Under Suspicion Claire McNab, 2000 When a law enforcement officer dies under highly suspicious circumstances it sounds like a perfect case for Australian Detective Inspector Carol Ashton Too bad she's the suspect Attending a rigorous F B I training course in the United States Aussie top cop Carol Ashton feels a little out of her element but is she out of her league as well After a bitter argument with an instructor Carol is shocked to find herself accused of murder Framed friendless and far from home Carol soon discovers that her only ally is a female F B I agent with a not so hidden agenda But will there be time to find the real killer as the evidence against Carol mounts and the clock ticks down on her career her freedom and her life

The Gay Detective Novel Judith A. Markowitz, 2015-02-16 Gertrude Stein called it the only really modern novel form that has come into existence yet the mystery genre was a century old before it featured its first gay main character in a novel Since then gay and lesbian detective fiction has been one of the fastest growing segments of the genre It incorporates gay and lesbian cultural elements and offers crossover appeal Its authors call upon a century of development in the mystery genre while providing new more accurate images of lesbians and gay men than generally found in mainstream literature and popular media This groundbreaking study of gay and lesbian detective fiction examines mystery series and historically significant stand alone novels published since the early 1960s Part I is an overview that describes how these novels make gay and lesbian life visible and forge new powerful images It also examines how they fit into the larger history of mystery fiction The series analyses in Part II are grouped according to the type of main character police officer private investigator amateur sleuth etc Each section discusses main and secondary characters of that type characteristic themes for the group and more The analyses of individual series cover main characters themes plot points and other elements Comments from authors interviewed for this book play a central role in those analyses Part III lists series spanning themes e g homophobia the closet gay marriage and the novels and series that address each of those themes

She Walks in Beauty Nicole Conn, 2001 Spencer's going nowhere fast her reckless life of wine women and whatever else feels good soon becomes a dizzying blur of ambition obsession and shattered dreams When she finally runs out of gas she realizes she has lost the only woman she truly loved

Death Club Claire McNab, 2001-10 When a murderer tees off at the world's most prestigious women's golf tournament Australian top cop Carol Ashton becomes an unwilling player in a much deadlier game Loaded with brains style and megabucks Australian fashion magnate Gussie Whitlew is used to getting everything she wants And what she wants is the finest food the fastest cars and the most fabulous women This time her bait is Whitlew Challenge an exclusive golf tournament carefully designed to lure the world's top female athletes to her private clubhouse With a lot more at stake than the 1.5 million purse tension soon flares among players fans and just about everyone else Before long so much is going on off the course that even abrasive sports reporter Mandi Fiedler has a hard time keeping her eye on the ball until the fairway becomes a killing field and someone sets out to even the score Thirteenth in the Carol Ashton Series
