Bordjadze, 2017-10-09 How does one read the Old Testament as Christian Scripture This question voiced in both academic and ecclesial settings invites a reflection on how to take these texts with both hermeneutical alertness and sustained imaginative seriousness While scholars have recently engaged in robust discussion about theological hermeneutics there have been relatively few worked examples with particular Old Testament texts This book seeks to meet this need by providing a close reading of Isaiah 14 3 23 a text with a complex amalgam of textual historical critical history of reception and theological issues Religious Authorities and Practices of Conflict Resolution Carla Bagnoli, Vincenzo

Pacillo, 2025-11-17 Religious diversity raises challenges that reverberate at multiple social and political levels Religious institutions are sources of authoritative claims for believers They play a crucial role in the articulation and negotiation of domestic conflicts within multicultural societies as well as at the international level Religious Authorities and Practices of Conflict Resolution asks the following important questions how is interfaith dialogue to be conceived and structured Is such a dialogue even possible if each religious group is entitled to claim decisive and exclusive authority The challenge is to explicate how religious authority is compatible with the principle of equal normative standing that is at the core of modern ethics and democracy and is capable of grounding shared action toward peace This volume proposes that the challenge be addressed by taking a transdisciplinary approach which appropriates resources and methods from different perspectives in philosophy sociology economics and law By integrating perspectives from philosophy sociology economics and law the book provides a holistic understanding of how religious authority can influence conflict resolution Index to Jewish
