A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings J. Bruyn, B. Haak, S.H. Levie, P.J.J. van Thiel, 2012-12-06 Since the second half of the last century art historians realizing that the image of Rembrandt's work had become blurred with time have attempted to redefine the artist's significance both as a source of inspiration to other artists and as a great artist in his own right In order to carry on the work started by previous generations a group of leading Dutch art historians from the university and museum world joined forces in the late 1960s in order to study afresh the paintings usually ascribed to the artist The researchers came together in the Rembrandt Research Project which was established to provide the art world with a new standard reference work which would serve the community of art historians for the nearby and long future They examined the originals of all works attributed to Rembrandt taking full advantage of today's sophisticated techniques including radiography neutron activation autoradiography dendrochronology and paint sample analysis thereby gaining valuable insight into the genesis and condition of the paintings The result of this meticulous research is laid down chronologically in the following Volumes THIS VOLUME A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume I which deals with works from Rembrandt's early years in Leiden 1629 1631 published in 1982 A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume II covering his first years in Amsterdam 1631 1634 published in 1986 A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume III goes into his later years of reputation 1635 1642 published in 1990 Each Volume consists of a number of Introductory Chapters as well as the full Catalogue of all paintings from the given time period attributed to Rembrandt In this catalogue each painting is discussed and examined in a detailed way comprising a descriptive an interpretative and a documentary section For the authenticity evaluation of the paintings three different categories are used to divide the works in A Paintings by Rembrandt B Paintings of which Rembrandt's authorship cannot be positively either accepted or rejected and C Paintings of which Rembrandt's authorship cannot be accepted This volume Volume I contains 730 pages starting of with four introductory chapters and discussing 93 paintings In clear and accessible explanatory text all different paintings are discussed larded with immaculate images of each painting Details are shown where possible as well as the results of modern day technical imaging In this volume the first ever works by Rembrandt are discussed also using his etchings as comparison

Young Rembrandt An Van Camp, Christopher Brown, Christiaan Vogelaar, 2020-01-31. Explores all aspects of Rembrandt's early development as an artist. Published to coincide with the 350th anniversary of Rembrandt's death. Contains much new research into his early years. Publication accompanies an exhibition to be held at Lakenhal Leiden from November 2019 to February 2020, then at the Ashmolean from February 2020 to June 2020. Young Rembrandt concentrates on the first ten years of the career of Rembrandt van Rijn 1606-1669. Born in Leiden, he trained there with Isaac van Swanenburg and in Amsterdam with Pieter Lastman. After a short stay in Amsterdam, he returned to Leiden and set up a studio where he began his extraordinary career painting scenes from the Bible and classical mythology and history as well as a handful of genre scenes and portraits. His progress is remarkable from the earliest hesitant paintings of the Five Senses in about 1624 to the wonderfully assured Jeremiah of 1630. It is almost possible to trace his development and his increasing fluency and self-confidence from month to month and certainly from year to year. Published to accompany exhibitions at the Lakenhal Leiden from November 2019 to February 2020, then at the Ashmolean Museum Oxford from February to June 2020.
