Women And Revolution Global Expressions:

Women and Revolution Marie Josephine Diamond, 2013-06-29 Taking its starting point from women's contributions to the French revolution this important anthology goes far beyond any particular historical European or American context and expands its scope in space and time to an all inclusive global theme namely the contributions of radical women towards an ever changing world and its revolutionary transformations everywhere The superbly edited essays by diverse contributors from various continents and disciplines explore a wide platform of women's revolutionary involvements and elucidate the broad range of contributions by women scholars scientists and activists to movements of social transformation as well as to a reexamination of established methods of cultural analysis from enlightened liberalism to Marxism The contributions of women scholars and activists from Africa Asia and Latin America are particularly significant in that they transcend and expand European North American feminism as relevant primarily to its own socio cultural context and focus on women acting in terms of their own non Western traditions and cultures that is on non Western models based on indigenous strategies of social transformation This rich anthology shuns any postulation of a single global model for revolution Yet despite the emergence of a problematic relationship between Western or Western educated theorists and the causes of the oppressed women's diverse social cultural and historical experiences and strategies are united in this edition as in their common causes as emphasized by the following statement in the introduction the female body has become a privileged site for social analysis in the context of international capitalism as well as in the critique of traditional socialism Sabine Jell Bahlsen Ogbuide Films

Women and Revolution covers an enormous socio historical space four continents Europe Africa Asia and Latin America and quite a few countries within them This huge field of human experience is looked at from the focal point which runs explicitly and implicitly through all nineteen chapters the active if not revolutionary role women have played individually and collectively in various determining social situations a role regularly suppressed by the coercive power of institutionalized domination The impetus for this endeavor was the commemoration of the bicentennial of the French Revolution an occasion to take an in depth look at its less obvious agendas through a focus on the activity of women and on Olympe de Gouges in particular But as Olympe de Gouges became acquainted with Mr Guillotine the considerable role of women became suppressed not only actually but as a kind of damnatio memoriae which the old Romans had already invented As this work shows there have been multiple forms and contents through which women have taken history into their own hands and have participated in emancipatory struggles throughout the world They are at their best in their use of the resources of local village traditions of dense social contexts of mutual aid and in turning such grassroots resources into radical democratic struggles for the future A fascinating and timely book

Wolf Dieter Narr Freie Universit t Berlin The vital role played by women in struggles for social transformation has scarcely been appreciated and with the sense of defeat that hangs over the revolutionary project stands to be further forgotten That is why the publication of Women and Revolution is both welcome and necessary on intellectual and scholarly grounds but also because these are stories which have to be told if we are to resume the march toward a better world Joel Kovel Bard College

Women and Revolution Marie Josephine Diamond, 2014-01-15 Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology Shahnaz R. Nadjmabadi, 2010-01-01 During recent years attempts have been made to move beyond the Eurocentric perspective that characterized the social sciences especially anthropology for over 150 years A debate on the anthropology of anthropology was needed one that would consider other forms of knowledge modalities of writing and political and intellectual practices This volume undertakes that challenge it is the result of discussions held at the first organized encounter between Iranian American and European anthropologists since the Iranian Revolution of 1979 It is considered an important first step in overcoming the dichotomy between peripheral anthropologies versus central anthropologies The contributors examine from a critical perspective the historical cultural and political field in which anthropological research emerged in Iran at the beginning of the twentieth century and in which it continues to develop today

Women in War Jocelyn Viterna, 2013-12 Women in War provides an in depth analysis of women s experiences in the FMLN guerrilla army in El Salvador and examines the consequences of those experiences for their post war lives It also develops a new model for investigating and understanding micro level mobilization processes that has applications to many social movement settings

Feeding Iran Rose Wellman, 2021-06-15 Since Iran s 1979 Revolution the imperative to create and protect the inner purity of family and nation in the face of outside spiritual corruption has been a driving force in national politics Through extensive fieldwork Rose Wellman examines how Basiji families as members of Iran s voluntary paramilitary organization are encountering enacting and challenging this imperative Her ethnography reveals how families and state elites are employing blood food and prayer in commemorations for martyrs in Islamic national rituals to create citizens who embody familial piety purity and closeness to God Feeding Iran provides a rare and humanistic account of religion and family life in the post revolutionary Islamic Republic that examines how home life and everyday piety are linked to state power

Global Feminisms Since 1945 Bonnie G. Smith, 2000 Global Feminisms Since 1945 is an innovative historical introduction to the issues of contemporary feminism with a truly global perspective It is a concise anthology considering the similarities and differences between feminisms in West and East North and South and highlighting class racial ethnic and imperial tensions and claims in the twentieth century The book analyses the roots development and in some cases the conclusions of feminisms and how they have interacted From the European and American feminist movements to those in the ex Soviet Union and women s rights groups in Africa and East Asia Global Feminisms Since 1945 examines the key economic technological sexual reproductive ecological and political debates

Participation and Protest Sarah Henderson, Alana S. Jeydel, 2007 Despite increased international rhetoric in support of women s equality women currently comprise a disproportionate share of the world s illiterate poor displaced underpaid underemployed and underrepresented populations And though women have gained visibility and influence in a wide array of political and economic arenas their position and status in society are still far from equal to those of men On the other hand since the post World War II era there has been a global explosion of women s activism on behalf of equality liberation and better living conditions women are standing up not only for themselves but also for other disempowered groups

International Feminisms Ahmed Ismail Samatar, 2001 Women and Revolution, 1990 Encyclopedia of Women and Islamic Cultures Suad Joseph, Afsāna Naǧmābādī, 2003 Family Law and Politics Volume II of the Encyclopedia of Women Islamic Cultures brings together over 360 entries on women family law politics and Islamic cultures around the world

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women's Issues Worldwide Lynn Walter, 2003 Women are working internationally to build a world based on gender equality and justice Their concerns are shaped by conditions in their own countries and regions and also by conditions for women in other parts of the world Links forged by globalization international relations United Nations gender equality and development programs and women s nongovernmental organizations connect their futures This groundbreaking reference set documents the achievements and current challenges for all women providing distortion free and newly available information about women s status in matters from education to violence in more than 130 countries in the world s most populated areas Written by an international host of contributing specialists this set is accessible to high school students and above Its consistent narrative coverage and relevant statistics are ideal for research and comparisons Readers will find that conceptions of women s issues vary by country as the set illuminates diverse perspectives and contemporary practices that shape the variations in equality and well being among women Judicious inclusion of historical processes helps frame the issues in a holistic perspective Volume maps individual country maps tables photos and indexes by set and volume are also included

Journal of Commonwealth and Postcolonial Studies, 2006 Macalester International, 2001 International Review of Social History, 2000 New Books on Women and Feminism, 1999 The Water Goddess in Igbo Cosmology Sabine Jell-Bahlsen, 2008 This evocative study of a water Goddess among the Igbo of Lake Oguta in southeastern Nigeria thoroughly explores the rituals beliefs and social organization associated with rituals of women s power the analysis of this powerful Goddess based on many years of research is a notable contribution to African female ritual studies long neglected
