Instructions for My Mother's Funeral Laura E. Read,2012-11-25 This collection is divided into three sections The first opens with the speaker s reflections on her childhood loss of her father and subsequent move to a new house and a new life a life in which she is always alert to the absences and danger but also a life in which she begins to see language as a kind of salvation This section also develops the speaker s first knowledge of sex primarily in the poems The Goose Girl and A Woman Was Raped Here The second section follows the speaker into adolescence and young adulthood and these poems further explore the sexual violence in the world in which the speaker lives and how this violence affects her own feelings toward sex and romantic love In the third section the book finds love work and family and the poems in this section about motherhood echo back to the first section as the speaker s own parenting is influenced by how difficult it is to love when you know people die Technical Manual United States Department of the Army,1964 Electronic Products Radiation Control United States.
