Why God Is A Woman American Poets Continuum:

Why God Is a Woman Nin Andrews, 2015-05-18 Why God Is a Woman is a collection of poems written about a magical island where women rule and men are the second sex. It is also the story of a boy who exiled from the island because he could not abide by its sexist laws, looks back with both nostalgia and bitterness and wonders why God has to be a woman. Celebrated prose poet Nin Andrews creates a world both fantastic and familiar where all the myths, logic and institutions support the dominance of women. Nin Andrews's books include The Book of Orgasms and Sleeping with Houdini.

Transatlantic Literary Studies, 1660-1830 Eve Tavor Bannet, Susan Manning, 2011-12-08 The recently developed field of transatlantic literary studies has encouraged scholars to move beyond national literatures towards an examination of communications between Britain and the Americas. The true extent and importance of these material and literary exchanges is only just beginning to be discovered. This collection of original essays explores the transatlantic literary imagination during the key period from 1660 to 1830, from the colonization of the Americas to the formative decades following political separation between the nations. Contributions from leading scholars from both sides of the Atlantic bring a variety of approaches and methods to bear on both familiar and undiscovered texts, revealing how literary genres were borrowed and readapted to a different context. The volume offers an index of the larger literary influences going backwards and forwards across the ocean.
