Zu Dritt Threesome 1 German:

German Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1350-1600 Maryan W. Ainsworth, Joshua P. Waterman, Dorothy Mahon, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013 Paintings by Renaissance masters Lucas Cranach the Elder Albrecht Durer and Hans Holbein the Younger are among the works featured in this lavish volume the first to comprehensively study the largest collection of early German paintings in America These works created in the 14th through 16th centuries in the region that comprises present day Germany Austria and Switzerland include religious images such as Virgin and Child with Saint Anne by Durer and the double sided altarpiece The Dormition of the Virgin by Hans Schaufelein as well as remarkable portraits by Holbein and the iconic Judgment of Paris by Cranach In all more than 70 works are thoroughly discussed and analyzed making this volume an incomparable resource for the study of this rich artistic period

Relating Events Narrative Set Various Authors, 2020-12-29 This volume represents the culmination of an extensive research project that studied the development of linguistic form function relations in narrative discourse It is unique in the extent of data which it analyzes more than 250 texts from children and adults speaking five different languages and in its crosslinguistic typological focus It is the first book to address the issue of how the structural properties and rhetorical preferences of different native languages English German Spanish Hebrew and Turkish impinge on narrative abilities across different phases of development The work of Berman and Slobin and their colleagues provides insight into the interplay between shared possibly universal patterns in the developing ability to create well constructed globally organized narratives among preschoolers from three years of age compared with school children and adults contrasted against the impact of typological and rhetorical features of particular native languages on how speakers express these abilities in the process of relating events in narrative This volume also makes a special contribution to the field of language acquisition and development by providing detailed analyses of how linguistic forms come to be used in the service of narrative functions such as the expression of temporal relations of simultaneity and retrospection perspective taking on events and textual connectivity To present this information the authors prepared in depth analyses of a wide range of linguistic systems including tense aspect marking passive and middle voice locative and directional predications connectivity markers null subjects and relative clause constructions In contrast to most work in the field of language acquisition this book focuses on developments in the use of these early forms in extended discourse beyond the initial phase of early language development

Knowledge-Driven Multilingual Text Analysis and Transparent Information Retrieval Gregor Thurmair, 2025-10-09 This book presents all components and knowledge sources required for Transparent Information Retrieval Depending on the respective topic and taking care of their interoperability both deep and shallow technology is used The processing starts from the analysis of the text data and collects its results in a multilingual conceptual network this way enabling Transparent Information Retrieval where users communicate with the system in their native language while the documents could be in a different language transparent to the users To do so the author investigates all text analysis components required for multilingual indexing starting from preparatory work like language and topic identification continuing with sentence splitting and tokenization including Chinese and describing lexical analysis also for multiword entries and Named Entities Entries are then disambiguated both on syntactic by a tagger and semantic level by multilingual word sense disambiguation The analysis results are collected in a dynamic multilingual ConceptNet which is an index structure extended by monolingual relations like synonyms or head modifier links as well as multilingual ones translations In addition to many European languages also Turkish Arabic Persian and Chinese are treated The book concludes with a description of components needed to build the required resources like crawlers bilingual term extraction and tools for defaulting linguistic annotations For each component readers will find a technology overview a discussion of its main challenges in computational treatment a description of the technical solution selected and evaluation information
