Who Betrayed the African World Revolution? John Henrik Clarke, 1996-11-01 A collection of speeches covering an array of topics regarding history of African activists Listen Africans! a Revolution Is Coming Emma Samuel

Etuk, 2011-01-20 Etuk has been indefatigable in his profound determination for African revolution as admonished not only in this piece but also in his other works Adams O Adah Founder of Impart Africa author of Service As Africa begins her journey into the twenty first century the citizens ask how can we survive In Listen Africans A Revolution is Coming author Emma Samuel Etuk addresses the question of revolutiona fundamental change to the basic fabric of societyand its historical manifestations Through thorough research Etuk presents strong arguments about the need for change in the social political economic and religious life of Africans He contends that an array of issues has brought the continent to this point including broken promises by administrators and governments poverty and widespread hunger angry youth and unemployment official corruption insensitivity and kleptocracy tyranny despotism and dictatorships state sponsored terrorism infrastructural decay and environmental pollution As Etuk uses these examples and makes a call for a revolution he provides a backdrop by discussing the following Origin of revolutions Necessity for an African revolution Theological basis for a revolution Five kinds of revolutions Lessons learned from the six major revolutions of the past Preparation for a revolution Etuk maintains that change is necessary in life and that it is up to the Africans to decide what kind of revolution they should adopt in order to affect change on their continent The Race Controversy in American Education Lillian Dowdell Drakeford

Ph.D., 2015-07-28 In this unique two volume work expert scholars and practitioners examine race and racism in public education tackling controversial educational issues such as the school to prison pipeline charter schools school funding affirmative action and racialized curricula This work is built on the premise that recent efforts to advance color blind race neutral educational policies and reforms have not only proven ineffective in achieving racial equity and equality of educational opportunities and outcomes in America s public schools but also exacerbated existing inequalities That point is made through a collection of essays that examine the consequences of racial inequality on the school experience and success of students of color and other historically marginalized populations Addressing K 12 education and higher education in historically black as well as predominantly white institutions the work probes the impact of race and racism on education policies and reforms to determine the role schools school processes and school structures play in the perpetuation of racial inequality in American education Each volume validates the impact of race on teaching and learning and exposes the ways in which racism manifests itself in U S schools In addition practical recommendations are presented that may be used to confront and eradicate racism in education By exposing what happens when issues of race and racism are marginalized or ignored this collection will prepare readers to resist and perhaps finally overcome the racial inequality that plagues America's schools

Afrocentricity and the Academy James L. Conyers, Jr., 2015-09-01 Afrocentricity is a philosophical and theoretical perspective that emphasizes the study of Africans as subjects not as objects and is opposed to perspectives that attempt to marginalize African thought and experience Afrocentricity became popular in the 1980s as scores of African American and African scholars adopted an Afrocentric orientation to information The editor of this collection argues that as scholars embark upon the 21st century they can no longer be myopic in their perceptions and analyses of race The seventeen essays examine a wide range of variations on the Afrocentric paradigm in the areas of history literature political science philosophy economics women's studies cultural studies ethnic studies and social policy The essays written by professors librarians students and others in higher education who have embraced the Afrocentric perspective are divided into four sections Pedagogy and Implementation Theoretical Assessment Critical Analysis and Pan Africanist Thought

The Concept of Self Richard L. Allen, 2001 The Concept of Self examines the historical basis for the widely misunderstood ideas of how African Americans think of themselves individually and how they relate to being part of a group that has been subjected to challenges of their very humanity Institutional racism has had a major impact on the development of African American self esteem and group identity Through the years African Americans have developed strong tenacious concepts of self partially based on African cultural and philosophical retentions and as a reaction to historical injustices The Concept of Self examines the historical basis for the widely misunderstood ideas of how African Americans think of themselves individually and how they relate to being part of a group that has been subjected to challenges of their very humanity Richard Allen examines past scholarship on African American identity to explore a wide range of issues leading to the formation of an individual and collective sense of self Allen traces the significance of social forces that have impinged on the lives of African Americans and points to the uniqueness of their position in American society He then focuses on the results from the National Survey of

Black Americans a national survey of African Americans on a wide range of political social and psychological issues to develop a model of African self Allen explores the idea of double consciousness as put forth by W E B DuBois against the more recent debates of Afrocentricity or an African centered consciousness He proposes a set of interrelated hypotheses regarding how African Americans might use an African worldview for the upliftment of Africans in the Diaspora The Concept of Self will interest students and scholars of African American studies sociology and population studies Under Occupation Makoto Arakaki, Daniel Broudy, Peter Simpson, 2013-07-29 This edited volume provides a vehicle for the expression of geographical and historical perspectives on the militarisation of East Asia and the Pacific Among the questions the authors explore are How have groups and individuals variously enforced justified supported resisted and acquiesced in military occupation How have concepts of nationality identity and self determination been shaped reshaped and erased by historical processes How can communities escape from their perceived or actual dependence on centralised loci of power Chapters draw upon philosophical theoretical empirical and anecdotal evidence The book is aimed at inter alia activists for social justice and researchers in international and strategic relations colonial and post colonial studies Asian Okinawan and Pacific island studies critical theory and ethics Contributors to this volume include David Vine Douglas Lummis Miyume Tanji Kyle Kajihiro chinin usii Leevin Camacho Andrew Yeo Mitzi Uehara Carter Gwisook Gwon Christopher Melley Yukinori Tokuyama Kiyomi Maedomari Tokuyama Nika Nashiro Chie Miyagi Makoto Arakaki Peter Simpson and Daniel Broudy Never Again Emma Etuk, 2008-05 In this book you will learn how Africa is greatly endowed and blessed her contributions to world civilization experiences with colonialism and neo colonialism her need to excel produce or perish the lessons from history and Never Again The Sexual Demon of Colonial Power Greg Thomas, 2007 Interrogates the language of body politics in the context of neo colonialist domination Man, Know Thyself Rick Duncan, 2013-07-09 Man Know Thyself is perhaps one of the world s oldest and most important sayings This adage was originally coined by Imhotep the world s first multi genius and perhaps the greatest creative mortal individual who ever lived Imhotep lived over five and a half thousand years ago from our present age It must be said immediately that Imhotep was an African He is among our first Notable Ancestors Considering Imhotep s instruction it means that as individuals as a family collectively as a people a community a society or a nation we should know ourselves that is who we are This includes knowledge of who spawned us where we have been and where we currently are Knowing this as our Notable Ancestor and Grandmaster Teacher Baba Dr John Henrik Clarke has said will tell us who we are and where we must get to Who we are is dependent on who we were Who we were should determine who we should be To emphasise the point Marcus Garvey another of our most important Notable Ancestors frequently reiterated this advice when he reminded us that our first obligation is to know ourselves He told us that we should make our knowledge about us so complete so as to make it impossible for others to take advantage of us He told us that in order to know ourselves we must know who our Ancestors were and what they achieved We would then realize who we are and what we are capable of achieving This is the meaning of the African adage and Sankofa symbol of looking back in order to go forward The importance of knowing our ancestors has been summed up in an old Native American saying that It is the spirit of our ancestors that should guide our path There is a sense however that Africans have forgotten our ancestors Because of this there is no spirit to guide us and so Africans are lost and confused The roots of African spirituality and culture have been made redundant Yet as Dr Clarke points out the umbilicord that tied Africans to our spiritual and cultural roots have only been stretched It has never been broken It is for Africans to come to this realization and to rediscover the spirit of our ancestors This volume lists some of our Notable Ancestors in the hope that knowledge about them and their achievements will aid some of us in understanding where we have been who we presently are and consequently who we must become Ultimately it is hoped that we may use this knowledge to reconnect with the spirit of our Ancestors and let them be our guide This volume is based on the truth about Africans and therefore correcting what is told about us This corrective knowledge of us is important because as Imhotep said Know the truth and the truth shall set you free This means being free to interpret our own story and to define who we are This is crucial because although history is a witness to the truths history has been stolen by others who have hidden the truths about us History has never been true or kind to Africans and therefore it cannot tell us about us Yet as Peter Tosh intimated we cannot come to a consciousness of ourselves of who we are if we do not know the truths about us History has been described as the Queen of the academic subjects So important is History that it is said that whoever controls history controls the future In one sense education in general and history in particular is about teaching us who we are History teaches who we are so as to help us to know where we belong in our community or society Africans cannot know where we belong in society however because our story has been told by others those who own history Africans are therefore unaware of who we are because what is known about us is not the truth about us The story of Africans the oldest people on earth like the history of the world is taught by others Yet these others came into the world thousands of years after Africans had already established great civ

Beyond the Primary Commodity Trap Uchendu Egbezor, 2009-08-30

Beyond the Primary Commodity Trap offers an alternative paradigm for analysing African development from the current aid and aids narrative Taking as its point of departure Africa's failure to extricate itself from over dependence on raw materials and its seeming inability to industrialise it offers an analysis of the political forces that have shaped and continue to shape Africa's political economy The book focuses particularly on the endemic poverty in the continent and how it interfaces with politics Written with the general reader in mind the book also examines some of the internal dynamics in Africa and how these combine with the continent's history and some other extraneous factors to explain the current conditions of economic poverty and the poverty of leadership in many parts of the continent

John Henrik Clarke and the Power of Africana History Ahati N. N. Toure, 2009 In the late 1960s through the late 1980s the late John Henrik Clarke 1915-1998 was one of the foremost architects of the emerging discipline of Africana Studies Africalogy as Professor of African World History in the Department of Black and Puerto Rican Studies at Hunter College of the City University of New York and as the Carter G Woodson Distinguished Visiting Professor of African History at Cornell University's Africana Studies and Research Center. The study explores Clarke's development and conceptualization of African World History by examining his intellectual influences and training, his approach to teaching African World History, his notions regarding Publisher's website. Conyer, Julius Eric Thompson, 2004.

We're Not Going to Take it Anymore Gerald G. Jackson, 2005. Professor Gerald G. Jackson incorporates the perceptions, ideals, hesitations, and proclamations of the Hip Hop and post Hip Hop generations into the Africana Studies field. He pulls evidence from a rich tapestry of history, classroom learning, exercises, student reports, scholar and professional led lectures, discussions, and educational tours to create a groundbreaking multicultural and pluralistic model for the application of Africentric helping to the educational sphere. While the mode varies, the greater number of compositions compiled here are biographies of ordinary and extraordinary African Americans. Culturally affirming, introspective, and expansive, We're Not Going to Take it Anymore is a rarely seen educational innovation. The Gaither Reporter, 1993-08. G.K.
