Vaka Thomas R. A. H. Davis, 1992 A novel about a great Polynesian voyaging canoe Takitumu and the people who sailed across Te Moana Nui a Kiva the Pacific Ocean Vaka Thomas R. A. H. Davis, 1999 A novel about a great Polynesian voyaging canoe Takitumu and the people who sailed across Te Moana Nui a Kiva the Pacific Ocean Routes and Roots Elizabeth DeLoughrey, 2009-12-31 Elizabeth DeLoughrey invokes the cyclical model of the continual movement and rhythm of the ocean tidalectics to destabilize the national ethnic and even regional frameworks that have been the mainstays of literary study The result is a privileging of alter native epistemologies whereby island cultures are positioned where they should have been all along at the forefront of the world historical process of transoceanic migration and landfall The research determination and intellectual dexterity that infuse this nuanced and meticulous reading of Pacific and Caribbean literature invigorate and deepen our interest in and appreciation of island literature Vilsoni Hereniko University of Hawai i Elizabeth DeLoughrey brings contemporary hybridity diaspora and globalization theory to bear on ideas of indigeneity to show the complexities of native identities and rights and their grounded opposition as indigenous regionalism to free floating globalized cosmopolitanism Her models are instructive for all postcolonial readers in an age of transnational migrations Paul Sharrad University of Wollongong Australia Routes and Roots is the first comparative study of Caribbean and Pacific Island literatures and the first work to bring indigenous and diaspora literary studies together in a sustained dialogue Taking the tidalectic between land and sea as a dynamic starting point Elizabeth DeLoughrey foregrounds geography and history in her exploration of how island writers inscribe the complex relation between routes and roots The first section looks at the sea as history in literatures of the Atlantic middle passage and Pacific Island voyaging theorizing the transoceanic imaginary The second section turns to the land to examine indigenous epistemologies in nation building literatures Both sections are particularly attentive to the ways in which the metaphors of routes and roots are gendered exploring how masculine travelers are naturalized through their voyages across feminized lands and seas This methodology of charting transoceanic migration and landfall helps elucidate how theories and people travel positioning island cultures in the world historical process In fact DeLoughrey demonstrates how these tropical island cultures helped constitute the very metropolises that deemed them peripheral to modernity Fresh in its ideas original in its approach Routes and Roots engages broadly with history anthropology and feminist postcolonial Caribbean and Pacific literary and cultural studies It productively traverses diaspora and indigenous studies in a way that will facilitate broader discussion between these often segregated disciplines
