Understanding Turkey's Kurdish Question Fevzi Bilgin, Ali Sarihan, 2013-06-20 This edited volume comprising chapters by leading academics and experts aims to clarify the complexity of Turkey's Kurdish question. The Kurdish question is a long-standing protracted issue which gained regional and international significance largely in the last thirty years. The Kurdish people, who represent the largest ethnic minority in the Middle East without a state, have demanded autonomy and recognition since the post-World I wave of self-governance in the region, and their nationalist claims have further intensified since the end of the Cold War. The present volume first describes the evolution of Kurdish nationalism, its genesis during the late nineteenth century in the Ottoman Empire, and its legacy into the new Turkish republic. Second, the volume takes up the violent legacy of Kurdish nationalism and analyzes the conflict through the actions of the PKK, the militant pro-Kurdish organization which grew to be the most important actor in the process. Third, the volume deals with the international dimensions of the Kurdish question as manifested in Turkey's evolving relationships with Syria, Iraq, and Iran; the issue regarding the status of the Kurdish minorities in these countries; and the debate over the Kurdish problem in Western capitals.

The Hizmet Movement and Peacebuilding Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Timothy Seidel, 2018-08-31 The Hizmet Movement and Peacebuilding assesses the peacebuilding implications and societal impact of the Hizmet Movement, characterized as a pacifist and inclusive expression of Islam. With a range of both supporters and critics, the studies of the Hizmet Movement presented in these cases provide a counter to negative stereotypes with examples of positive educational institutions rooted in Islamic values. The book includes contributions from scholars and practitioners around the world that critically explore the intersection of the movement and peacebuilding in countries such as Northern Iraq, Nigeria, Ethiopia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Sri Lanka, and the Philippines.

Resolving Turkey's Kurdish Issue Fevzi Bilgin,2012

Turkey's Kurdish Question Henri J. Barkey,Graham E. Fuller,1998 The Kurds one of the oldest ethnic groups in the Middle East are reasserting their identity politically and through violence. Divided mainly among Turkey Iran Iraq and Syria the Kurds have posed increasingly sharp challenges to all of these states in their quest for greater autonomy if not outright independence. Turkey's essentially democratic structure and civil society ideal tools for coping with and incorporating minority challenge have so far been suspended on this issue which the government is treating almost exclusively as a security problem to be dealt with by force. For the West the situation in Turkey is particularly significant because of the country's importance in the region and because of the economic political and diplomatic damage that the conflict has caused. If Turkey fails to find a peaceful solution within its current borders then the outlook is grim for ethnic and separatist challenges elsewhere in the region. This study explores the roots dimensions character and evolution of the problem offers a range of approaches to a resolution of the conflict and draws broader parallels between the Kurdish question and other separatist movements worldwide.
