Democratization is a series for scholars and students of comparative politics and related disciplines. Volumes concentrate on the comparative study of the democratization process that accompanied the decline and termination of the cold war. The geographical focus of the series is primarily Latin America, the Caribbean, Southern and Eastern Europe and relevant experiences in Africa and Asia. The series editor is Laurence Whitehead, Senior Research Fellow, Nuffield College, University of Oxford.

Nationalism and Intra-State Conflicts in the Postcolonial World Fonkem Achankeng, 2015-09-28 This book highlights the complexities of nationalism and the struggles of different groups left unaddressed within the nation states of a postcolonial world. The central question is what happened to the worldly and radical visions of freedom, liberty and equality that animated intellectual activists and policy makers from Woodrow Wilson in the 1920s. This book analyzes the outcome of lumping disparate groups of people together under one nation state and holding them together against the knowledge of the incompatibility theory of plural states. In a world of arbitrarily and colonially mapped sovereign states, groups and nations with distinctive histories and cultures trapped within the borders of sovereign states want the freedom to decide their own destinies. This book challenges, deconstructs and decolonizes Western epistemologies related to postcolonial state formation and maintenance. In examining the freedom concept that no human group ought to be determining the independence of other human groups, this book constructs an alternative conceptualization of nations and peoples' rights in the twenty-first century in which radical hopes and global dreams are recognized as central to internal nationalism struggles Political Transitions in Dominant Party Systems Joseph Wong, Edward Friedman, 2008-10-27 Using country specific case studies top rank analysts in the field focus on the lessons that dominant parties might learn from losing and the adaptations they consequently make in order to survive to remain competitive or to ultimately re gain power The Fall of the Turkish Model Cihan Tugal, 2016-02-23 Just a few short years ago the Turkish Model was being hailed across the world The New York Times gushed that Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdogan and his Justice and Development Party AKP had effectively integrated Islam democracy and vibrant economics making Turkey according to the International Crisis Group the envy of the Arab world And yet a more recent CNN headline wondered if Erdogan had become a dictator In this incisive analysis Cihan Tugal argues that this development runs broader and deeper than Erdogan s increasing personal authoritarianism The problems are inherent in the very model of Islamic liberalism once lauded in the Western press that formed the basis of the AKP s ascendancy and rule since 2002 an intended marriage of neoliberalism and democracy And this model can also only be understood as a response to regional politics especially to the Iranian Model a marriage of corporatism and Islamic revolution The Turkish model was a failure in its home country and the dynamics of the Arab world made it a tough commodity to export Tugal s masterful explication of the demise of Islamic liberalism brings in Egypt and Tunisia once seen as the most likely followers of the Turkish model and provides a path breaking examination of their regimes and Islamist movements as well as paradigm shifting accounts of Turkey and Iran Consolidating the Democracy Project in Africa ,2007 Collective Securitization and Crisification of EU Policy Change Christian Kaunert, Sarah Léonard, 2022-08-22 This book represents the first attempt to evaluate the first two decades of the EU counterterrorism policy It aims to assess the collective securitization process in EU counterterrorism evaluating this as a process between a construction of security threats and the development of supranational governance through crisification Compared to the lack of shared perception of the terrorist threat and the virtual absence of counterterrorism cooperation amongst European states in the 1970s and 1980s the existence of EU wide debates legislative instruments and practical cooperation nowadays is particularly remarkable The chapters in this volume explore this change and seek to explain it by drawing upon the concept of collective securitization The book posits that EU counterterrorism needs to be analysed as a process driven by collective securitization as part of an ongoing process of crisification that leads to increased supranational governance The book is both extremely relevant and timely for readers outside the area of research for several reasons First of all EU counterterrorism is often argued to be at the forefront of the EU s response to new security threats The EU acquis on the Area of Freedom Security and Justice AFSJ has grown significantly over the last years Consequently it is crucial and very timely to examine EU counterterrorism exactly 20 years after the first significant measures were adopted in the wake of 9 11 The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Global Affairs

Turkey and the Balkans Başak Z. Alpan, Ahmet Erdi Öztürk, 2022-12-26 This book delves into Turkey s increasing ethno religious pragmatic and complicated involvement and activism in the Balkans since 2002 under the Justice and Development Party Adalet ve Kalkınma Partisi AKP It primarily focusses on the intersectionality between domestic and foreign policy that has played an important role in Turkey's recent relations with the Balkan countries as well as exploring how the Europeanisation process influences this relationality Broadly the chapters in this volume posit that religion ethnicity and kin politics are indispensable components of identity politics and have the capacity to transform Turkey's foreign policy attitudes as well as the orientations of the Balkan countries The book also asserts that the impact of the processes of Europeanisation and de Europeanisation on the relationship between Turkey and the Balkans needs to be included into the analysis This book will be useful to students researchers and academics interested in Politics International Relations and Southeast European Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Southeast European and Black Sea Studies
