Une Comedie Des Erreurs 1943 1956:

COMEDIE DES ERREURS 1943-1956 René Massigli, 1978 The Imperialism of French Decolonisation Ryo

Ikeda, 2016-01-12 This book examines French motivations behind the decolonisation of Tunisia and Morocco and the intra Western Alliance relationships. It argues that changing French policy towards decolonisation brought about the unexpectedly quick process of independence of dependencies in the post WWII era. The Diplomats, 1939-1979 Gordon A. Craig, Francis L. Loewenheim, 2019-01-15 This volume offers a unique perspective on a turbulent and dangerous age by focusing on the activities and accomplishments of its diplomats. Its twenty three interconnected essays discuss the politics of ambassadors, foreign ministers and heads of state from Acheson and Adenauer to Sadat and Gromyko as well as the special problems of the professionals in the foreign offices and the role of the media in modern diplomacy. Among its contributors are such distinguished international scholars as Akira Iriye, Michael Brecher, Stanley Hoffmann, W. W. Rostow and Norman Stone. Expanding the field of inquiry covered by its acclaimed predecessor The Diplomats 1919-1939 which concentrated on Europe and the coming of the Second World War, these essays showcase the major diplomatic practitioners of the period against the broader background of the problems and crises that confronted them: among others, the Polish question at the end of World War II, the onset of the Cold War, the defeat of EDC in 1954, the Suez crisis, Khrushchev's Berlin note in 1958, the Middle East War of 1967 and the oil shock of 1973, the Iranian revolution and the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. This account of the pendular swing from crisis and detente and back again is given a global perspective by careful treatment of the diplomacy of new nations like India, Communist China and Israel and the transformation of the Middle East and Japan. Among the new perspectives offered here are Geoffrey Warner's critical view of Ernest Bevin's attitude toward the United States, John Lewis Gaddis's judgment of Henry Kissinger's detente policy, W. W. Rostow's analysis of the diplomatic method of Paul Monnet, Rena Fonseca's assessment of Nehru's policy of nonalignment, Shu Guang Zhang's fresh look at the relationship between Zhou Enlai and Mao and Paul Gordon Lauren's critique of U.N. crisis management from Trygve Lie to Perez de Cuellar. Highly original also are Steven Miner's portrait of Molotov, Michael Brecher's pioneering study of the diplomacy of Abba Eban and James McAdams's analysis of German Ostpolitik. Originally published in 1994, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

Common Destiny Dietrich Orlow, 2000-03-01 Although the Socialist or Social Democratic parties played a key role in West European politics during the quarter century after the Second World War, they have been studied far less than their political rivals, the Christian Democrats. The story of West European Social Democracy after 1945 begins with a dilemma

Democratic marxism which had been the parties ideological and organizational principle until the Second World War was becoming politically irrelevant The three parties analyzed here represent the spectrum of reactions among Social Democratic parties to this realization The debate over the parties programs and ideologies did not of course take place in a vacuum the author devotes considerable space to a comparative analysis of the parties leaders and organizational structures as well as the evolution of Social Democratic domestic and foreign policies Immensely readable this book not only offers an in depth analysis of the postwar period crucial for the history of Social Democracy but also because of its cross national treatment of these three major parties adds significantly to our understanding of the processes of European integration and the evolution of the Atlantic Alliance

Peacemaking from Above, Peace from Below Norrin M. Ripsman, 2016-05-31 In Peacemaking from Above Peace from Below Norrin M Ripsman explains how regional rivals make peace and how outside actors can encourage regional peacemaking Through a qualitative empirical analysis of all the regional rivalries that terminated in peace treaties in the twentieth century including detailed case studies of the Franco German Egyptian Israeli and Israeli Jordanian peace settlements Ripsman concludes that efforts to encourage peacemaking that focus on changing the attitudes of the rival societies or democratizing the rival polities to enable societal input into security policy are unlikely to achieve peace Prior to a peace treaty he finds peacemaking is driven by states often against intense societal opposition for geostrategic reasons or to preserve domestic power After a formal treaty has been concluded the stability of peace depends on societal buy in through mechanisms such as bilateral economic interdependence democratization of former rivals cooperative regional institutions and transfers of population or territory Society is largely irrelevant to the first stage but is critical to the second He draws from this analysis a lesson for contemporary policy Western governments and international organizations have invested heavily in efforts to promote Israeli Palestinian and Indo Pakistani peace by promoting democratic values economic exchanges and cultural contacts between the opponents Such attempts to foster peace are likely to waste resources until such time as formal peace treaties are concluded between longtime adversaries

The Atlantic Pact forty Years later Ennio Di Nolfo, 2011-05-02 No detailed description available for The Atlantic Pact forty Years later

France and the Construction of Europe, 1944-2007 Michael Sutton, 2011-03 This comprehensive history shows how France coupled the pursuit of power and the furtherance of European integration over a 60 year period from the close of the Second World War to the hesitation caused by the French electorate s referendum rejection of the European Union s constitutional treaty in 2005

Reforming Europe Constantine Arvanitopoulos, 2010-04-06 In the 2009 elections the European centre right emerged victorious thus affirming its political domination in contemporary European politics The aim of this book is not to provide an analysis of the factors that contributed to the EPP s political prevalence Instead it is to help this large political family maintain its vigour of political thought and policy prescriptions The book provides a forum for prominent centre right thinkers to debate the major European problems of our times with particular emphasis on the management of the financial crisis and the next institutional steps regarding the European integration project. It assembles the views of politicians, academics and think tank fellows from different national backgrounds and dissimilar ideological perspectives who unfold their vision for Europe's future. Overall, the book attempts to both highlight and stimulate the centre-right contribution to the discussion of Europe's main contemporary challenges.

Britain and European Union Lord Beloff, 2016-07-27. The forefathers of the European Union led by Jean Monnet hoped to create a United States of Europe with national sovereignties subordinated to a federal government. Few in Britain shared their dream. Yet Britain abandoned her aloof stand of 1950 and eventually joined the European Communities. Lord Beloff asks whether the key figures Harold Macmillan, Sir Edward Heath and Harold Wilson knowingly deceived the electorate into thinking that entry could be combined with the country's independence of action and historic constitution or whether they thought that they could persuade continental statesmen from inside of the merits of a much looser structure. The actions and words of Lady Thatcher and John Major are scrutinised with this same question in mind as are Labour's oscillations under Gaitskill, Wilson and Foot before plunging wholeheartedly into Eurofederalism under Kinnock and Blair. The key theme which emerges is of mutual misunderstanding between Britain and the continent due to basic differences of outlook and interest which have guaranteed continual controversy throughout our involvement in Europe.

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization, 1948-1957 John C. Milloy, 2006-03-22. Milloy challenges the view that creating greater alliance unity has usually been only a Canadian preoccupation; other members notably the United States and Britain displayed a sincere interest as well and further suggests that Canadian actions sometimes acted as an impediment. He argues that the idea failed partly because the lack of an agreed-upon definition for NATO's non-military potential hampered focused discussion. With NATO facing a post-9/11 relevancy crisis, Milloy shows that there are parallels to the inter-alliance struggles of the 1950s and that many of the early frustrations and obstacles are still present.
