Bestiarius Mariaelisa Dimino, Alessia Polatti, Roberta Zaroni, 2018-10-25 T00:00:00+02:00 The human animal relationship has always been characterized by a wide net of interactions and exchanges By providing an overview of the concept of animality and of the several meanings attached to it this book aims at rethinking the real nature of this notion towards a new definition of both the human and the animal The authors highlight the need to overcome the traditional tendency to read the animal merely as a symbol a metaphor or an allegory whose only purpose is that of representing and negotiating human power relations of race class and gender Within this context the edited collection Bestiarius intends to contribute to the present debate on Animal Studies by focusing on literary texts and discursive practices which reveal the epistemological and cultural dynamics that structure the very representation of the animal

The Artist as Animal in Nineteenth-Century French Literature Claire Nettleton, 2019-08-08 The Artist as Animal in Nineteenth Century French Literature traces the evolution of the relationship between artists and animals in fiction from the Second Empire to the fin de siècle This book examines examples of visual literature inspired by the struggles of artists such as Edouard Manet and Vincent van Gogh Edmond and Jules de Goncourt's Manette Salomon 1867 and Zola's Therese Raquin 1867 Jules Laforgue's At the Berlin Aquarium 1895 and Impressionism 1883 Octave Mirbeau's In the Sky 1892 1893 and Rachilde's L'Animale 1893 depict vanguard painters and performers as being like animals whose unique vision revolted against stifling traditions Juxtaposing these literary works with contemporary animal theory McHugh Deleuze Guattari and Derrida zoo studies Berger Rothfels and Lippit and feminism Donovan Adams and Haraway Claire Nettleton explores the extent to which the nineteenth century dissolution of the human subject contributed to a radical modern aesthetic Utilizing these interdisciplinary methodologies Nettleton argues that while inducing anxiety regarding traditional humanist structures the artist animal an embodiment of artistic liberation within an urban setting is at the same time a paradigmatic trope of modernity

Literature After Feminism Rita Felski, 2003-07 Recent commentators have portrayed feminist critics as grim faced ideologues who are destroying the study of literature Feminists they claim reduce art to politics and are hostile to any form of aesthetic pleasure Literature after Feminism is the first work to comprehensively rebut such caricatures while also offering a clear eyed assessment of the relative merits of various feminist approaches to literature Spelling out her main arguments clearly and succinctly Rita Felski explains how feminism has changed the ways people read and think about literature She organizes her book around four key questions Do women and men read differently How have feminist critics imagined the female author What does plot have to do with gender And what do feminists have to say about the relationship between literary and political value Interweaving incisive commentary with literary examples Felski advocates a double critical vision that can do justice to the social and political meanings of literature without dismissing or scanting the aesthetic

Archetypes and Motifs in Folklore and Literature, 2005 Folktales of Newfoundland Pbdirect J.D.A. Widdowson, Herbert Halpert, 2015-02-20 This collection of Newfoundland folk narratives first published in 1996 grew out of extensive fieldwork in folk culture in the province The intention was to collect as broad a spectrum of traditional material as possible and Folktales of Newfoundland is notable not only for the number and quality of its narratives but also for the format in which they are presented A special transcription system conveys to the reader the accents and rhythms of each performance and the endnote to each tale features an analysis of the narrator's language In addition Newfoundland has preserved many aspects of English and Irish folk tradition some of which are no longer active in the countries of their origin Working from the premise that traditions virtually unknown in England might still survive in active form in Newfoundland the Perspectives on the Bird's Head of Irian Jaya, Indonesia, 2023-07-31 The Bird's Head Peninsula of Irian Jaya has long been an area neglected by New Guinea Studies. Only in the late seventies interest began to focus more intensively on this scientifically important border area between Austronesian and Papuan languages and cultures. In the early nineties this led to the creation in The Netherlands of the Irian Jaya Studies programme ISIR which organizes and coordinates multi-disciplinary research on the Bird's Head Peninsula. Within this framework study of the peninsula has reached a peak with research being conducted in the area by scientists from different disciplines: anthropology, archaeology, ethno-botany, demography, development, administration, geology, and linguistics. The diverse perspectives of these disciplines are subject to constant internal debate. Through ISIR and other research initiatives there is a growing body of data on and insights into the various disciplines concerned with this fascinating area, with each discipline developing its own specific perspectives on the Bird's Head. These perspectives were presented during the First International Conference Perspectives on the Bird's Head of Irian Jaya, Indonesia, organized by ISIR in cooperation with the Indonesian Institute of Sciences LIPI Jakarta and the International Institute for Asian Studies ILAS Leiden and held at Leiden University 13-17 October 1997. Researchers were informed on current perspectives in many disciplines to facilitate integration of findings into wider interdisciplinary frameworks and to stimulate international debate within and between disciplines. As a result of the Conference the forty-two contributions in these Proceedings present a wealth of recent developments from various disciplines in New Guinea Studies.
