INTRODUCTION

The Model 48-MAX Interconnected Repeater Panel is the latest, most powerful shared customer interconnect available from Zetron. It is designed for service providers who need the best in performance and reliability in order to compete most effectively when providing mobile communication services.

The 48-MAX may be equipped with previously unavailable capabilities, such as owner-recordable voice prompts, enhanced toll restriction, a telephone line expander, and intersystem roaming for wide-area coverage. These and other features ensure continued profitability and competitiveness for providers of radiotelephone interconnect service.

In addition to service providers, the M48-MAX is also ideal for private, user-owned systems that need a high degree of versatility and numerous convenience features.

Zetron customers will recognize that the 48-MAX is similar to the Zetron Model 48B Repeater Manager but with the addition of many exclusive, high-end features.

For ease of configuration, the M48-MAX is available in three version: Basic, Selcall, and Roamer (see next page).
