Unclaimed Experience Trauma Narrative And History:

Unclaimed Experience Cathy Caruth, 2016-12-15 The pathbreaking work that founded the field of trauma studies In Unclaimed Experience Cathy Caruth proposes that in the widespread and bewildering experience of trauma in our century both in its occurrence and in our attempt to understand it we can recognize the possibility of a history no longer based on simple models of straightforward experience and reference Through the notion of trauma she contends we come to a new understanding that permits history to arise where immediate understanding may not Caruth explores the ways in which the texts of psychoanalysis literature and literary theory both speak about and speak through the profound story of traumatic experience Rather than straightforwardly describing actual case studies of trauma survivors or attempting to elucidate directly the psychiatry of trauma she examines the complex ways that knowing and not knowing are entangled in the language of trauma and in the stories associated with it Caruth's wide ranging discussion touches on Freud's theory of trauma as outlined in Moses and Monotheism and Beyond the Pleasure Principle She traces the notion of reference and the figure of the falling body in de Man Kleist and Kant the narratives of personal catastrophe in Hiroshima mon amour and the traumatic address in Lecompte's reinterpretation of Freud's narrative of the dream of the burning child In this twentieth anniversary edition of her now classic text a substantial new afterword addresses major questions and controversies surrounding trauma theory that have arisen over the past two decades Caruth offers innovative insights into the inherent connection between individual and collective trauma on the importance of the political and ethical dimensions of the theory of trauma and on the crucial place of literature in the theoretical articulation of the very concept of trauma Her afterword serves as a decisive intervention in the ongoing discussions in and about the field

Trauma Cathy Caruth, 1995-06 A distinguished group of analysts and critics offers a compelling look at what literature and the new approaches of theoretical disciplines bring to the understanding of traumatic experiences such as child abuse AIDS and the effects of historical atrocities such as the Holocaust These essays offer fresh approaches on the subject of trauma from both a psychoanalytic and contemporary theoretical point of view Alan Bass Ph D psychoanalyst

Trauma and Visuality in Modernity Lisa Saltzman, Eric M. Rosenberg, 2006 Essays exploring the role of trauma in modern art

The Future of Memory Richard Crownshaw, Jane Kilby, Antony Rowland, 2010-11-01 Memory studies has become a rapidly growing area of scholarly as well as public interest This volume brings together world experts to explore the current critical trends in this new academic field It embraces work on diverse but interconnected phenomena such as twenty first century museums shocking memorials in present day Rwanda and the firsthand testimony of the victims of genocidal conflicts The collection engages with pressing real world issues such as the furor around the recent 9 11 memorial and what we really mean when we talk about trauma

Western Historiography in Asia Q. Edward Wang, Okamoto Michihiro, Longguo Li, 2022-02-21 This volume provides a unique and critical perspective on how Chinese Japanese and Korean scholars engage and critique the West in their historical thinking It showcases the dialogue between Asian experts and their Euro American counterparts and offers valuable insights on how to challenge and overcome Eurocentrism in historical writing Writing History, Writing Trauma Dominick LaCapra,2014-09-03 An updated edition of a major work in trauma studies Trauma and its aftermath pose acute problems for historical representation and understanding In Writing History Writing Trauma Dominick LaCapra critically analyzes attempts by theorists and literary critics to come to terms with trauma and with the crucial role post traumatic testimonies notably Holocaust testimonies assume in thought and in writing These attempts are addressed in a series of six interlocking essays that adapt psychoanalytic concepts to historical analysis while employing sociocultural and political critique to elucidate trauma and its aftereffects in culture and in people This updated edition includes a substantive new preface that reconsiders some of the issues raised in the book Holocaust Theater Gene A. Plunka,2017-12-22 Facts about the Holocaust are one way of learning about its devastating impact but presenting personal manifestations of trauma can be more effective than citing statistics Holocaust Theater addresses a selection of contemporary plays about the Holocaust examining how collective and individual trauma is represented in dramatic texts and considering the ways in which spectators might be swayed viscerally intellectually and emotionally by witnessing such representations onstage Drawing on interviews with a number of the playwrights alongside psychoanalytic studies of survivor trauma this volume seeks to foster understanding of the traumatic effects of the Holocaust on subsequent generations Holocaust Theater offers a vital account of theater s capacity to represent the effects of Holocaust trauma Prose and Cons D. Quentin Miller,2005-10-04 As the United States prison population has exploded over the past 30 years a rich provocative and ever increasing body of literature has emerged written either by prisoners or by those who have come in close contact with them Unlike earlier prison writings contemporary literature moves in directions that are neither uniformly ideological nor uniformly political It has become increasingly personal and the obsessive subject is the way identity is shaped compromised altered or obliterated by incarceration The 14 essays in this work examine the last 30 years of prison literature from a wide variety of perspectives The first four essays examine race and ethnicity the social categories most evident in U S prisons The three essays in the next section explore gender a prominent subject of prison literature highlighted by the absolute separation of male and female inmates Section three provides three essays focused on the part ideology plays in prison writings The four essays in section four consider how aesthetics and language are used seeking to define the qualities of the literature and to determine some of the reasons it exists Refractions of Violence Martin Jay,2013-10-08 A new collection of essays by the internationally recognized cultural critic and intellectual historian Martin Jay that revolves around the themes of violence and visibility with essays on the Holocaust and virtual reality religious violence the art world and the Unicorn Killer among a wide range of other topics The Memory of Catastrophe Peter Gray,Kendrick Oliver,2004 Investigates the dynamic relationship between experiences of profound social and cultural disruption and human memory Critical comparisons are made across a wide variety of catastrophic experiences and memories not just of war but also of massacre genocide rebellion famine partition shipwreck and fire The book is an accessible showcase for a wide range of methodological approaches to the study of memory including literary studies cultural studies participant observation and historical studies and uses a variety of oral visual and written sources Offers a diverse chronological and geographical range of catastrophic cases from seventeenth century England to the recent conflicts in the former Yugoslavia from Ireland to the Indian sub continent from Mexico to wartime Leningrad Well written and accessible a fascinating read Eva Hesse Vanessa Corby, Eva Hesse, 2010-06-22 In the ten years between 1960 and 1970 German born American artist Eva Hesse produced one of the most compelling art practices of the twentieth century Her death in 1970 has been a profound loss for contemporary art but the creative legacies of her practice continue to impact upon today's artists In this book Vanessa Corby presents a fascinating new analysis that starts from the position of a painter the book develops a novel art historical method to consider the manner in which artistic protocols and processes negotiate and transform culturally mediated historical experience Hesse's encounters with the work of Rico Lebrun the growing cultural significance of The Diary of Anne Frank and the capture and trial of Adolf Eichmann are each situated in relation to the artist's processes of picturing in order to supplement and shift current understanding of Hesse's art practice Corby aims to show that the artist's work emerged in parallel with the recognition of the event now

The Mississippi Quarterly, 2002 Visions of the Irish Dream Marguerite Quintelli-Neary, 2009 Visions of the Irish Dream assembles essays that examine the elusive dream of the Irish and Irish Americans looking at aspirations of 19th century emigrants to Canada and the United States political and educational goals of the Irish historic trauma contemporary xenophobia and artists' renditions of 'Irishness' Whether the dreams are fulfilled or deferred they all strive to come to terms with what it means to be Irish sometimes the definition involves bringing a piece of the old country with you buying facsimiles of 'genuine' Irish goods or redefining self in a way that frees Ireland of the colonial model This study explores the conflicted and shifting visions of the people who inhabit or have left an isolated island that has moved from a search for independence to integration into a European union From discussion of the politics of translation in Ferguson and Mangan to the establishment of the National schools the movement of the Celts from continental Europe as evidenced in Joyce to the transatlantic flight of the Irish to the Americas in a drama by Nicola McCartney and the re-invention of the feminine force in the writings of novelists Jennifer Johnston and Roddy Doyle to the feminine voice expressed in the work of poet Eiléan Ní Chuillean in the collection underscores the significance of the dream in Irish history and the arts Lost in the Archives Rebecca Comay, 2002 There is a crisis in the archives The contemporary world requires that increasingly vast amounts of material be archived and accessed and this presents unprecedented possibilities and problems for the production storage and use of knowledge With this context in view Lost in the Archives explores the productive potential of memory's failures its technical dropouts omissions burials eclipses and denials Page 2 de la couverture The Image and the Witness Frances Guerin, Roger Hallas, 2007 The Image and the Witness Trauma Memory and Visual Culture is a timely interdisciplinary collection of original essays concerning the ethical stakes of the image in our visually saturated age It explores the role of the material image in bearing witness to historical events and the visual representation of witnesses to collective trauma In arguing for the agency of the image this unique collection debates post traumatic memory documentary ethics embodied vision and the recycling of images It discusses works by Chris Marker Errol Morris Derek Jarman Doris Salcedo Gerhard Richter and Boris Mikhailov along with images from popular culture including websites and home movies International Encyclopedia of the Social & Behavioral Sciences Neil J.
