

Women in leadership: achieving an equal future in a COVID-19 world

This International Women's Day UNDRR's Women's International Network on Disaster Risk Reduction and UN Women Regional Office for Asia-Pacific will co-host a virtual event highlighting the need for women's leadership in COVID-19 recovery, and recognizing the women who have played an essential role in their country's COVID-19 response.

As part of this event UN Women and the International Advisory Group will launch a new framework that tracks the progress and impact of women's leadership and meaningful participation in COVID-19 responses in Asia and the Pacific. The framework builds on work from women's rights organizations and women-led organizations, and helps to shed light not only on the need to strengthen women's leadership but how to harness COVID-19 response efforts across numerous sectors to effectively integrate women's leadership in approaches to programming.

Weber, 2020-01-17 There are countless books on the market that address the personal challenges and institutional barriers that ambitious female leaders face in the United States This volume furthers the conversation by comparing the experiences of women in leadership with regards to work life balance from eight different countries around the globe Collecting stories from women in the United States Costa Rica India Iran Nigeria Norway Sri Lanka and Uganda this volume provides insights into the issues women face globally regarding leadership and work family integration It offers a variety of perspectives from around the world and highlights a variety of cultural norms regarding work and family integration Vital Voices Alyse Nelson, 2012-05-16 How women around the world are leading powerful change Women's progress is global progress Where there is an increase in women's university enrollment rates, women's earnings and maternal health and a reduction in violence against women, we see more prosperous communities, better educated, healthier families and the preservation of equal human rights. Yet globally, women remain the most consistently underutilized resource. Vital Voices calls for and makes possible transformative leadership around the world. In Vital Voices, CEO Alyse Nelson shares the stories of remarkable world-changing women as well as the story of how Vital Voices was founded, crossing lines that typically divide. For 15 years, Vital Voices has brought together women who want to enable others to become change agents in their governments, advocates for social justice and supporters of democracy. They equip women with management and business development skills to expand their enterprises and create jobs in their communities. Their voices, stories and hard-earned lessons shared here for the first time are deeply authentic and truly vital. Features interviews and first-person accounts of global leaders such as Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, president of Liberia, and Aung San Suu Kyi, Nobel Prize-winning Burmese pro-democracy leader, as well as business leaders. Draws on the work of the Vital Voices organization, founded by Hillary Clinton in 1997 as a government initiative that transformed into a leading nonprofit which enables a network of 10,000 emerging women leaders in politics, human rights and economic development in 127 countries. These women have gone on to mentor and train more than 500,000. Focuses on the key elements of the Vital Voices five-step model of transformational leadership, including how to find a voice, lead with purpose, cross lines that divide and more. Through the firsthand accounts of trail-blazing leaders, Vital Voices introduces unforgettable inspiring women who are shaping our world.
