Who Should Sing Ol' Man River? Todd R. Decker, 2015 Who Should Sing Ol Man River The Lives of an American Song tells the almost eighty year performance history of a great popular song Examining over two hundred recorded and filmed versions of Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein II s classic song the book reveals the power of performers to remake one popular song into many different guises I Will Sing to the Lord a New Song Edward Duncan Hughes, 2021-09-18 This book of 170 original Christian poems and songs is offered for family and individual worship in the hope that singing a new song to the Lord will refresh the excitement wonder and joy of old truths that you have perhaps known for a long time My friends of mature years are in my mind as I recall the medical maxim that singing is good for the cardio vascular system It is also good for the mind and soul to thoughtfully explore and even memorize Bible truths and poetically condensed reminders of the marvellous love of God in Christ Jesus So those who spend time alone may do their general health and mental alertness a favour by offering new praise to the Lord while they go about their normal home activities Those unable to sing out loud for whatever reason may sing in their hearts with confidence that He Who knows the heart appreciates the heart s song This devotional content may also be shared in church groups children s ministries and through personal correspondence Psalm 91:2-3 It is good to give thanks unto the Lord and to sing praises to Your name O Most High Hebrews 13:15 Therefore let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God that is the fruit of our lips giving thanks to His name Come and I Will Sing You Genevieve Lehr, 1985 Newfoundlanders have long and lustily sung their folksongs and the tradition remains strong today Despite modern influences the old songs persist mixed with new songs that are composed to record the events of our time This is the first major collection of Newfoundland folksongs compiled and edited by native Newfoundlanders It concentrates on songs of local composition largely ignored by earlier collectors and presents a significant number of songs never before published For most of the last decade Lehr and Best have been travelling around the island recording the voices and favourite songs of anyone young and old who would perform Recordings took place in family kitchens on stage heads and in trap stores while the singer knitted twine or repaired lobster pots aboard ships at anchor or en route to some small deserted harbour Humming engines blowing oilstoves or clattering supper dishes provided accompaniment The 120 songs collected here by Lehr and Best have been transcribed by Pamela Morgan and illustrated by Elly Cohen Some recall the distant past of a long and rich seafaring tradition others tell of such recent tragedies as the displacement of outport people and the sinking of the Ocean Ranger The selection represents the state of the folk song in Newfoundland today in some part it documents what is lost and forgotten but it also celebrates what has survived and thrives Then We'll Sing a New Song Mary Ann Clark, 2012 This book examines how three African kingdoms that were involved in the slave trade specifically shaped religion in America and how they may have had an influence on contemporary American beliefs and culture The Sermons, and Other Practical Works Ralph Erskine, 1821 The Englishman's Hebrew and Chaldee Concordance of
