Javeed, 2008 Hundreds of India's stunning temples are catalogued and copiously illustrated in this two volume work loaded with color photographs. A brief introduction to the principal religious groups who have made their home in this dynamic region leads into a description of the developmental stages of various architectural components and artistic styles in the different regions over the past 1500 years from pre historic cave art and ancient temples hewn out of solid bedrock to more recent European style Christian churches such as those in Goa. India's religions and historical turning points are briefly discussed enabling readers who may be less familiar with Indian cultures to recognize the value of the region's cultural heritage. The author details the technological and artistic progress of Indian temple construction in the context of cultural and religious shifts throughout history. The four indigenous religions of India Hinduism Buddhism Jainism and Sikhism as well as Christianity are each appreciated on their own merits. The Taj Mahal the most famous was declared a World Heritage Monument in 1983. It has been described lyrically as a tear drop on the cheek of time poetry in marble a dream in marble and an image of paradise and in such superlatives as the greatest achievement of all Indo Islamic architecture the most beautiful of all monuments made by the hands of man. But the UNESCO World Heritage Center has also singled out a wealth of monuments that preceded and followed its construction denoting them as important elements of the heritage of human civilization. In this work researched through personal visits to World Heritage sites in India and the monuments associated with them the author shares his enjoyment of the depiction of human beauty in decorative sculpture and architecture and the narration of mythology therein. This is one work bound in two volumes The Iconography and Ritual of Śiva at Elephanta Charles D. Collins, 1988-11-10. The beautiful rock cut Siva temple on Elephanta Island in Bombay Harbor is one of the finest monuments of Indian religion and art. Until now interpretation of its magnificent sculptured scenes has been neglected. In this book Collins systematically surveys the pertinent Vedic Epic and early Puranic literature as well as the contributions of India's foremost poet and dramatist Kalidasa to reveal sources for and interpretations of the subjects of the relief sculptures. This survey shows strong associations with areas formerly controlled by the classical Gupta dynasty in northern India. This book provides the first detailing of this link intimated by others before which helps to explain the grandeur of style found in the colossal reliefs. By applying certain aspects of ritual texts of the Lakulisa Pasupata the sect that probably used Elephanta originally exceptional clarity is revealed for the worship of the sculptures in a counterclockwise sequence quite unusual in India but appropriate to this particular sect. Lakulisa Pasupata texts are invoked in Collins theory of how the cave temple at Elephanta was used. This area of investigation has been virtually untouched by other scholars for any early Hindu shrine in India. Historic Incidents and Life in India Caleb Wright, J. A.
