Handbook of Theory and Practice of Sustainable Development in Higher Education Walter Leal

Filho, Constantina Skanavis, Armin da Paço, Judy Rogers, Olga Kuznetsova, Paula Castro, 2016-11-23 This Handbook approaches sustainable development in higher education from an integrated perspective addressing the dearth of publications on the subject. It offers a unique overview of what universities around the world are doing to implement sustainable development i.e. via curriculum innovation, research activities or practical projects and how their efforts relate to education for sustainable development at the university level. The Handbook gathers a wealth of information, ideas, best practices and lessons learned in the context of executing concrete projects and assesses methodological approaches to integrating the topic of sustainable development in university curricula. Lastly, it documents and disseminates the veritable treasure trove of practical experience currently available on sustainability in higher education.

Social Protection and Informal Workers in Sub-Saharan Africa Lone Riisgaard, Winnie V. Mitullah, Nina Torm, 2021-11-24

The promotion of social protection in Sub-Saharan Africa happens in a context where informal labour markets constitute the norm and where most workers live uncertain livelihoods with very limited access to official social protection. The dominant social protection agenda and the associated literature come with an almost exclusive focus on donor and state programmes even if their coverage is limited to small parts of the populations and in no way stands measure to the needs. In these circumstances, people depend on other means of protection and cushioning against risks and vulnerabilities including different forms of collective self-organizing providing alternative forms of social protection. These informal bottom-up forms of social protection are at a nascent stage of social protection discussions and little is known about the extent or models of these informal mechanisms. This book seeks to fill this gap by focusing on three important sectors of informal work: namely transport, construction and micro trade in Kenya and Tanzania. It explores how the global social protection agenda interacts with informal contexts and how it fits with the actual realities of the informal workers. Consequently, the authors examine and compare the social protection models conceptualized and implemented from above by the public authorities in Tanzania and Kenya with social protection mechanisms from below by the informal workers' own collective associations. The book will be of interest to academics in International Development Studies, Political Economy and African Studies as well as development practitioners and policy communities.

Education, Poverty and Global Goals for Gender Equality Elaine

Unterhalter, Amy North, 2017-08-07 Drawing on case study research that examined initiatives which engaged with global aspirations to advance gender equality in schooling in Kenya and South Africa, this book looks at how global frameworks on gender education and poverty are interpreted in local settings and the politics of implementation. It discusses the forms of global agreements in particular contexts and allows for an appraisal of how they have been understood by the people who implement them. By using an innovative approach to comparative cross-country research, the book illuminates how ideas and actions connect and disconnect around particular meanings of poverty education and gender in large systems and different settings Its conclusions will allow assessments of the approach to the post 2015 agenda to be made taking account of how policy and practice relating to global social justice are negotiated sometimes negated the forms in which they are affirmed and the actions that might help enhance them This book will be valuable for students researchers academics senior teachers senior government and inter government officials and senior staff in NGOs working in the field of education and international development gender poverty reduction and social development

Law and Regulation of Mobile Payment Systems Joy Malala,2017-11-28 Over the last ten years mobile payment systems have revolutionised banking in some countries in Africa In Kenya the introduction of M Pesa a new financial services model has transformed the banking and financial services industry Giving the unbanked majority access to the financial services market it has attracted over 18 million subscribers which is remarkable given that fewer than 4 million people in Kenya have bank accounts This book addresses the legal and regulatory issues arising out of the introduction of M Pesa in Kenya and its drive towards financial inclusion It considers the interaction between regulation and technological innovation with a particular focus on the regulatory tools institutional arrangements and government decisional processes through the examination as a whole of its regulatory capacity This is done with a view to understanding the regulatory capacity of Kenya in addressing the vulnerabilities presented by technological innovation in the financial industry for consumers after financial inclusion It also examines the way that mobile payments have been regulated by criticising the piecemeal approach that the Central Bank of Kenya has taken in addressing the legal and regulatory issues presented by mobile payments The book argues there are significant gaps in the regulatory regime of mobile banking in Kenya

A review of the use of contract teachers in Sub-Saharan Africa International Task Force on Teachers for Education 2030,UNESCO,2020-10-16

Yamada: Knowledge, Education and Social Structur,2023-06-27 In searching for the potential that lies in African societies the chapters of this volume consider relationships between knowledge education and social structure from multiple angles from a macro continental scale to national education systems schools and local communities The themes that cut across the chapters include education as a mode of transmitting values the contrasting effects of school credentials and knowledge for use politics and interactions among people surrounding a school and knowledge acquisition as a subjective process The rich empirical analyses suggest that the subjective commitment of and mutuality among people will make the acquired knowledge a powerful tool for conviviality to realize a stable life even given the turmoil created by rapid institutional and environmental changes that confront African societies

Islamic Ecumene David S. Powers,Eric Tagliacozzo,2023-11-15 The essays in Islamic Ecumene address the ways in which Muslims from Morocco to Indonesia and from sub Saharan Africa to the steppes of Uzbekistan are members of a broad cultural unit Although the Muslim inhabitants of these lands speak dozens of languages represent numerous ethnic groups and practice diverse forms of Islam they are united by shared practices and worldviews shaped by religious identity

To highlight these commonalities the co editors invited a team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines to examine Muslim societies in comparative and interconnected ways The result is a book that showcases ethics education architecture the arts modernization political resistance marriage divorce and death rituals Using the insights and methods of historians anthropologists literary critics art historians political scientists and sociologists Islamic Ecumene seeks to understand Islamic identity as a dynamic phenomenon that is reflected in the multivalent practices of the more than one billion people across the planet who identify as Muslims

The Design of Frontier Spaces Carolyn Loeb, Andreas Luescher, 2016-03-09 In a globalizing world frontiers may be in flux but they remain as significant as ever New borders are established even as old borders are erased Beyond lines on maps however borders are spatial zones in which distinctive architectural graphic and other design elements are deployed to signal the nature of the space and to guide if not actually control behaviour and social relations within it This volume unpacks how manipulations of space and design in frontier zones historically as well as today set the stage for specific kinds of interactions and convey meanings about these sites and the experiences they embody Frontier zones organize an array of functions to facilitate the passage of goods information and people and to define and control access Bringing together studies from Asia Africa the Middle East Europe and North America this collection of essays casts a wide net to consider borders of diverse sorts Investigations of contemporary political frontiers are set within the context of examinations of historical borders borders that have existed within cities and virtual borders This range allows for reflection on shifts in how frontier zones are articulated and the impermanence of border emplacements as well as on likely scenarios for future frontiers This text is unique in bringing together a number of scholarly perspectives in the arts and humanities to examine how spatial and architectural design decisions convey meaning shape or abet specific social practices and stage memories of frontier zones that no longer function as such It joins and expands discussions in social science disciplines in which considerations of border practices tend to overlook the role of built form and material culture more broadly in representing social practices and meanings

Democracy and Education in Namibia and Beyond Amukugo, Elizabeth M., 2017-07-19 The Namibian constitution makes full provision for education as a fundamental human right and freedom Three years into independence as part of the government's educational policy the Education for All Policy was launched as a stepping stone to free quality education However inequities have become widely pronounced within the Namibian educational system Democracy and Education in Namibia and beyond debates the education democracy nexus in Namibia and the southern African context It defines and explores the meaning of democracy and related concepts It also looks at what democracy means in the context of human rights and access to education The ten chapters in this collection interrogate the strengths and limitations of education as an instrument of social change and question whether or not the Namibian educational objectives and practices do develop and help to sustain a democratic culture in Namibia The authors in the collection have drawn material from their own teaching and research experience across the fields of education and social science in Namibia and beyond and present their findings in a pedagogical framework suitable as a challenging text for tertiary students At a time when education is in crisis especially in South Africa where strident calls for free tertiary education and Africanisation of the curriculum are spreading like wildfire this book gives scholarly insight into the history and social conditions that gave rise to our current predicament Learning, Marginalization, and Improving the Quality of Education in Low-income Countries Daniel A. Wagner, Nathan M. Castillo, Suzanne Grant Lewis, 2022-02-21 Improving learning evidence and outcomes for those most in need in developing countries is at the heart of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal on Education SDG4 This timely volume brings together contributions on current empirical research and analysis of emerging trends that focus on improving the quality of education through better policy and practice particularly for those who need improved learning at the bottom of the pyramid LBOP This volume brings together academic research experts government officials and field based practitioners National and global experts present multiple broad thematic papers ranging from the effects of migration and improving teaching to the potential of educational technologies and better metrics for understanding and financing education In addition local experts practitioners and policymakers describe their own work on LBOP issues being undertaken in Kenya India Mexico and Ivory Coast The contributors argue persuasively that learning equity is a moral imperative but also one that will have educational economic and social impacts They further outline how achieving SDG4 will take renewed and persistent effort by stakeholders to use better measurement tools to promote learning achievement among poor and marginalized children This volume builds on the second international conference on Learning at the Bottom of the Pyramid LBOP2 It will be an indispensable resource for policymakers researchers and government thinktanks and local experts as well as any readers interested in the implementation of learning equity across the globe The first volume Learning at the Bottom of the Pyramid LBOP1 may be obtained at <http://www.iiep.unesco.org/en/learning-bottom-pyramid> 4608 Annual Report, 2014 Entitled Jennifer C.
