Hunter Raiford, 2006-12-06 In April 1862 the Civil War was entering its second year and North Carolina was rallying to supply more troops for the Confederacy. The Partisan Ranger Act passed by the Confederate Congress on April 21 prompted local leaders to recruit companies of irregular soldiers for service in the Confederate Army. Seven such companies were banded together into a regiment to form the 4th North Carolina Cavalry, a true cross section of North Carolina; it contained soldiers from the largest urban areas and smallest rural areas from fifteen counties. This history of the 4th North Carolina Cavalry is based largely on primary source material: the official records, letters, diaries, and recollections of the soldiers. The 4th North Carolina saw action in North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, and Pennsylvania and was a part of General Lee's Army of Northern Virginia. The roster comprises a large part of the book and provides biographical, genealogical, and military information about each soldier.
