Nice Girls Don't Change the World Lynne Hybels, 2011-04-19 Margaret Mead said Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful committed citizens can change the world My version of that quote is Never doubt that a community of thoughtful committed women filled with the power and love of God using gifts they have identified and developed and pursuing passions planted in them by God never doubt that these women can change the world Lynne Hybels Nice Girls are taught early that serving God means earning God's love and sacrificing oneself to meet the needs of others Unfortunately after living a life she thought was what God demanded her husband wanted her kids needed and her church expected Lynne Hybels felt utterly lost both to herself and to God In this wise and tender book Hybels tells of her struggle to stop living someone else's life and to reclaim the unique gifts strengths and passions God gave her And she reveals how turning away from her false view of God as a harsh and demanding taskmaster enabled her to rest at last in God's sustaining love As she explains it's never too late to discover that who you really are is exactly what delights God and what the world needs
