Pluralising International Legal Scholarship Rossana Deplano, 2019-12-27 This unique book examines the role non doctrinal research methods play in international legal research what do they add to the traditional doctrinal analysis of law and what do they neglect Focusing on empirical and socio legal methods it provides a critical evaluation of the breadth scope and limits of the representation of international law created by these often neglected methodologies The African American Student's Guide to STEM Careers Robert T. Palmer, Andrew T. Arroyo, Alonzo Flowers, 2016-12-05 This book comprehensively reviews the factors that facilitate access and success of Black students in STEM majors in higher education and it shares compelling testimonies from Black STEM professionals that will help inspire the next generation of Black scientists and engineers Most experts agree that America's success depends on having a workforce that is highly prepared in STEM areas Unfortunately students of color continue to be underrepresented in higher education and specifically in completing degrees and entering careers within the STEM fields This book supports African American students as well as all students who are interested in STEM careers providing information on the top colleges with STEM related programs particularly those that best support racially diverse students practical advice for preparing for entrance into STEM programs and inspirational stories of successful African Americans in STEM related careers Authored by three educators expert in the areas of academic development of African Americans and minorities STEM and higher education The African American Student's Guide to STEM Careers focuses on preparing Black students for STEM from K 12 through graduate school Readers will more fully appreciate the importance of STEM recognize why more Black students need to be more actively engaged in these disciplines and understand how to prepare Black students for success in STEM throughout the educational pipeline

The Languageing of Higher Education in the Global South Sinfree Makoni, Cristine G. Severo, Ashraf Abdelhay, Anna Kaiper-Marquez, 2022-01-06 By foregrounding language practices in educational settings this timely volume offers a postcolonial critique of the languaging of higher education and considers how Southern epistemologies can be used to further the decolonization of post secondary education in the Global South Offering a range of contributions from diverse and minoritized scholars based in countries including South Africa Rwanda Sudan Qatar Turkey Portugal Sweden India and Brazil The Languageing of Higher Education in the Global South problematizes the use of language in various areas of higher education Chapters demonstrate both subtle and explicit ways in which the language of pedagogy scholarship policy and participation endorse and privilege Western constructs and knowledge production and utilize Southern theories and epistemologies to offer an alternative way forward practice and research which applies and promotes Southern epistemologies and local knowledges The volume confronts issues including integrationism epistemic solidarity language policy and ideology multilingualism and the increasing use of technology in institutions of higher education This innovative book will be of interest to researchers scholars and postgraduate students in the fields of higher education applied linguistics and multicultural education Those with an interest in the decolonization of education and language will find the book of particular use Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities

Re-examining Pedagogical Content Knowledge in Science Education Amanda Berry, Patricia Friedrichsen, John Loughran, 2015-03-24 Pedagogical Content Knowledge PCK has been adapted adopted and taken up in a diversity of ways in science education since the concept was introduced in the mid 1980s Now that it is so well embedded within the language of teaching and learning research and knowledge about the construct needs to be more useable and applicable to the work of science teachers especially so in these times when standards and other measures are being used to define their knowledge skills and abilities Re examining Pedagogical Content Knowledge in Science Education is organized around three themes Re examining PCK Issues ideas and development Research developments and trajectories Emerging themes in PCK research Featuring the most up to date work from leading PCK scholars in science education across the globe this volume maps where PCK has been where it is going and how it now informs and enhances knowledge of science teachers professional knowledge It illustrates how the PCK research agenda has developed and can make a difference to teachers practice and students learning of science Hunger and Poverty in South Africa Jacqueline Hanoman, 2017-09-01 Hunger and Poverty in South Africa The Hidden Faces of Food Insecurity explores food insecurity as an issue of socioeconomic political cultural and environmental inequity and inequality Based on extensive original research in Free State Province South Africa the book explores how people living in poverty make meaning of their food circumstances within the socio cultural political and economic contexts of post apartheid South Africa how they view the government s food security policies and programs and their perceived agency to affect change The personal narratives contained in the book show that food insecurity is shaped by many issues among which are structural poverty racism attempts or non attempts at reconciliation during and after apartheid public health issues such as HIV AIDS and environmental circumstances At a time when most discourse around food insecurity focuses on how to provide more food to people facing hunger this book s multidimensional approach is a valuable contribution to the contemporary dialogue on poverty food security insecurity sustainability and democratic agency both within South Africa and around the world This book will be of interest to researchers in the areas of food security multidimensional poverty democratic agency and sustainable development both in South Africa and internationally

Postgraduate Supervision Magda Fourie-Malherbe, 2016-11-21 The 24 chapters contained in this volume provide diverse but also congruent perspectives on future foci for research into postgraduate education and supervision in the knowledge society The chapters move from deliberations on challenges for postgraduate supervision at macro level such as the pressure to increase postgraduate output and the implications of increasingly managerialist institutions to meso level matters the form and function of postgraduate education in specific countries to the micro rich case studies of individual institutions programmes and supervisors

Governance and the postcolony David Everatt, 2019-08-01 Civil society NGOs governments and multilateral institutions all repeatedly call for improved or good governance yet they seem to speak past one another Governance is in danger of losing all meaning precisely because it means many things to different people in varied locations This is especially true in sub Saharan Africa Here the postcolony takes many forms reflecting the imperial project with painful accuracy Offering a set of multidisciplinary analyses of governance in different sectors crisis management water food security universities in different locales across sub Saharan Africa and from different theoretical approaches network to adversarial network governance this volume makes a useful addition to the growing debates on how to govern It steers away from offering a correct definition of governance or from promoting a particular position on postcoloniality It gives no neat conclusion but invites readers to draw their own conclusions based on these differing approaches to and analyses of governance in the postcolony As a robust critical assessment of power and accountability in the sub Saharan context Governance and the Postcolony Views from Africa brings together topical case studies that will be a valuable resource for those working in the field of African international relations public policy public management and administration
