Globaletics and Radicant Aesthetics in Australian Fiction Salhia Ben-Messahel, 2018-01-23 This book focuses on the issues of space, culture, and identity in recent Australian fiction. It discusses the work of 15 authors to show that in Australia, the meaning of country remains critical, and cultural belonging is still a difficult process. Interrogating the definition of Australia as a post-colonial nation and its underlying extension from Britain, it applies Nicolas Bourriaud's concept of the Radicant to examine Australian writing beyond the post of post-colonialism. The book shows that some authors are engaged in writing about the country and the time in which they live, but that they also share common critical views on the definition of multiculturalism, the belonging to place, and integration in the nation. The volume suggests that theories of cultural hybridism presented as a decolonising methodology in fact dissolve singularity in the same way that globalisation creates standardisation It argues that 21st century Australian fiction depicts the subject as a radicant and that Australian culture constitutes a mobile entity unconnected to any soil Khatru Symposium: Women in Science Fiction Jeanne Gomoll,2009-08-31 Originally published and edited by Jeffrey D Smith in 1975 Khatru 3 4 s symposium on women in science fiction was a detailed conversation among some of the most well known authors of 70s feminist science fiction including Suzy McKee Charnas Samuel R Delany Vonda N McIntyre Joanna Russ James Tiptree Jr before her true identity of Alice B Sheldon was known Kate Wilhelm Chelsea Quinn Yarbrow and others The opinions expressed by participants are still radical today This 1993 update of the symposium includes new material by some of the original participants and commentary by others including Pat Murphy Karen Joy Fowler Gwyneth Jones and Jeanne Gomoll Cover by Judith M Weiss illustrations by Georgie Schnobrich Biopolitics, Geopolitics, Life René Dietrich,Kerstin Knopf,2023-03-10 The contributors to Biopolitics Geopolitics Life investigate biopolitics and geopolitics as two distinct yet entangled techniques of settler colonial states across the globe from the Americas and Hawai i to Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand Drawing on literary and cultural studies social sciences political theory visual culture and film studies they show how biopolitics and geopolitics produce norms of social life and land use that delegitimize and target Indigenous bodies lives lands and political formations Among other topics the contributors explore the representations of sexual violence against Native women in literature Indigenous critiques of the carceral state in North America Indigenous elders refusal of dominant formulations of aging the governance of Indigenous peoples in Guyana the displacement of Guaran in Brazil and the 2016 rule to formally acknowledge a government to government relationship between the US federal government and the Native Hawaiian community Throughout the contributors contend that Indigenous life and practices cannot be contained and defined by the racialization and dispossession of settler colonialism thereby pointing to the transformative potential of an Indigenous centered decolonization Contributors Ren Dietrich Jacqueline Fear Segal Mishuana Goeman Alyosha Goldstein Sandy Grande Michael R Griffiths Shona N Jackson Kerstin Knopf Sabine N Meyer Robert Nichols Mark Rifkin David Uahikeaikalei ohu Maile
