Yurugu An African Centered Critique Of European Cultural Thought And Behavior:

Yurugu Marimba Ani,1994 Cultural Thought and Behavior Removes the mask from the European facade and thereby reveals the inner workings of global white supremacy The Osaro Theory Efosa Osaro,2019-07-11 The Osaro Theory suggests that there is a variation between those who evolved in tropical conditions and those who evolved in a colder climate It is the author s belief that these environmental differences have altered not only the physiology but are also responsible for the biological and the behavioral differences between blacks whites and Asians The Emotional Reservoir is a phrase he coined based on the study of the enormous effect of the sun on the earth and how it affects human biology physiology and behavior According to his theory these environmental differences have numerous effects on human beings also on how the environment can dictate human intelligence This theory also suggests that the people who evolved out of sub Saharan Africa tend to possess more Emotional Reservoir than the Europeans and Asians who evolved in a colder environment and who tend to have a lesser Emotional Reservoir Furthermore this higher Emotional Reservoir is also responsible for certain behaviors that are detrimental to the growth and the stability of these groups which in turn cause behavioral pathologies and poor decision making Pan-Africanism in Modern Times Olayiwola Abegunrin,Sabella Ogbobode Abidde,2016-06-15 For about one hundred years Pan Africanism as a social cultural economic political and philosophical idea thrived Towards the tail end of the twentieth century however it waned But in more recent times there has been noticeable resurgence And as we approach the second decade of the twenty first century there are indications of significant transformations vis vis the role and place of Pan Africanism and Pan Africanists Consequently this book offers a new further and better understanding of Pan Africanism not just from the traditional African and African American points of view but also from a global perspective It does so by offering an analysis of its early years in terms of the personalities ideas and conferences that shaped it it also examines many of the factors that brought about its decline and its eventual rebirth Contributing to this seminal work are scholars of different but complementary styles and intellect who deviate from the more traditional or obvious approaches For instance one of the chapters explores Pan Africanism from the geographic perspective while another examines the role and place of women in the Pan African movement There are also voices that advance the conversation from the regional and continental viewpoint hence chapters that investigate the status of Pan Africanism in Latin America in the Caribbean and Islam and Pan Africanism in the modern world Ethnonationalism and xenophobia are also part of the treatise because increasingly these injurious phenomena are reemerging in Africa s landscape and consciousness In an increasingly interdependent and interrelated world this book also suggests that Pan Africanism will undergo a metamorphosis problems and challenges will be seen and tackled from the globalization and global common perspective Pan Africanism in Modern Times goes beyond the historicity of Pan Africanism and examines the challenges concerns and constraints it faces and also examines it from an inclusive perspective to have a broader understanding of this phenomenon and its future trajectory Afrocentric

Thought and Praxis Cecil Conteen Gray,2001 Adding clarity and definition to the history of African centred thought and praxis this book functions as an intellectual and practical bridge assisting African people in their historical intellectual practical and transformational journey from where they are to where they need to be from current realms of humanness and harmony to ever higher and deeper realms of humanness and harmony A Womanist Holistic Soteriology Lahrona Welch Little,2023-04-24 A Womanist Holistic Soteriology Stitching Fabrics with Fine Threads is a construction of womanist holistic soteriology that is inclusive of many voices and perspectives and promotes communal responsibility A soteriology that considers notions of personhood theology spirituality and praxeology is holistic inclusive and grace filled This soteriological study begins with a historical overview of the development of notions of salvation beginning in ancient Egyptian thought and the concept of Ma at balance wholeness and moral ethics Lahrona Welch Little conducts an exploration of the word salvation in different West African languages and reveals more expansive narratives around salvation that do not subjugate human beings but rather encourage agency and celebrate the beingness of God s creation Grounded in womanist and Black feminist discourse and methodology this rendition of womanist holistic soteriology holds notions of grace agency and spirituality by stitching together interviews with theologians scholars and practitioners utilizing the philosophical concepts of binary complementarity and holism and sharing what womanist holistic soteriology as praxis looks like in a communal setting

African-centered Psychology Daudi Ajani ya Azibo,2003 African Centered Psychology Culture Focusing for Multicultural Competence addresses various topics on the psychology of African people Although most analyses focus on the African U S diaspora Azibo articulates principles that are applicable to most African populations The book opens with an introduction to the field of black psychology its history and its relationship to western psychology Theories of personality are discussed as well as a review of the diagnostic manuals of mental disorders in western psychology and psychiatry Furthermore Azibo suggests a restructuring of social work that respects African culture reports the favorable results of an African centered treatment approach describes a Ghanaian approach to adjusting to widowhood and reviews psychological factors related to using condoms for HIV prevention in the African U S population He also discusses issues involving contemporary hair behavior among African U S women psychological warfare tactics used by the U S government against revolutionary activists and how the media can create images affecting African identity The book concludes with empirical research studies of African identity Selected Papers from the Proceedings of the Conference on Ethics, Higher Education, and Social Responsibility Segun Gbadegesin,Joyce A. Ladner,1996 Human Rights, Cultural Differences, and the Church in Africa Aquiline Tarimo,2004 Praeger Handbook of Black American Health Ivor Lensworth Livingston,2004 Faith, Health, and Healing in African American Life Stephanie Y. Mitchem,Emilie M. Townes,2008-08-30 Offers an overview of the varieties of ways African Americans address healing and health particularly through religion faith and spirituality (Anti) Narcissisms and (anti) Capitalisms Mark Malisa,2010 What if Mahatma Gandhi Malcolm X Nelson Mandela and Jurgen

Habermas had a conversation on what it means to be a human being This book synthesizes the depiction of human nature in relation to anti capitalisms and anti narcissisms in the work of Mahatma Gandhi Moksha Malcolm X Islam Nelson Mandela Ubuntu and Jurgen Habermas Communicative Action Critical Theory Understandings of what it means to be a human being and the purpose of life vary from one philosophy to another and yet have a bearing on contemporary issues The reader is invited to assess the philosophies with regard to conceptually and life affirming philosophies of human nature when placed in the context of anti narcissisms and anti capitalisms Also examined are the theories of education in the works Mahatma Gandhi Malcolm X Nelson Mandela and Jurgen Habermas To teach toward a fuller and meaningful humanity requires an analysis and understanding of the many traditions that contribute to humankind including the non western The classroom offers unheralded opportunities for students and educators to be knowledgeable about different cultures peoples and ways of being Anti Narcissisms and Anti Capitalisms will be of interest to researchers educators students peace activists philosophers of education and those working in the humanities Mark Malisa Formerly of Northeastern University Boston Massachusetts United States of America

Vision and Time C. Tsehloane Keto, 2001 Vision and Time is a wake up call for Africans and people of goodwill that the academic enterprise cannot continue knowledge creation with a business as usual attitude There has to be a major transformation of the intellectual perspectives regarding Africa and Africans in the 21st century This revised edition of 1995 s Vision Identity and Time explores the relationship of a geo culturally based Africa centered paradigm in the emerging global village of the 21st century This text argues that perceptions of world history in a multicultural world require the acceptance of multiple perspectives The book distinguishes between hegemonic and non hegemonic perspectives discusses the significance of early Nile Valley culture and outlines frameworks of analysis using examples of African American history and South African history Vision and Time is illustrated with diagrams and maps that explain complex developments This is a book that enables social science practitioners to meet the challenges of a diverse global village of the 21st century
