Whos Who In The Pacific Southwest:

Who's who in the Pacific Southwest, 1913 Who's Who in the Pacific Southwest, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from Who's Who in the Pacific Southwest A Compilation of Authentic Biographical Sketches of Citizens of Southern California and Arizona This work is submitted to the public with confidence in its usefulness and value and without a misgiving as to its hearty reception Preparing and editing the volume have required several months of painstaking labor by a large force of experts and the publishers do not hesitate to say that they are gratified with the result since this publication stands without any counterpart in West Coast literature The book is modeled after the standard of all works of this character Who's Who published in England All eulogistic matter has been omitted only a bare statement of facts has been made in each case in conformity with Who's Who style No other style is permissible in a work in which all sketches are prepared from data furnished by the subjects themselves In conforming strictly to this idea the publishers feel that they have achieved a work of character and dignity Every art profession and industry is represented in the brief life sketches of their exponents and in these pages will be found more complete data respecting a greater number of residents of the Pacific Southwest than ever was compiled before The purpose has been to gather these little life histories of people who have contributed to the making of the great Pacific Southwest into a volume accessible to all It contains approximately 4 000 sketches of representative people in every reputable walk of life and will be of recognized value to every one who keeps abreast of the times and is interested in what those with whom he deals have done and are doing This work is entirely different from the ordinary biographical publication inasmuch as no space has been sold All sketches are unpaid for and printed with the sole object of giving the public a representative work in which the sale of space was not the object on the same plan as encyclopedias and other standard works of reference It is obvious that such a book to be of value to the diversified interests to which it appeals must be as accurate as conscientious work can make it Absolute reliability has been the great aim of the publication and the long service of the publishers to the public is its best guarantee About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Who's who on the Pacific Coast Franklin Harper, 1913 WHOS WHO IN THE PACIFIC SOUTHW Anonymous, 2016-08-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Who's who on the Pacific Coast ,1951

Who's who in California ,1929 Who's who in the Pacific Southwest ,1913 Who's Who in Pacific Navigation John Dunmore,2019-09-30 More than four centuries have passed since Europeans first set eyes on the Pacific that vast ocean about which earlier generations had theorized and fantasized They soon ventured forth in search of undiscovered lands unknown peoples and imagined riches Eventually the Pacific came to reflect the rivalries of Europe as Spanish explorers were followed by the Dutch the English and the French and then by traders and colonizers Now for the first time collected in a single convenient reference volume readers will be able to find details of the lives and achievements of those who took part in this great era of exploration This biographical dictionary includes the major figures of the voyages of exploration as well as missionaries traders whalers naturalists and others who by accident or design contributed to European discovery in the Pacific between the sixteenth and early twentieth centuries Scholars and others interested in this era will be able to identify easily and promptly the people they come across in their reading situate them in their proper context and gain an idea of their background travels and achievements John Dunmore has scrutinized a wealth of primary and secondary sources to amass the information collected here Some biographies are lengthy noted individuals like Cook have spawned a massive bibliography while others reflect the sparsity of the historical record Who's Who in Pacific Navigation includes a detailed bibliography organized by country to aid those wishing to delve further into any subject The comprehensive index makes the information in the volume easily accessible The Accountants' Directory and Who's who ,1925 Women and American Socialism, 1870-1920 Mari Jo Buhle,2023-02-03 Socialist women faced the often thorny dilemma of fitting their concern with women's rights into their commitment to socialism Mari Jo Buhle examines women's efforts to agitate for suffrage sexual and economic emancipation and other issues and the political and intellectual conflicts that arose in response In particular she analyzes the clash between a nativist socialism influenced by ideas of individual rights and the class based socialism championed by German American immigrants As she shows the two sides diverged often greatly in their approaches and their definitions of women's emancipation Their differing tactics and goals undermined unity and in time cost women their independence within the larger movement Homer Lea Lawrence M. Kaplan,2010-10-01 The unlikely story of Lea's attempts to train a cadre of soldiers in American Chinatowns who would return to their homeland to make it a modern world power Pacific Historical Review As a five feet three inch hunchback who weighed about 100 pounds Homer Lea 1876

1912 was an unlikely candidate for life on the battlefield yet he became a world renowned military hero Homer Lea American Soldier of Fortune paints a revealing portrait of a diminutive yet determined man who never earned his valor on the field of battle but left an indelible mark on his times Lawrence M Kaplan draws from extensive research to illuminate the life of a man of mystery while also yielding a clearer understanding of the early twentieth century Chinese underground reform and revolutionary movements Lea s career began in the inner circles of a powerful Chinese movement in San Francisco that led him to a generalship during the Boxer Rebellion Fixated with commanding his own Chinese army Lea s inflated aspirations were almost always dashed by reality Although he never achieved the leadership role for which he strived he became a trusted advisor to revolutionary leader Dr Sun Yat sen during the 1911 revolution that overthrew the Manchu Dynasty As an author Lea garnered fame for two books on geopolitics The Valor of Ignorance which examined weaknesses in the American defenses and included dire warnings of an impending Japanese American war and The Day of the Saxon which predicted the decline of the British Empire More than a character study this biography provides insight into the establishment and execution of underground reform and revolutionary movements within US immigrant communities and in southern China as well as early twentieth century geopolitical thought

Caroline Severance Virginia Elwood-Akers,2010-09-23 CAROLINE SEVERANCE present s the biography of one of the forgot ten heroines of the American womans suffrage movement of the nineteenth century Based upon twenty years of exhaustive research this is the biography of a woman who was in the forefront of every human rights movement of her time Caroline was an abolitionist a suffragist an advocate for womens health and women physicians a peace activist and a socialist She was a leader of the suffrage movement before the Civil War and afterward lived to vote in an American presidential election Born in western New York when it was the frontier of the United States she ended her life on another western frontier in Los Angeles California She has been recognized as one of the builders of the city of Los Angeles She witnessed the opening of the Erie Canal and more than eighty years later the first air show ever held in Los Angeles Always advocating the rights of women and realizing their potential as full citizens she was a founder of the Womens Club Movement which far from being a purely social movement was designed to allow women to discover that they had brains and leadership abilities This movement was instrumental in the final passage of the Nineteenth Amendment guaranteeing women the right to vote

Death Valley and the Amargosa Richard E. Lingenfelter,1986 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadliness that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history William Mulholland and the Rise of Los Angeles Catherine Mulholland,2002-05-06 Mulholland presided over the creation of a water system that forever changed the course of Southern California s history In the first full length biography of the water and civil engineer his granddaughter provides insights into the triumphant completion of the Owens Valley Aqueduct and the San Francisquito Dam tragedy that ended his career Archival photos 7 maps Who's who in America John W. Leonard,Albert Nelson Marquis,1928 Vols 28 30 accompanied by separately published parts with title Indices and necrology Monthly Bulletin Los Angeles Public Library,1913 American Biographical Index Laureen Baillie,2007 Who's who in Finance, Banking and Insurance John William Leonard,1911 Who's Who in Twentieth Century Warfare Spencer Tucker,2003-09-02 This authoritative biographical guide to warfare in the twentieth century is at once fascinating reading and an invaluable work of reference for anyone interested in modern military history As well as the First and Second World Wars this Who s Who takes in key figures from conflicts in Vietnam Korea and others Those whose lives and careers are covered here include not only major military leaders but also politicians inventors and other key public figures central to the course of twentieth century military history From Che Guevara to Mao Zhedong from Albert Speer to Norman Schwarzkopf and from Josef Stalin to Charles de Gaulle this volume s breadth of coverage makes it a unique and indispensable guide to an important and absorbing element of modern history An Encyclopedia of Women Artists of the American West Phil Kavinick,Marian Yoshiki-Kavinick,1998 This encyclopedia is a biographical dictionary of some 1 000 women artists of the American West The product of a twenty year coast to coast research project by authors Phil Kavinick and Marian Yoshiki Kavinick it offers accurate concise introductions to women painters graphic artists and sculptors all of whom achieved recognition as depicitors of Western subjects between the 1840s and 1980 Their styles range from representationalism to early modernism while their works depict everything from bold landscapes and scenes of intensive action to studies of Native Americans pioneers ranchers farmers wildlife and flora Each entry in the encyclopedia features the salient facts of the artist s life and career with attention to her work with Western subject matter Many of the entries also contain a selected list of the artist s exhibitions current locations of her work in public collections pertinent references and a black and white example of her work An overview of the history of women in western art complements the biographical entries
