Zimbabwe National Army Recruitment 2015:

National Museums in Africa Raymond Silverman, George Abungu, Peter Probst, 2021-08-30 National Museums in Africa brings the voices of African museum professionals into dialogue with scholars and by so doing is able to consider the state of African national museums from fresh perspectives Covering all regions of the continent the volume's thirteen chapters allow for a deep and nuanced understanding of the intricate interplay between past and present in contemporary Africa Taking stock of the shifting museum landscape in Africa with new players like China and South Korea challenging the conditions of cultural exchange the book demonstrates that national museums are being rediscovered as important sites of political engagement and cultural negotiation This is the first book to critically examine the roles national museums in Africa have played in the societies in which they are situated but it is also the first to consider the roles that national museums might play in current debates concerning the restitution and repatriation of cultural patrimony taken from Africa during the colonial era Informed by a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective this ground breaking book will appeal to anyone interested in museums in Africa It will be particularly useful to scholars and students working in the areas of museum and heritage studies African studies anthropology archaeology history art history and cultural studies Civil Society and the Party-state in Zimbabwe Zenzo Moyo, 2024-08-21 The book utilises Gramsci's concepts of hegemony counter hegemony organic intellectuals and integral state to interrogate how modes of engagement between the state and civil society have contributed to a polarised polity in Zimbabwe and in turn how this has impacted democratisation processes This was achieved by analysing intra civil society interactions and state civil society relations which established deep polarised relationships that can be traced back to the liberation struggle It also interrogates ideologies that drive these polarised relations and how together with material benefits from donors and the party state these relations impact ordinary people's modes of existence One of the arguments that emerge from the book is that political polarisation in Zimbabwe has now morphed into an established political culture that has played a huge role in the retardation of democratic struggles It uses ideas of entangled modernities and travelling theory to cast doubt on the belief that civil society is the missing key in the democratisation of developing countries The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleinhan, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent's resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of

African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations

Public Participation in African Constitutionalism Tania Abbiate,Markus Böckenförde,Veronica Federico,2017-11-22 During the last decade of the 20th century Africa has been marked by a constitutional wind which has blown across the continent giving impetus to constitutional reforms designed to introduce constitutionalism and good governance One of the main features of these processes has been the promotion of public participation encouraged by both civil society and the international community This book aims to provide a systematic overview of participation forms and mechanisms across Africa and a critical understanding of the impact of public participation in constitution making processes digging beneath the rhetoric of public participation as being at the heart of any successful transition towards democracy and constitutionalism Using case studies from Central African Republic Egypt Kenya Libya Malawi Morocco Senegal Somalia South Africa South Sudan Tanzania Tunisia Zambia and Zimbabwe the book investigates various aspects of participatory constitution making from conception to processes and specific contents that trigger ambivalent dynamics in such processes The abstract glorification of public participation is questioned as theoretical and empirical perspectives are used to explain what public participation does in concrete terms and to identify what lessons might be drawn from those experiences This is a valuable resource for academics researchers and students with an interest in politics and constitution building in Africa as well as experts working in national offices international organizations or in national and international NGOs

SADC Gender Protocol 2015 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe,Dube, Sifiso,2016-02-22 In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance The SADC Gender Protocol is the only sub regional instrument that brings together existing global and continental commitments to gender equality and enhances these through time bound targets Aligned to Millennium Development Goal Three the original 28 targets of the Protocol targets expire in 2015 Now that 2015 is here we need to step back assess and reposition In June 2014 SADC Gender Ministers agreed to review the targets of the Gender

New Public Management in Africa Benon C. Basheka, Lukamba-Muhiya. Tshombe, 2017-08-25 The administrative sciences have been dominated by a turn to managerial perspectives in the late 20th and early 21st centuries and in the spirit of this turn New Public Management or NPM promises to produce efficient responsible and client oriented public services The reforms carried out in the pursuit of New Public Management are often accompanied by great optimism and rapid enthusiastic steps toward implementation Even in highly developed industrial countries however these fundamental reforms often overlook the political and cultural contexts of the implementing country New Public Management in Africa Emerging Issues and Lessons provides much needed theoretical foundations for NPM reforms in the African context and reflects on the success of existing reforms in the development of several African states The individual contributions in this timely volume provide important analyses of academic discourse practical policy achievements and desiderata The book as a whole however provides a valuable impetus for public administration research in and on African states sharing findings on the results of reforms to date and adjustments required for these reforms to succeed For public administration researchers outside of Africa this book offers a review of New Public Management case studies that are unavailable or difficult to find elsewhere contributing much to the exchange between African and Western administration science research and demonstrating that African administrative research is well prepared to help resolve global challenges
