Schools and the Future of the Church Kathleen Engebretson,2014-02-27 During the first decade of the 21st century the Catholic Church in the developed world has faced a decline in its moral authority increasing accusations of irrelevance to a secular age and a steep and steady decline in commitment among successive generations from the 1960s on Despite this Catholic schools have multiplied and grown in popularity and educational achievement The book sets out a programme for the contribution of Catholic schools to the future of the Church covering such topics as the religious education curriculum in its cognitive and affective aspects the sacramental life of the school selection of staff the issue of staff and Catholic witness and many other topics Engebretson argues that Catholic schools are a powerful key to the future of the Church and shows how within their diversity Catholic schools can be ecclesial communities which have at their heart the building up of the Church

Priestly Identity Thomas J. McGovern,2010-04-01 It is generally accepted that since the end of Vatican II there has been a crisis in the Catholic priesthood This is reflected in two areas in particular defections from the priesthood and a serious decline in vocations primarily in the developed countries of the West John Paul II has addressed this situation many times during his pontificate especially in Pastores dabo vobis where he offers a clear theological vision and a program of formation to overcome the current crisis of priestly identity In his new book McGovern offers a deep analysis of the Pope s theology of priesthood drawing not only from Pastores dabo vobis but also from his Holy Thursday Letters and other

Peters,2009-12-01 Ecce Educatrix Tua discusses the Apostolic Letter Novo millennio ineunte NMI wherein John Paul II outlined the path the Church should adopt in the third millennium The necessity to rediscover the full practical significance of Chapter 5 of the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium dedicated to the universal call to holiness NMI 30 is at stake John Paul II stressed that a concrete pedagogy of holiness is required including a spiritual path without which external structures will serve very little purpose NMI 43 The Polish Pontiff invited ecclesial movements to present their original pedagogy of holiness cf NMI 31 Peters highlights the Blessed Virgin Mary as educator in a pedagogy of holiness from the teachings of John Paul II and Father Joseph Kentenich founder of the Schoenstatt Movement
