Witnessing To Christ In A Pluralistic Age Christian Mission Among Other Faiths:

Witnessing to Christ in a Pluralistic Age Lalsangkima Pachuau, Knud Jørgensen, 2011 The relationship of Christian faith and mission to other living faiths is a core issue in contemporary mission In a world where plurality of faiths is increasingly a norm of life insights on the theology of religious plurality are needed to strengthen our understanding of our own faith and that of others Even though religious diversity is not new we are seeing an upsurge in interest on the theologies of religions among all Christian confessional traditions One reason is the discovery in the West of other religions living in Christianity's midst and neighborhood One may justifiably claim that no other issue in Christian mission is more important or more difficult than the theologies of religions This will remain a major challenge for mission in a new century Christian Mission among Other Faiths was one of the Edinburgh 2010 themes As part of the study process position papers and case studies were invited from a wide range of contributors representing various theological positions confessional traditions and denominational bodies The quality of the studies and the variety they represent convinced us to publish them in this form The position papers are reflections on the theme by scholars belonging to Roman Catholic Greek Orthodox Protestant Conciliar Protestant Evangelical Pentecostal and Seventh Day Adventist churches Among the case studies are articles on Christian mission among Muslims Hindus Buddhists Jews new religious movements and folk or primal religions

Witnessing to Christ in a Pluralistic Age Lalsangkima Pachuau, 2011 Toward Respectful Understanding and Witness among Muslims Evelyne A. Reisacher, Joseph L. Cumming, Dean S. Gilliland, 2012-06-28 Fifteen preeminent Christian scholars of Islam present their latest research and reflections The book is organized around three themes encouraging friendly conversation Christian scholarship and Christian witness Published in honor of J Dudley Woodberry it is more than a collection of essays by friends and colleagues It offers a seldom available synopsis of the theories of contemporary leading Christian academicians whose work is currently influencing a wide range of Christian institutions agencies churches and individuals The authors provide cutting edge and greatly needed resources for developing a better understanding of Muslims In an age of increasing challenges facing Muslim Christian relations this volume offers Christians a unique opportunity to rethink their assumptions It also presents practical steps which can inform their daily encounters with Muslims This book is essential reading for people with research interests in Islam for Bible school and seminary students for church leaders and for all those who want to be informed of the latest empirical research and theoretical perspectives affecting Muslim Christian relations

The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities

Foundations for Mission Emma Wild-Wood, Peniel Rajkumar, 2013-01-11 This volume provides an important resource for those wishing to gain an overview of significant issues in contemporary missiology whilst understanding how they are applied in particular contexts Contributors from across the globe and from different Christian traditions explore foundations for mission The chapters examine in what ways experience the Bible and theology are foundational for mission and how they together inform the missional thought of different traditions The book also raises questions about the continued use of foundations as a helpful metaphor mission reflection and impetus Graduate students and scholars surveying the field will find this a useful and accessible way to understand changing trends within mission studies

Wan,2004-09-15 This volume is not a set of textbook answers on how to witness to Hindus Buddhists Muslims and people with other religions based on simple formulas It is the wrestlings affirmations and testimonies of those who have been deeply involved in ministries to people of other religious faiths and have thought deeply about the issues religious pluralism raises Paul G Hiebert Professor Emeritus Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Christianity and Religious Plurality Wilbert R. Shenk,Richard J. Plantinga,2016-10-11 Over the past two centuries the Christian faith has spread to all continents Although more global than ever Christians are religious minorities in most societies Religious freedom is hardly universal In the past fifty years millions of people have been uprooted from their traditional homelands in Asia Africa and Latin America Some have emigrated to Western Europe and North America The West has become the scene of cultural linguistic and religious variety on a scale unimagined in 1900 Today the full range of faiths and religious practices from all continents are present in Europe and North America Christians are challenged to come to terms with this changed situation These developments have intensified religious plurality Christians all over the world are being urged to understand and engage with this new situation This volume highlights this new reality and specifies some sources for engagement not least among them the Judeo Christian scriptures fundamental to all Christianities that emerged out of religious plural contexts On the basis of their faith in the Triune God disclosed in this text all followers of Jesus Christ must interact with these opportunities in today s radically context sensitive world Contemporary Pentecostal Christianity J. Kwabena Asamoah-Gyadu,2013-01-11 Pentecostalism is the fastest growing stream of Christianity in the world The real evidence for the significance of Pentecostalism lies in the actual churches they have built and the numbers they attract In Africa Pentecostalism has virtually become the representative face of Christianity with even historic mission denominations pentecostalising their otherwise formal liturgical structures to survive This work interprets key theological and missiological themes in African Pentecostalism by using material from the live experiences of the movement itself An important source of primary material for instance is the popular books written by the leadership of contemporary Pentecostal churches and their media programs An example of this is that on account of its motivational hermeneutics the Eagle rather than the Dove has become the preferred symbol of the Holy Spirit in this nascent dynamic movement The interpretation of themes from contemporary African Pentecostalism in this book reveals much about how as a contemporary movement it is reshaping African Christian spirituality in the 21st century

Conviction in an Optional Society Marina Ngursangzeli Behera,Jean-Daniel Plüss,2021-08-10 Today more than ever we are challenged to think on a larger scale and act in common pursuit with regard to social challenges our convictions and public engagement What bearing do these contexts have on our communication and practical action How can we live responsibly and remain faithful to our fundamental beliefs The papers presented here suggest constructive answers

Searching for Heaven in the Real World Kathryn Ann Kraft,2013-02-24 Searching for Heaven in the Real World A Sociological Discussion of Conversion in the Arab World While adjusting to a new identity is akin to adjusting to a new set of skin even more difficult is realising that this new skin may not be as comfortable or as pleasant as the old one In Searching for Heaven in the Real World Kathryn Kraft explores the breadth of psychological and societal issues faced by Arab Muslims after making a decision to adopt a faith in Christ or Christianity investigating some of the most surprising and significant challenges new believers face Arab Muslims arrive at a point of new faith with great expectations With such high hopes for what they will experience in their new identity they are bound to encounter a reality that is different They need to invest a great deal of emotional energy in addressing their expectations and what they actually encounter Even so those who stay the course of faith usually hold on to their dreams believing that heaven is not only for the afterlife but it is for the real world as well

An Historiography of Twentieth-Century Women's Missionary Nursing Through the Lives of Two Sisters Sara Ashencaen Crabtree, 2023-12-19 This volume draws on a trove of unpublished original material from the pre 1940s to the present to offer a unique historiographic study of twentieth century Methodist missionary work and women s active expression of faith practised at the critical confluence of historical and global changes The study focuses on two English Methodist missionary nursing sisters and siblings Audrey and Muriel Chalkely whose words and experiences are captured in detail foregrounding tumultuous socio political changes of the end of Empire and post Independence in twentieth century Kenya and South India The work presents a timely revision to prevailing post colonial critiques in placing the fundamental importance of human relationships centre stage Offering a detailed auto biographical and reflective narrative this herstory pivots on three main thematic strands relating to people place and passion where socio cultural details are vividly explored The book will appeal to a wide range of readers both the interested public and the academic alike where a lively entertaining literary style introduces readers to the politics of women s lives and principle and professional service foreground ethno class caste oppression emancipation conflict commitments and religious tensions It reveals the human vulnerable qualities of these women illuminating their stories and courageous choices

Witnessing to Christ Today Daryl M. Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty first century Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty first century The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010 witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God s purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2 6 June 2010 There the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world

The Spirit Shaped Church Swarup Bar,2021-02-23 In The Spirit Shaped Church Swarup Bar argues that the church is defined by its relationship with others A relational church depends on the porousness of its borders which means that while a church has its distinctiveness it ought to be open to negotiate relational engagements with the world around it This sort of relationally distinct permeable church is found to be possible through the leading of the Spirit and the work of Christ Such engagement is found to be relevant in a plural religio cultural context and in situations of marginalization in India The Spirit Shaped Church reflects an ongoing commitment on the part of Fortress Press to engage the needs of Christian communities around the world The book is aimed at teachers clergy students and anyone with an interest in the lived experience of Christians in India

A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling,2020 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity s expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest

Their Rock Is Not Like Our Rock Daniel Strange,2015-02-03 The reality of the West s post Christendom multiethnic multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians face questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is alive and well then so too is society s sacralization Hence a theology of religions is arguably the most significant concern confronting Christian mission and apologetics in the twenty first century There has been little evangelical theology offering a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis not only of the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of other issues pertaining to Christian apologetics and contextualization amid religious pluralism In Their Rock is Not Like Our Rock lecturer and vice principal of Oak Hill College in London Daniel Strange explores these issues and offers the beginning of a theology of other religions

Wrestling with God in Context M. P. Joseph,Po Ho Huang,Victor Hsu,2018-12-01 Shoki Coe was among the first to speak of contextualization in theology Coe argued that theology is not a reiteration of past formulas or doctrines but a response to the self disclosing initiative of the living God in history and human experience Yet he remains little known outside his native Taiwan Wrestling with God in Context introduces Coe s work and social vision and evaluates his contributions to the field of missiology and ecclesiology Eager to offer a creative and critical witness to Christian faith Coe worked tirelessly to liberate theology from its Western captivity and shaped a generation of theological reflection on God culture and history For thousands of students and church members around the world Shoki Coe was the spiritual father that guided their contextual theological pursuit to the living reality of God In order to reflect on his legacy the chapters in this volume including original essays from Stephen Bevans Dwight Hopkins and Enrique Dussel tackle the critical methodological issues related to doing theology reading the Scriptures and being the church Faith and Public Life Alfred Sebahene, 2025-05-31 God's love in Jesus Christ for the salvation and recreation of all things is still the hope of the world This Christian affirmation is the reality that holds all things and holds all things together Yet in today's world it is easy to understand why the church is in pain and declining in its Christian and moral influence Rethinking Church in the 21st Century is the culmination of three years of exploration into the condition of the church around the world today Bringing together a diverse community of Christian voices these essays offer reflections and admonitions to ignite the hearts of pastors and leaders during the dynamic vulnerable and hopeful times we face In this third volume the contributors explore how the church should be engaged in the public space in the face of the new opportunities and fundamental challenges confronting the global church today These realities missional expansion persistent barriers to human progress shifts in the composition and centre of gravity of world Christianity and a growing attention to the need for the church to embrace a radically different way of life call for a new approach to the role of faith in our public life to the different ways of witnessing to Christ and stewarding the mysteries of Christian faith With solid grounding in Scripture and critical reflection for authentic Christian public witness and mission this book speaks of how the gospel of Jesus Christ endlessly relates to the whole world and its reconciliation with God
