Heaton,2013-10-15 Black Skin White Coats is a history of psychiatry in Nigeria from the 1950s to the 1980s Working in the contexts of decolonization and anticolonial nationalism Nigerian psychiatrists sought to replace racist colonial psychiatric theories about the psychological inferiority of Africans with a universal and egalitarian model focusing on broad psychological similarities across cultural and racial boundaries Particular emphasis is placed on Dr T Adeoye Lambo the first indigenous Nigerian to earn a specialty degree in psychiatry in the United Kingdom in 1954 Lambo returned to Nigeria to become the medical superintendent of the newly founded Aro Mental Hospital in Abeokuta Nigeria s first modern mental hospital At Aro Lambo began to revolutionize psychiatric research and clinical practice in Nigeria working to integrate modern western medical theory and technologies with traditional cultural understandings of mental illness Lambo s research focused on deracializing psychiatric thinking and redefining mental illness in terms of a model of universal human similarities that crossed racial and cultural divides Black Skin White Coats is the first work to focus primarily on black Africans as producers of psychiatric knowledge and as definers of mental illness in their own right By examining the ways that Nigerian psychiatrists worked to integrate their psychiatric training with their indigenous backgrounds and cultural and civic nationalisms Black Skin White Coats provides a foil to Frantz Fanon s widely publicized reactionary articulations of the relationship between colonialism and psychiatry Black Skin White Coats is also on the cutting edge of histories of psychiatry that are increasingly drawing connections between local and national developments in late colonial and postcolonial settings and international scientific networks Heaton argues that Nigerian psychiatrists were intimately aware of the need to engage in international discourses as part and parcel of the transformation of psychiatry at home

Whispers of Love in White Coats Abby Ruth Labja, Andy and Theo both dedicated medical technologists in college quickly fell in love with each other They journeyed to become licensed medical technologists and managed to keep their relationship strong despite the challenges along the way Theo with his dreams of becoming a doctor encouraged Andy to join him in this ambitious goal Andy a sweet and gentle girl was the opposite of Theo who was quiet and serious Their contrasting personalities strengthened their relationship Together they faced the demands of medical school with steadfast support understanding and love As they spent more time together study sessions turned into heartto heart conversations and dates became a return demonstration of their knowledge and skills in the medical field Their relationship blossomed as they pushed through a demanding academic schedule However in the long run the pressures of their goals caused misunderstandings and tension leading to a rocky period in their relationship Since then questions began to run in Andy s head like a broken record Was it the right decision Why didn t things go well Was it bad luck or did I do something wrong Why didn t God intervene to make things better
