Without Apology Sermons For Christs Church:

Without Apology Stanley Hauerwas, 2013-08 Sermons from one of the country's best known theologians 17 sermons from Saints and Letting Go to Recognizing Jesus Seeing Salvation and Clothe Your Ministers in Righteousness Two bonus presentations on Leadership and An Open Letter to Christians Beginning College in the appendix Minding the Web Stanley Hauerwas, 2018-11-06 For over forty years Stanley Hauerwas has been writing theology that matters In this new collection of essays lectures and sermons Hauerwas continues his life's work of exploring the theological web discovering and recovering the connections necessary for the church to bear faithful witness to Christ in our complex and changing times Hauerwas enters into conversation with a diverse array of interlocutors as he brings new insights to bear on matters theological delves into university matters demonstrates how lives matter and continues in his passionate commitment to the matter of preaching Essays by Robert Dean illumine the connections that have made Hauerwas's theological web slinging so significant and demonstrate why Hauerwas's sermons have a crucial role to play in the recovery of a gospel shaped homiletical imagination Plain Truth for Plain People Brad Estep, 2019-03-22 Having studied preaching at a doctoral level and practiced the craft for more than thirty years Brad Estep offers fifty biblically grounded theologically informed and congregationally contextualized sermons centered around the different seasons of the Christian year In addition to the sermon itself Estep provides additional analysis that revolves around the homiletical structure reasons for effectiveness and usage of illustrative material This work is designed for preachers who are interested and committed to the craft of preaching Intended for reflective practitioners Plain Truth for Plain People helps to reveal how and why sermons are crafted in the way that they are Because of that this book is also of interest to parishioners in the pews At the top of the list of desirable skills in a pastor is preaching This work helps provide examples of what that looks like or more accurately what that sounds like

Preaching Gospel Charles L. Campbell, Clayton J. Schmit, Mary Hinkle Shore, Jennifer E. Copeland, 2016-08-30 Teaching preaching like preaching itself is a noble endeavor After nearly four decades of teaching Richard Lischer has sent legions of preachers across the world to preach gospel This volume pays tribute to his faith filled life of preaching and teaching The contributors some of whom were taught by Lischer have received many laurels themselves so readers will find in these pages wisdom for preaching from many quarters Some authors include sermons with helpful commentary about the preaching exercise some offer essays to illuminate the task of sermon writing all acknowledge the influence of Richard Lischer on their preaching and teaching endeavors The Sermon without End Ronald J. Allen, Prof O. Wesley Allen JR., 2015-10-20 A New Model for Post Apologetic Preaching in a Pluralistic World The relationship between preaching and the public sphere has long been debated Three different theological approaches tend to dominate the discussion In different ways these approaches take into account the movement from the modern mindset of the mid to late 20th century to the emerging postmodern worldview In The Sermon without End authors Allen Allen thoughtfully offer a fourth option one that in their view has not received much attention but which offers a distinct and especially helpful perspective It is a new and dynamic conversational model reaching beyond the earlier work of Tillich and Tracy In this homiletical framework conversation takes place in multiple directions between the text or tradition and the world today It is preaching in conversation not just toward but with voices from the public sphere The book provides a solid foundation for understanding this post apologetic approach but it importantly goes on to offer practical real pulpit guidance for implementation in a preaching ministry It is a book for both scholars and practicing preachers who wish to reach people in meaningful and significant ways and in ways that make sense for today This book deserves to be widely applauded It provides a post apologetic lens to illuminate the history of various modern homiletical discourses even as it envisions a postmodern one I strongly recommend this book for homileticians preachers and lay people alike Duse Lee Boston University School of Theology Reviewed in Homiletic

Reformed Sacramentality Graham Hughes,2017 In Reformed Sacramentality the late Graham Hughes discusses the role of physicality in worship He contends that to counter the Reformed tradition s vulnerability to a cultural colonization by secular modernity Reformed theology needs to amplify its appreciation for God s omnipresence in creation with a re appropriation of the condensed symbols of faith Hughes s argument builds on a historical analysis of the Reformed tradition s rejection of material sacramentality and its ecclesial and cultural consequences From a late modern vantage point Hughes advocates for a rediscovery of material sacramentality both as a lever against modern solipsism and as an iconic reminder of God s radical otherness Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse,2020-10-12 In Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse presents a constructive theology of ordained ministry by returning to the life and thought of the English Separatist Robert Browne c 1550 1633 This study makes a substantial contribution not only by solving one of the most thorny problems in congregational ecclesiology but also by recovering the legacy of this ecclesial pioneer Through an in depth analysis of Browne s literature the author provides a covenantal theology of ordained ministry in conversation with present day authors Stanley Hauerwas and Kevin Vanhoozer Inspired by the emerging trend of theology of retrieval Abrahamse offers a methodologically innovative way of doing systematic theology in a manner in which voices from the past can be made fruitful for today Sermons Preached in Christ Church, Brighton ...

James Vaughan (Incumbent of Christ Church, Brighton.),1866 The Irish Church Question. A Parochial Sermon Preached at Christ Church, St. Marylebone, on Sunday, June 14th, 1868 John Llewelyn DAVIES,1868 How Odd of God William H. Willimon,2015-10-09 Election is a strange word when used in theology It brings to mind old debates about what God might or might not have done before the foundation of the world But viewed apart from that historical baggage the word election is about a central gospel idea that in Jesus not only does God choose to be God for us but chooses us to be for God The calling of the disciples in the gospels is a story of election of how God chooses to transform the world by choosing us to be messengers and agents of that transformation So it is says William Willimon that election becomes not just the content of our preaching but the means as well God chooses preachers How unlikely how odd is it that God should entrust the proclamation of the gospel to well us This unpredictable electing God reaches out to save the world and then leaves it in the hands of preachers to get the word out Through us through our stammering tongues and faltering hearts the preached word becomes the Word of God If you wonder why you drag yourself into the pulpit every Sunday if you worry that your sermons aren't reaching past the front pew then read this book and be encouraged God chooses God chooses preachers God chooses you

The Church in a Secular Age Silje Kvamme Bjørndal, 2018-09-20 How can the church navigate the challenges of our secular age In The Church in a Secular Age Norwegian and Pentecostal scholar Silje Kvamme Bjørndal takes on three dynamic thinkers each in their own way in search for insights to this question Philosopher Charles Taylor offers the backdrop for the conversation as Bjørndal carefully sifts out some of his most central tenets for understanding our secular age Bjørndal then turns to the theologian and ethicist Stanley Hauerwas and critically engages his notion of the church as a community set apart from our secular age By bringing several of Hauerwas's interlocutors into the conversation Bjørndal manages to bring out both the acute relevance and the shortcomings of his ecclesiology Thus she finds that another turn is needed in order to offer a concrete as well as creative contribution to this ecclesiological conversation Considering the undeveloped pneumatological undercurrent in Hauerwas's work it proves fruitful to engage the leading Pentecostal scholar Amos Yong and his foundational pneumatology This engagement results in a shift of agency from the community to the Spirit And keeping up the dialogue with Taylor's secular age Bjørndal demonstrates how the Spirit's agency is crucial for the church as it attempts to navigate the particular challenges and opportunities of a secular age

For the Life of the World Robert J. Dean, 2016-05-13 What is the church What is its mission in the world Modern Protestantism's inability to provide a clear answer to these seemingly simple questions has resulted in vast confusion amongst pastors about the nature of their calling and has left congregations languishing without a clear reason for existence Many of the voices and allegiances competing for the church's attention have rushed in to fill the void with the result that the church in modernity has frequently found itself captive to the prevailing culture Yet from within the belly of highly culturally accommodated churches both the German pastor theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the American theological ethicist Stanley Hauerwas were able to articulate compelling visions of churches freed from their cultural captivity in order to truly and freely serve God and neighbor Against the complex and confusing backdrops of Nazi Germany and late twentieth and early twenty first century America respectively Bonhoeffer and Hauerwas sought to recover the ethical and political character of the Christian faith through recalling the church back to the christological center of its faith Together they provide a rich set of complementary and at times mutually correcting resources for the contemporary church as it seeks to faithfully bear witness to Christ amidst the ruins of Christendom

The Beauty of Preaching Michael Pasquarello, 2020-08-27 What does beauty have to do with healing the fragmentation within our churches According to Michael Pasquarello everything Amid the cacophony of ugly political invective that dominates nearly every space today including church only God has the power to unify and heal through his truth and goodness revealed in his beauty And every Sunday those in the pulpit have the opportunity and responsibility to share this beauty with their parishioners Tapping into a long tradition that can be traced back to Augustine Michael Pasquarello explores a theological definition of beauty that has tremendous revelatory power in a post Christendom world A church manifesting this beauty is not merely a gathering of people but a place where God s new creation appears in the midst of the old creation ushered in by a pastor willing to make God the primary actor within the doxological craft of preaching A Spital Sermon, Preached at Christ Church, Upon Easter Tuesday, April 15, 1800 Samuel Parr,1801

The Work of Theology Stanley Hauerwas,2015 Gathered on the Road to Zion Daniel Lee Hill,2021-04-26 Churches are filled with human beings It is as a community of human creatures that the church gathers together on Sunday mornings to worship the triune God and it is as a community of creatures that its members participate in the church s liturgical life However merely noting that the church and human beings are related to one another leaves the nature of this relationship unresolved and undefined And this raises an important question How should the doctrine of the church inform our understanding of what it means to be human This project is an exercise in ecclesio anthropology albeit from a Free Church perspective In it Daniel Lee Hill seeks to discover how the nature practices mission and telos of the church robustly inform our understanding of the human creature Sermons preached in Christ Church, Brighton James Vaughan,1866 An Anniversary Sermon Preached in Christ Church, Cambridge, Mass Nicholas Hoppin,1861 Pro Ecclesia Vol 22-N4 Pro Ecclesia,2013-11-13 Pro Ecclesia is a quarterly journal of theology published by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Preaching the Luminous Word Davis & Dennis,2016 Insights from one of the most distinctive and eloquent scholar preachers of our time Inviting serious theological engagement with texts from all parts of the Christian Bible Preaching the Luminous Word is a collection of fifty one sermons and five related essays from noted preacher and biblical scholar Ellen F Davis A brief preface to each sermon delineates its liturgical context and theological themes as well as distinctive elements of structure and style Arranged in canonical order the sermons treat a wide range of texts Torah Prophets Writings Gospels Epistles and Revelation They are complemented by essays on various aspects of biblical interpretation for preaching At once accessible theologically informed and rhetorically rich this volume will engage preachers teachers seminarians church leaders and serious lay readers
