Whose School is It? Rich Migliore, 2007 Report Ohio. Department of Public Instruction, 1910 Report Ohio. Dept. of Education, 1911 The Cultural Proficiency Manifesto Randall B. Lindsey, 2017-09-13 A call to arms for educators in tumultuous times In times of social disruption and uncertainty we must return to our core values and remember why we entered education in the first place to make a difference in the lives of all children Cultural Proficiency can provide us with essential tools for acting on the promise of American public schooling The Cultural Proficiency Manifesto places today's political divisiveness in the context of greater historical change and provides a roadmap to interrupting the cycle of hostility towards marginalized groups Readers will find Esteemed author Randall Lindsey's latest thinking on Cultural Proficiency A deliberately brief format that unpacks the Cultural Proficiency Framework and offers practical guidance Tools and guiding principles to help educators move their school community toward inclusivity Prompts for individual reflection and team dialogue Now more than ever our students need educators to uphold our commitment to social justice equity and inclusion for all Lindsey's manifesto is a call to action for educators to ensure we are creating culturally responsive environments to support all learners It teaches us how to authentically engage in the work of educating our wonderfully diverse population Julie A Vitale Superintendent Romoland School District CA This manifesto is indeed timely and essential Dr Lindsey's vast experience as an expert and leader in cultural proficiency reminds us that now is the time to acknowledge and address the vast number of diversity equity and social justice issues at hand Kenneth R Magdaleno Executive Director Center for Leadership Equity and Research Annual Report of the Board of Education, Together with the ... Annual Report of the Commissioner of Public Schools of Rhode Island Rhode Island. Board of Education, 1918 A Smarter Charter Richard D. Kahlenberg, Halley Potter, 2014-12-04 A remarkable new book Wise and energetic advocates such as Kahlenberg and Potter can take the charter movement in new and useful directions The Washington Post Moving beyond the debate over whether or not charter schools should exist A Smarter Charter wrestles with the question of what kind of charter schools we should encourage The authors begin by tracing the evolution of charter schools from teacher union leader Albert Shanker's original vision of giving teachers room to innovate while educating a diverse population of students to today's charter schools where the majority of teachers are not unionized and student segregation levels are even higher than in traditional public schools In the second half of the book the authors examine two key reforms currently seen in a small but growing number of charter schools teacher voice and socioeconomic integration that have the potential to improve performance and reshape the stereotypical image of what it means to be a charter school Important reading for policymakers educators researchers and all citizens interested in the future of America's public schools A Smarter Charter features Profiles of charter schools that are bucking the prevailing trends including their performance data and the challenges they face Best practices from successful charter schools such as methods for attracting a diverse student body and examples of innovative teacher contracts Reform

strategies that can improve student outcomes in a variety of public schools not just charters Kahlenberg and Potter have delivered a thought provoking serious contribution Agree or not with their views on the purpose and performance of charter schools they have important things to say on where charters have been where they need to go and how they can get there Friends and foes of charter schooling alike would do well to read this book Frederick M Hess resident scholar and director of Education Policy Studies American Enterprise Institute Read this book and draw inspiration and ideas from charter schools and educators bucking the trend and reclaiming that original collaborative and powerful promise and spirit I hope parents educators in all sectors concerned citizens policymakers philanthropists and charter sector leaders will take its compelling message to heart and act on it Dennis Van Roekel former president National Education Association A tour de force laying out in singular fashion what has gone wrong with the charter school movement and what must be done to get it back on track A Smarter Charter is a must read for those concerned with the future of charter schools and public education Randi

Weingarten president American Federation of Teachers As Public as Possible David I. Backer, 2015-12-02 A witty and provocative treatise on the financial policies we ll need to make our public schools work for all children From the anti CRT panic to efforts to divert tax dollars to charter schools the right wing attack on education has cut deep In response millions of Americans have rallied to defend their cherished public schools But this incisive book asks whether choosing between our embattled status quo and the stingy privatized vision of the right is the only path forward In As Public as Possible education expert David I Backer argues for going on the offensive by radically expanding the very notion of the public in our public schools Helping us to imagine a more just and equitable future As Public as Possible proposes a concrete set of financial policies aimed at providing a high quality and truly public education for all Americans regardless of wealth and race With witty and provocative prose Backer shows how we can decouple school funding from property tax revenue evening out inequalities across districts by distributing resources according to need He argues for direct federal grants instead of the predations of municipal debt markets And he offers eye opening examples spanning the past and present from the former Yugoslavia to contemporary Philadelphia which help us to imagine a radically different way of financing the education of all of our children The Culturally Proficient School Randall B. Lindsey, Laraine M. Roberts, Franklin
