Learning to Be You David D. Swanson, 2012-09-01 We all want the confidence that comes from living out of our true identity but how do we get there We don t magically discover our true selves when we reach our twenties And some of us spend our entire lives feeling like we are living a lie We can be torn apart by our duplicity or we can become so comfortable with putting on various personas to suit our situation that we don t even realize we re doing it But if we are followers and disciples of Christ our identity is already decided What we need to learn is how to understand and embrace it In this honest and penetrating book David D Swanson calls readers to take off their masks discover the true source of their identities and enjoy the peace and satisfaction that comes from being authentic and transparent to ourselves our God and the people who surround us He gently leads readers from their hiding places to a life of conviction and courage

Connecting the Fragments Carolyn Bramhall, 2014-02-05 This is a remarkable book written by a remarkable person Within these pages Carolyn shares something of her own experiences and uses them to give us insight into the effects of trauma and abuse Perhaps what is most notable is that it is all done within the glorious hope of the transformation that Jesus can bring to the darkest of places Thank you for this book which brings hope and confidence that Jesus through his Church can bring healing and restoration to those who have suffered so much Rev John Ryeland Director of Christian Healing Mission London Carolyn Bramhall is living proof that even the deepest issues can be fully resolved in Christ As a sufferer from DID for many years she knows what she is talking about Even better she has now spent a decade or more living free of it and helping others to take hold of that freedom for themselves If you want a good understanding of what DID is and how it can be resolved in Christ it s difficult to imagine a better book to read Steve Goss International Director of Freedom in Christ Ministries

The Voices

We Carry J S Park,2020-05-05 Reclaim Your Headspace and Find Your One True Voice As a hospital chaplain J S Park encountered hundreds of patients at the edge of life and death listening as they urgently shared their stories confessions and final words J S began to identify patterns in his patients lives patterns he also saw in his own life He began to see that the events and traumas we experience throughout life become deafening voices that remain within us even when the events are far in the past He was surprised to find that in hearing the voices of his patients he began to identify his own voices and all the ways they could both harm and heal In The Voices We Carry J S draws from his experiences as a hospital chaplain to present the Voices Model This model explores the four internal voices of self doubt pride people pleasing and judgment and the four external voices of trauma guilt grief and family dynamics He also draws from his Asian American upbringing to examine the challenges of identity and feeling other J S outlines how to wrestle with our voices and even befriend them how to find our authentic voice in a world of mixed messages and how to empower those who are voiceless Dare to Connect
