

WHO'S AFRAID OF A LARGE BLACK MAN?

"RACISM IS THE BIGGEST CANCER OF MY LIFETIME. And I know I can't cure the cancer, but doesn't somebody have to attack it? I set out to interview people who are influential in their various fields. I wanted to talk to them about how race affects their lives and the industries they work in. It just seems to me people are afraid to talk about race. We're richer than ever, more educated than ever. The country is more diverse than ever. But I think we're more scared than we've ever been when it comes to talking about race. Nobody wants to talk about what they think about people who are different until something really terrible happens, and once you reach that point nobody is rational. At that point, people are just stuck in their positions hating each other. I wasn't expecting to find concrete answers. Maybe there aren't any to find anyway. I know people will disagree whenever race is a topic, but that's part of the point. We shouldn't be so afraid to disagree or to argue that we just avoid something that everybody knows is so destructive. I wanted to try and start a dialogue. I wanted to sit down with people and have open, positive discussions about race and how they feel about where we're going, what's good, what's bad, what smart people ought to be thinking."
