Wife Of Moon A Wind River Reservation Myste:

Wife of Moon Margaret Coel, 2005-09-06 Arapaho attorney Vicki Holden and Father John O Malley must find the link between the murder of a woman and the murder of her ancestor from a century earlier Mystery Women, Volume Three (Revised) Colleen Barnett, 2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective Volume 3 of Mystery Women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial Volume 3 These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1 1990 to December 31 1999 This more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in Volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in Volume 1 which covered a 130 year period from 1860 1979 It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31 2008 Eye of the Wolf Margaret Coel, 2006-09-05 This is for the Indian priest The cryptic message was clearly meant for Father O Malley The unemotional voice on the answering machine speaking of revenge against old enemies wanted O Malley to visit the site of the Bates Battle In 1874 Shoshone warriors led Captain Alfred Bates s cavalry to Arapaho tribal grounds and nearly everyone living there was massacred As a nation the Arapaho were finished but their people survived Now someone has left three dead Shoshones on the old battlefield positioned to mimic the bodies of those Arapaho killed in the historic slaughter Vicky Holden s latest client Frankie Montana has become the number one suspect in their deaths Despite his less than sterling background Vicky doesn t believe he s capable of murder Someone is trying to stir up a war between the Arapaho and Shoshone people and tear open the painful wounds of the past once more The Detective as Historian Ray Browne, Lawrence Kreiser, 2009-03-26 Deeper understanding of history is enhanced by encasing it in art and interest Crime fiction is one of the widest and most rapidly growing forms of literature Historical crime fiction serves effectively the double purpose of entertaining while it teaches The truth of the narrative account the editors of this volume believe is dependent on the understanding of human nature reflected in the author who writes the narrative Historical crime fiction the editors of this volume write has an obligation and a golden opportunity It must bring the past up to the present through the device of timeless crime and it must take the reader into the world about which is being written so that the characters are alive and the events interesting and challenging Professional writers of fiction need to be more effective than mere authors of dates and assumed motivations Therefore they can fill in human motivations and drives where no records exist and can aid the professional historians in what historian David Thelen calls the challenge of history which is to recover the past and interpret it for the present The essays in this volume accept the challenge and make major accomplishments for meeting it Wife of Moon Margaret Coel,2005-09-06 Arapaho attorney Vicki Holden and Father John O Malley must find the link between the murder of a woman and the murder of her ancestor from a century earlier Genrelecting Diana Tixier Herald,Samuel Stavole-Carter,2019-05-24 Librarians who work with readers will find this well loved guide to be a treasure trove of information With descriptive annotations of thousands of genre titles mapped by genre and subgenre this is the readers advisor s go to reference Next to author genre is the characteristic that readers use most to select reading material and the most trustworthy consideration for finding books readers will enjoy With its detailed classification and pithy descriptions of titles this book gives users valuable insights into what makes genre fiction appeal to readers It is an invaluable aid for helping readers find books that they will enjoy reading Providing a handy roadmap to popular genre literature this guide helps librarians answer the perennial and often confounding question What can I read next Herald and Stavole Carter briefly describe thousands of popular fiction titles classifying them into standard genres such as science fiction fantasy romance historical fiction and mystery Within each genre titles are broken down into more specific subgenres and themes Detailed author title and subject indexes provide further access As in previous editions the focus of the guide is on recent releases and perennial reader favorites In addition to covering new titles this edition focuses more narrowly on the core genres and includes basic readers advisory principles and techniques Contemporary Authors Lisa Kumar,2004-07 A biographical and bibliographical guide to current writers in all fields including poetry fiction and nonfiction journalism drama television and movies Information is provided by the authors themselves or drawn from published interviews feature stories book reviews and other materials provided by the authors publishers Mysteries in Our National Parks: Ghost Horses Alane Ferguson,2007-05 Visiting Zion National Park with his family twelve year old Jack encounters two mysteries the strange behavior of a band of wild mustangs and the possibly sinister actions of his new foster brother a Shoshone boy Prayer To The Great Mystery Edward S.
