Whos Yer Daddy Gay Writers Celebrate Their Mentors And Forerunners:

Who's Yer Daddy? Jim Elledge, David Groff, 2012-12-05 Who's Yer Daddy offers readers of gay male literature a keen and engaging journey. In this anthology, thirty-nine gay authors discuss individuals who have influenced them: their inspirational daddies. The essayists include fiction writers, poets, and performance artists, both honored masters of contemporary literature and those just beginning to blaze their own trails. They find their artistic ancestry among not only literary icons: Walt Whitman, Oscar Wilde, Andr  Gide, Frank O'Hara, James Baldwin, Edmund White, but also a roster of figures whose creative territories are startlingly wide and vital, from Botticelli to Bette Midler to Captain Kirk. Some writers chronicle an entire tribal council of mentors; others describe a transformative encounter with a particular individual, including teachers and friends whose guidance or example cracked open their artistic selves. Perhaps most moving are the handful of writers who answered the question literally, writing intimately of their own fathers and their literary inheritance. This rich volume presents intriguing insights into the contemporary gay literary aesthetic. Winner, LGBT Nonfiction Anthology, Lambda Literary Awards. Queer Approaches Kristin LaFollette, Nicholas Santavicca, 2020-07-01 This edited collection supports queer educators and students; underscores the reasons society does not see LGBTQ representation in classroom spaces; and offers queered pedagogical approaches for teaching students from diverse backgrounds. This collection places value on every educator and student through prioritizing inclusivity, and the chapters carefully articulate what queer inclusivity is, why it matters for all educators, students, and administrators, and what can happen when inclusive environments are not created and/or sustained. When prompted to think about marginalized educators and students, most literature and research focuses on federal state laws and instances of bullying. The chapters in this collection are farther reaching and provide queered solutions for these individuals' needs and challenges. This volume addresses the ability of the LGBTQ community to see themselves represented in the curriculum of schools, discussed in the language of society and valued in all discourse settings. In addition, this volume uses queerness as a lens through which to reimagine classroom spaces and institutions of higher learning. Never by Itself Alone David Grundy, 2024 Through its comprehensive history of post-war queer writing in Boston and San Francisco from the 1940s through the 21st century, Never By Itself Alone provides a new view of queer history. Grundy intertwines analysis of lesbian, gay, and queer literature of the time, centering voices which have not yet before been explored in existing criticism. The book elevates the underrepresented work of writers of color and those with gender-nonconforming identities; underscores the link between activism and literature; and insists upon the vital importance of radical accounts of race, class, and gender in any queer studies worthy of the name. Live in Suspense David Groff, 2023-07 In Live in Suspense David Groff writes about living between beginnings and endings about always expecting the next mortal thing to happen That suspenseful place can be painful and grievous but also joyous these poems both resist those tensions and find rest in them In the elegies of Live in Suspense Groff contends with his late mother whose legacy she would have her son revise and resolve a minister father who wrestled with his own destiny and would have his son save him and friends and lovers lost to HIV and other tribulations with their catcalls and canticles As he did in his previous books Groff writes again of his husband Clay and living with the vagaries of the virus In poems that ask what it means to love someone and die anyway Live in Suspense explores our connections with the irksomely finite people we care for how we might shoulder past our guilt and grief to sidle into significance how we might be generative if not procreative how we might reweave our beliefs into new garments that warm us and how ultimately we might consent to suspense to step away from all signs shedding lexicons and matter simply as matter
