Reflections Daron Kenneth, 2012-09-27 Reflections is a collection of poetry that shares the author's interests as well as reflections on the world of life Love friendships and relationships Author Daron Kenneth's poetry truly gives the reader a visionary view of some of life's richest and most memorable moments as seen through the eyes of this talented writer Thought provoking and inspiring this book will keep you reading from cover to cover Wisconsin Uprising Michael D.

Yates, 2012-03-01 In early 2011 the nation was stunned to watch Wisconsin's state capitol in Madison come under sudden and unexpected occupation by union members and their allies The protests to defend collective bargaining rights were militant and practically unheard of in this era of declining union power Nearly forty years of neoliberalism and the most severe economic crisis since the Great Depression have battered the labor movement and workers have been largely complacent in the face of stagnant wages slashed benefits and services widening unemployment and growing inequality That is until now Under pressure from a union busting governor and his supporters in the legislature and inspired by the massive uprisings in Tunisia and Egypt workers in Wisconsin shook the nation with their colossal display of solidarity and outrage Their struggle is still ongoing but there are lessons to be learned from the Wisconsin revolt This timely book brings together some of the best labor journalists and scholars in the United States many of whom were on the ground at the time to examine the causes and impact of events and suggest how the labor movement might proceed in this new era of union militancy rivers across lakes and bays into canals and locks on open water crossings through the Great Lakes and even into another country These waterways have many faces clean or muddy curious and amusing depressing and aggravating or stressful and frightening Mainly however they are peaceful and prayerful beautiful and breathtaking majestic and awe inspiring Yet they remain ever changing and ever beckoning Come follow me See what lies around the next bend This is my Father's world all nature rings and round me sings the music of the spheres Jan Boys musing of the heart is a song of recognition and gratefulness Jan sees God's hand in every bend of the river Travel is more than a geography lesson or a cross cultural experience It's the handiwork of God that inspires and amazes us This is a walk with God on the waters a personal psalm of a boater and a believer in touch with the creator Anyone looking for a sacred passage on America's waterways will be both inspired and rewarded Ron and Eva Stob founders of America's Great Loop Cruisers Association AGLCA and co authors of Honey Let's Get a Boat

A Garland of Feminist Reflections Rita M. Gross, 2009-03-05 Rita M Gross has long been acknowledged as a founder in the field of feminist theology One of the earliest scholars in religious studies to discover how feminism affects that discipline she is recognized as preeminent in Buddhist feminist theology The essays in A Garland of Feminist Reflections represent the major aspects of her work and provide an overview of her methodology in women's studies in religion and feminism The introductory article written specifically for this volume summarizes the conclusions Gross has reached about gender and feminism after forty years of searching and exploring and the autobiography also written for this volume narrates how those conclusions were reached These articles reveal the range of scholarship and reflection found in Rita M Gross's work and demonstrate how feminist scholars in the 1970s shifted the paradigm away from an androcentric model of humanity and forever changed the way we study religion

Race, Science, and the Nation Chris Manias, 2013-06-07 Across the nineteenth century scholars in Britain France and the German lands sought to understand their earliest ancestors the Germanic and Celtic tribes known from classical antiquity and the newly discovered peoples of prehistory New fields philology archeology and anthropology interacted breaking down languages unearthing artifacts measuring skulls and recording the customs of savage analogues This was a decidedly national process disciplines institutionalized on national levels and their findings seen to have deep implications for the origins of the nation and its racial composition However this operated within broader currents The wide spread of material and novelty of the methods meant that these approaches formed connections across Europe and beyond even while national rivalries threatened to tear these networks apart Race Science and the Nation follows this tension offering a simultaneously comparative cross national and multi disciplinary history of the scholarly reconstruction of European prehistory As well as showing how interaction between disciplines was key to their formation it makes arguments of keen relevance to studies of racial thought and nationalism It shows these researches often worked against attempts to present the chaotic multi layered ancient eras as times of mythic origin Instead they argued that the modern nations of Europe were not only diverse but were products of long processes of social development and racial fusion This book therefore brings to light a formerly unstudied motif of nineteenth century national consciousness showing how intellectuals in the era of nation building themselves drove an idea of their nations being constructed from a useable past

Publication , 1993 Technologies of Empire Dermot Ryan, 2012-12-19 Technologies of Empire reshapes post colonial scholarship of the long eighteenth century by exploring the ways in which post enlightenment authors employ writing and imagination to produce rather than simply represent empire Challenging the assumption that the first imaginings of coordinated global empires occur in the later nineteenth century this study argues that authors ranging from Adam Smith

Edmund Burke to William Wordsworth conceive of imagination and writing as technologies that can conceptualize and consolidate the new forms of empire they see emerging Geophysical Studies of the Waterloo Range, Wisconsin John Stewart Sumner,1956 Difficult Folk? David Mills,2008 How should we tell the histories of academic disciplines All too often the political and institutional dimensions of knowledge production are lost beneath the intellectual debates This book redresses the balance Written in a narrative style and drawing on archival sources and oral histories it depicts the complex pattern of personal and administrative relationships that shape scholarly worlds Focusing on the field of social anthropology in twentieth century Britain this book describes individual departmental and institutional rivalries over funding and influence It examines the efforts of scholars such as Bronislaw Malinowski Edward Evans Pritchard and Max Gluckman to further their own visions for social anthropology Did the future lie with the humanities or the social sciences with addressing social problems or developing scholarly autonomy This new history situates the discipline s rise within the post war expansion of British universities and the challenges created by the end of Empire Wisconsin Lutheran Quarterly ,1978 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,1987 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States.
