Queerly Canadian, Second Edition Scott Rayter, Laine Halpern Zisman, 2022-09-14 In the second edition of this remarkable and comprehensive anthology many of Canada's leading sexuality studies scholars examine the fundamental role that sexuality has played and continues to play in the building of our nation and in our national narratives myths and anxieties about Canadian identity Thoroughly updated this new edition features twenty six new chapters on topics including Indigenous kinship Blackness masculinity disability queer resistance and sex education Covering both historical and contemporary perspectives on nation and community law and criminal justice organizing and activism health and medicine education marriage and family sport and popular culture and representation the essays also take a strong intersectional approach integrating analyses of race class and gender This interdisciplinary collection is essential for the Canadian sexuality studies classroom and for anyone interested in the mythologies and realities of queer life in Canada FEATURES Sixty percent new and expanded content with twenty six new chapters Thoroughly updated to reflect a strong emphasis on the diversity of queer experiences and identities in Canada Each chapter includes a brief introduction written for this collection by the author that provides helpful context about their work for both students and teachers Full Surrogacy

Now Sophie Lewis, 2021-08-31 Where pregnancy is concerned let every pregnancy be for everyone Let us overthrow in short the family The surrogacy industry is estimated to be worth over 1 billion a year and many of its surrogates around the world work in terrible conditions deception wage stealing and money skimming are rife adequate medical care is horrifyingly absent and informed consent is depressingly rare In Full Surrogacy Now Sophie Lewis brings a fresh and unique perspective to the topic Often we think of surrogacy as the problem but Full Surrogacy Now argues we need more surrogacy not less Rather than looking at surrogacy through a legal lens Lewis argues that the needs and protection of surrogates should be put front and center Their relationship to the babies they gestate must be rethought as part of a move to recognize that reproduction is productive work Only then can we begin to break down our assumptions that children belong to those whose genetics they share Taking collective responsibility for children would radically transform our notions of kinship helping us to see that it always takes a village to make a baby Father Involvement in Canada Jessica Ball, Kerry J. Daly, 2012-12-01 Father Involvement in Canada brings together almost two dozen leading scholars of fatherhood issues to examine the roles of Canadian fathers They look at the experiences of fathers from many angles considering different ages ethnicities marital statuses gender partnering and economic brackets and examining issues such as the impact of poverty access to paternity leave and the availability of support from social institutions By co considering these dimensions and viewpoints the book creates a map of interlocking individual familial and socio economic systems in which fathers are embedded National in scope Fatherhood Involvement in Canada is the first book to summarize and challenge current scholarship of Canadian fatherhood and offer new concepts theoretical frameworks and research directions Queer Mobilizations Manon Tremblay, 2015-05-15 Ever since certain homosexual acts were decriminalized in 1969 queer activists have fought for and won a series of public policy battles in governments across Canada As Queer Mobilizations shows anti discrimination legislation the extension of benefits to same sex couples the right to marry adoption rights and the protection of gay straight alliances in schools did not result from a single act nor from the work of a single organization but rather from the concerted efforts of many people in many places over many years This volume examines the relationships between LGBTQ activists and local provincial and federal governments The contributors explore how various governments have tried to regulate and repress LGBTQ movements and how in turn queer activists have successfully shaped public policy across the political spectrum from city halls to the House of Commons LGBT-Parent Families Abbie E. Goldberg, Katherine R. Allen, 2012-10-12 LGBT Parent Families is the first handbook to provide a comprehensive examination of this underserved area Reflecting the nature of this issue the volume is notably interdisciplinary with contributions from scholars in psychology sociology human development family studies gender studies sexuality studies legal studies social work and anthropology Additionally scholarship from regions beyond the U S including England Australia Canada and South Africa is presented In addition to gender and sexuality all contributors address issues of social class race and ethnicity in their chapters The Routledge Companion to Motherhood Lynn O'Brien Hallstein, Andrea O'Reilly, Melinda Giles, 2019-11-04 Interdisciplinary and intersectional in emphasis the Routledge Companion to Motherhood brings together essays on current intellectual themes issues and debates while also creating a foundation for future scholarship and study as the field of Motherhood Studies continues to develop globally This Routledge Companion is the first extensive collection on the wide ranging topics themes issues and debates that ground the intellectual work being done on motherhood Global in scope and including a range of disciplinary perspectives including anthropology literature communication studies sociology women s and gender studies history and economics this volume introduces the foundational topics and ideas in motherhood delineates the diversity and complexity of mothering and also stimulates dialogue among scholars and students approaching from divergent backgrounds and intellectual perspectives This will become a foundational text for academics in Women s and Gender

Studies and interdisciplinary researchers interested in this important complex and rapidly growing topic Scholars of psychology sociology or public policy and activists in both university and workplace settings interested in motherhood and mothering will find it an invaluable guide Reproductive Losses Christa Craven,2019-05-30 Although there are far more opportunities for LGBTQ people to become parents than there were before the 1990s attention to the reproductive challenges LGBTQ families face has not kept pace Reproductive Losses considers LGBTQ people s experiences with miscarriage stillbirth failed adoptions infertility and sterility Drawing on Craven s training as a feminist anthropologist and her experiences as a queer parent who has experienced loss Reproductive Losses includes detailed stories drawn from over fifty interviews with LGBTQ people including those who carried pregnancies non gestational and adoptive parents and families from a broad range of racial ethnic socio economic and religious backgrounds to consider how they experience loss grief and mourning The book includes productive suggestions and personal narratives of resiliency commemorative strategies and communal support while also acknowledging the adversity many LGBTQ people face as they attempt to form families and the heteronormativity of support resources for those who have experienced reproductive loss This is essential reading for scholars and professionals interested in LGBTQ health and family and for individuals in LGBTQ communities who have experienced loss and those who support them See additional material on the companion website www.lgbtqreproductiveloss.org The Sage Encyclopedia of LGBTQ+ Studies, 2nd Edition Abbie E. Goldberg,2024-01-16 The SAGE Encyclopedia of LGBTQ Studies 2nd Edition is aimed at students and educators interested in an interdisciplinary perspective on LGBTQ issues It examines and provides understandings of the lives and experiences of LGBTQ individuals with attention to the contexts and forces that shape their world The volume addresses questions such as What are the key theories used to understand variations in sexual orientation and gender identity What does LGBTQ affirmative therapy look like How have anti LGBTQ ballot measures affected LGBTQ people What are LGBTQ people s experiences during COVID 19 How were LGBTQ people impacted by the Trump administration What is life like for LGBTQ people living outside the United States This encyclopedia looks at LGBTQ issues and identity primarily through the lenses of psychology human development and sociology while emphasizing queer feminist and ecological perspectives on this topic Entries are written by top researchers and clinicians across multiple fields psychology human development gender queer studies sexuality studies social work nursing cultural studies education family studies medicine public health and sociology What About the Children! Masculinities, Sexualities and Hegemony Damien W. Riggs,2010-01-08 What About the Children takes up the important task of examining the role of hegemonic masculinities in propping up a normative social order in which children are constructed as the property of adults By examining adult child relations in the context of a wide range of family forms and social contexts the book provides some hard answers to questions relating to what exactly are the best interests of children and how they should be determined The book responds by suggesting that there is a pressing need to recognise the capacity of children to voice their own desires and needs and that in failing to recognise this all adults and men in particular only serve to further perpetuate a possessive logic that at least in part gives rise to the mistreatment or abuse of children. Covering topics such as the experiences of foster fathers, gay adoptive fathers and sperm donors and exploring phenomena such as books on raising boys and movies about gay parents, the book offers important insights as to the operations of hegemony in the lives of a broad range of men. Importantly, the book moves beyond simply identifying the operations of hegemony in relation to possessive investments in children and goes on to propose a non-indifferent approach to understanding adult-child relations that at its heart examines the operations of power that produce children as supposedly docile subjects and only certain adults as capable of caring for them. As a result, the book makes a significant contribution to setting an alternative agenda for child protection both within Australia and internationally by asking the question: protection for whom?

Gringa Melissa Hart, 2009-09-22 Torn between the high socioeconomic status of her father and the bohemian lifestyle of her mother, Melissa Hart tells a compelling story of contradiction in this coming-of-age memoir. Set in 1970s Southern California, Gringa is the story of a young girl conflicted by two extremes: life with her mother who leaves her father to begin a lesbian relationship, taking Hart and her two siblings along, and her father's white bread well-to-do security which is predictable, stable and boring. She tells of her mother's new life in a Hispanic neighborhood of Oxnard, California, and how these new surroundings begin to positively shape Hart herself. Ultimately, however, a judge rules that being raised by two women is unnatural and grants her father primary custody. Hart weaves a powerful story of fleeting moments with her mother, her unfolding adoration of Oxnard's Latino culture, and of the ways in which she is molded by the polarity of her parents' worldviews. Gringa offers a touching, reflective look at one girl's struggle with the dichotomies of class, culture, and sexuality.

Under the Rainbow Jeanette A. Auger, Kate Krug, 2020-07-10T00:00:00Z With contributions from Dayna B. Daniels, Judy Davidson, Valda Leighteizer, and Ross Higgins, Under the Rainbow is a primer on the social and political history and the everyday practices and processes of living queer lives in Canada. Framed through a life-course perspective, this book provides an overview of the historical and contemporary issues in the lives of gay, lesbian, bisexual, trans, and/or queer folk. The chapters in this text highlight the contributions of academics and community groups, as well as individuals working on queer issues in Canada, and focus primarily on contemporary Canadian material, introducing readers to topics such as law, history, health, education, youth, older persons, end-of-life decisions, social constructions of sexual identities, sports, transgender issues, and issues experienced by lesbians and gay men living in Quebec.

Intimate Partner Violence in LGBTQ Lives Janice L. Ristock, 2011-04-26 Queer lives remain at the margins of most academic inquiry into domestic violence. When same-sex violence is considered, it is most commonly as an added-on without close attention to the specificity and meaning of violence within the lives of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, Two-Spirit, and queer people. LGBTQ. This edited volume seeks to change this discourse by bringing together the most innovative research about intimate partner violence that is specific to the lives of LGBTQ people Including contributions based on research conducted in the United States the United Kingdom Canada and Australia the volume is framed around central themes conceptualizing violence exploring differing spaces and lived experiences of violence and the ethical challenges of responding to violence The contributors also consider issues of race class gender sexuality and other social differences moving beyond a simple gender lens to one involving a framework of intersectionality Foundations of Couples, Marriage, and Family Counseling David Capuzzi, Mark D.

Stauffer, 2021-04-09 Foundations of Couples Marriage and Family Counseling A newly updated and practical approach to marriage couples and family counseling Now in its second edition Foundations of Couples Marriage and Family Counseling delivers a comprehensive treatment of current theory research and real life practice in family therapy The text is fully aligned with the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs CACREP and Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education COAMFTE It covers foundational and advanced topics of critical importance to student counselors and therapists seeking to work in family settings including sexuality trauma divorce domestic violence addictions filial play therapy and the positioning of culture and context in family therapy The new edition includes updated content in each chapter and entirely new chapters on assessments and helping families mitigate adapt and transition during crisis This important book Covers the basic knowledge and skills essential to students and practitioners of couples and family therapy Details the history concepts and techniques associated with crucial theories and includes a new chapter on the most up to date assessment strategies Tackles contemporary issues and interventions in trauma divorce domestic violence sexuality and more At once comprehensive and concise the Second Edition of Foundations of Couples Marriage and Family Counseling offers readers a guide to the complex and interconnected concepts required to support a full understanding of couples and family therapy Do Men Mother? Andrea Doucet, 2018-04-13 The first edition of Do Men Mother 2006 was awarded the John Porter Tradition of Excellence Book Award from the Canadian Sociological Association and remains one of the most widely cited books on primary caregiving fathers and stay at home fathers This second edition of Do Men Mother builds on interviews conducted between 2000 and 2004 with 101 fathers and 14 mother father couples and follow up interviews with six of the mother father couples about a decade later It charts how fathers and mothers navigate and negotiate parental and breadwinning responsibilities and calls attention to the generative changes that occur for men when they share responsibilities for their children s care Working closely with Sara Ruddick s Maternal Thinking 1989 Doucet advocates for a wider maternal lens that focuses on entanglements between dependence independence inter dependence and argues that fathers stories expand how we think about mothering and caregiving In this expanded second edition with a new Preface and two new chapters Doucet takes on three revisiting projects returning to interview several research participants re entering scholarly fields of work care and parenting in shifting neoliberal contexts and rethinking her approach to knowledge making concepts and narratives Bringing together what she calls diffractive readings of feminist philosopher Lorraine Code's ecological approach to knowledge making and historical sociologist Margaret Somers' genealogical and relational approach to concepts and her non-representational approach to narratives. Doucet lays out an innovative ecological and non-representational approach to knowledge making concepts and narratives about care work and paid work. This book calls for greater attention not only to what we claim to know but also to how we come to know, write about, and intervene in shifting practices, concepts, and narratives of work and care, the politics of care, and growing crises of care.

What Is Parenthood? Linda C. McClain, Daniel Cere, 2013-01-14 Extraordinary changes in patterns of family life and family law have dramatically altered the boundaries of parenthood and opened up numerous questions and debates. What is parenthood and why does it matter? How should society define, regulate, and support it? Is parenthood separable from marriage or couplehood when society seeks to foster children's well-being? What is the better model of parenthood from the perspective of child outcomes? Intense disagreements over the definition and future of marriage often rest upon conflicting convictions about parenthood. What Is Parenthood? asks bold and direct questions about parenthood in contemporary society and it brings together a stellar interdisciplinary group of scholars with widely varying perspectives to investigate them. Editors Linda C. McClain and Daniel Cere facilitate a dynamic conversation between scholars from several disciplines about competing models of parenthood and a sweeping array of topics including single parenthood, adoption, donor-created families, gay and lesbian parents, transnational parenthood, parent-child attachment, and gender difference and parenthood.

The SAGE Encyclopedia of LGBTQ Studies Abbie E. Goldberg, 2016-05-10 This far-reaching and contemporary new Encyclopedia examines and explores the lives and experiences of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer LGBTQ individuals, focusing on the contexts and forces that shape their lives. The work focuses on LGBTQ issues and identity primarily through the lenses of psychology, human development, and sociology, emphasizing queer, feminist, and ecological perspectives on the topic and addresses questions such as: What are the key theories used to understand variations in sexual orientation and gender identity? How do Gay-Straight Alliances (GSA) affect LGBTQ youth? How do LGBTQ people experience the transition to parenthood? How does sexual orientation intersect with other key social locations such as race to shape experience and identity? What are the effects of marriage equality on sexual minority individuals and couples? Top researchers and clinicians contribute to the 400 signed entries from fields such as Psychology, Human Development, Gender/Queer Studies, Sexuality Studies, Social Work, Sociology. The SAGE Encyclopedia of LGBTQ Studies is an essential resource for researchers interested in an interdisciplinary perspective on LGBTQ lives and issues.

Fathering Annie Devault, Gilles Forget, Diane Dubeau, 2015-11-26 In the past few decades, researchers and practitioners have moved away from the idea of fatherhood as a single monolithic concept. Examining the challenges of vulnerable fathers such as those in poverty or in prison, they have developed valuable new strategies for cultivating the positive involvement of fathers in the lives of their children. Drawing on the innovative work of Prospère, a Quebec organization that brought together fathers university researchers and health and social service practitioners Fathering details innovative approaches that support positive father involvement It provides numerous examples of strategies and interventions with fathers lessons learned from these practices on how to better support vulnerable fathers and families and in depth information on ways of designing implementing evaluating and disseminating the results of participatory action research PAR a methodology which put fathers at the heart of the project s decision making

After Marriage Elizabeth Brake, 2016 This collection of essays by liberal and feminist philosophers addresses the question of whether marriage reform ought to stop with same sex marriage Some philosophers have recently argued that marriage is illiberal and should be abolished or radically reformed to include groups and non romantic friendships In response Simon May argues that marriage law can be justified without an illiberal appeal to an ideal relationship type and Ralph Wedgwood argues that the liberal values which justify same sex marriage do not justify further extension Other authors argue for new legal forms for intimate relationships Marriage abolitionist Clare Chambers argues that piecemeal directives rather than relationship contracts should replace marriage and Samantha Brennan and Bill Cameron argue for separating marriage and parenting with parenting rather than marriage becoming legally and socially the foundation of the family Elizabeth Brake argues for a non hierarchical friendship model for marriage Peter de Marneffe argues that polygamy should be decriminalized but that the liberal state need not recognize it while Laurie Shrage argues that polygamy could be legally structured to protect privacy and equality Dan Nolan argues for temporary marriage as a legal option while Anca Gheaus argues that marital commitments are problematic instruments for securing the good of romantic and sexual love Taken together these essays challenge contemporary understandings of marriage and the state s role in it

Mothering Queerly, Queering Motherhood Shelley M. Park, 2013-06-01 Provides a model for queering motherhood that resists racist neoliberal and hetero or homonormative ideals of good mothering
