Unlimited Art Basel 2015:

Art Unlimited? Franz Schultheis, Erwin Single, Raphaela Köfeler, Thomas Mazzurana, 2016-03-15 Until recently still a blank spot on the world map of art China today occupies one of the top positions in the rankings of the global art market and has moved into the center of the speculations and the covetousness of its protagonists But what is really happening on the spot beyond the ethnocentric distortions of the Western viewpoint What social representations and uses of art can be identified A research team from the University of St Gallen has taken up such questions in an ethnographical field research project which enables the actors in this emergent and nonetheless already market dominated art field to have their say

Brand New Art From China Barbara Pollack, 2018-06-25 A unique and visionary generation of young Chinese artists are coming to prominence in the art world just as China cements its place as the second largest art market on the planet Building on the new frontiers opened up by the Chinese artists of the late 1980s and 1990s artists such as Ai Wei Wei who came to the West and became household names this new generation are provocative exciting and bold But what does it mean to be a Chinese artist today And how can we better understand their work Here renowned critic Barbara Pollack presents the first book to tell the story of how these Chinese millennials fast becoming global art superstars negotiate their cultural heritage and what this means for China's impact on the future of global culture Many young Chinese artists have declared they are not Chinese but global this book investigates just what that means for China the art market and the world Brand new Art from China is the first collection to showcase the dynamic new art coming from Chinese artists and features full colour photos and video stills throughout with many works being published in book form for the first time Featuring an in depth interview with Zhang Xiaogang probably the most well known artist in China itself whose sombre portraits of Chinese families during the Cultural Revolution sell for as much as 12 million at auction alongside unparalleled access to the tastemakers of today's art scene Brand New Art from China is the essential guide to Chinese contemporary art today its vision values and aesthetics Art Basel 2015, Booth G14, 2015 Art Basel 2015 Dominique Lévy (Gallery), 2014

Dominique Lévy ,2015 Unlimited action Dominic Johnson,2018-12-07 Unlimited action concerns the limits imposed upon art and life and the means by which artists have exposed refused or otherwise reshaped the horizon of aesthetics and of the practice of art by way of performance art It examines the performance of extremity as practices at the limits of the histories of performance and art in performance art s most fertile and prescient decade the 1970s Dominic Johnson recounts and analyses game changing performance events by six artists Kerry Trengove Ulay Genesis P Orridge Anne Bean the Kipper Kids and Stephen Cripps Through close encounters with these six artists and their works and a broader contextual milieu of artists and works Johnson articulates a counter history of actions in a new narrative of performance art in the 1970s to rethink and rediscover the history of contemporary art and performance

Trauma, Art and Memory in the Postcolony David Corbet,2024-12-18 This wide ranging book provides a scholarly account of recent and contemporary memorial and counter memorial practices occurring in the visual arts across diverse postcolonial topologies and imaginaries The emphasis is on commemorative creative practices and responses to traumatic events of recent times within and beyond the Museum This major survey encompasses discourses on perception affect and trauma in the visual arts commissioned civic art and memorial architecture activist and socially engaged art projects creative praxis and expressions of minority and First Nations cultural resilience The book offers insights into contemporary exhibitionary practices decolonial methodologies and spatial politics with a significant focus on art's ability to reveal and reactivate silenced histories sites and non places It will be of great interest to students researchers and subject experts alike across the fields of visual arts architecture and urban planning cultural and memory studies and trauma and affect studies contextualising the work of artists and curators within some of the most urgent socio political environmental and philosophical debates of the twenty first century Behind the Cloud Peter Seele, Lucas Zapf, 2022-03-01 Thoughts are free but they are no longer secret Today our data is automatically stored and analyzed by algorithms behind the cloud where we no longer have control over our data Our most private and secret information is entrusted to the internet and permanently collected stacked and linked to our digital twins With and without our consent Privacy is dead as Mark Zuckerberg put it The question is How did we get there And if the actors behind the cloud know everything what is still private today and are there any personal secrets at all when the gods behind the cloud possibly know us better than our friends and family The book uses a wealth of case studies e g cryptocurrencies journalism digital traces of sexual preferences to develop a typology of privacy in the history of ideas Furthermore it shows the areas of life in which big data and artificial intelligence have already made inroads This book is a translation of the original German 2nd edition Die Rückseite der Cloud by Peter Seele and Lucas Zapf published by Springer Verlag GmbH Germany part of Springer Nature in 2020 The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence machine translation by the service DeepL.com A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content so that the book will read stylistically differently from a conventional translation

Carol Bove: Ten Hours, 2019-12-17 Carol Bove Ten Hours presents new work by sculpture's woman of steel as coined by Randy Kennedy in The New York Times Her new sculptures expand on her investigations of materiality and form Characterized by compositions of various types of steel Bove's ongoing series of collage sculptures begun in 2016 amalgamates theoretical and art historical influences across time periods and disciplines To create these lyrical and abstract assemblages Bove pairs fabricated tubing that has been crushed and shaped at her studio with found metal scraps and a single highly polished disk Luminous color is applied to parts of the composition transforming the steel more commonly associated with inflexibility and heft into something that appears malleable and lightweight like clay fabric or crinkled paper Bove's new works are smaller in scale and elaborate on the collage sculptures with more complex forms that twist fold and bend into postures that belie their material construction Bove manipulates steel to varying degrees rendering gentle folds in some and extreme almost anthropomorphic contortions in others Their contrasting textures matte glossy or rough create a further sense of visual play heightening the surface tension throughout The publication features a new interview with the artist by Johanna Burton Published on the occasion of the artist s solo exhibition at David Zwirner Hong Kong in 2019 Carol Bove is available in both English only and bilingual English traditional Chinese editions Arts and Power Lisa Gaupp, Alenka Barber-Kersovan, Volker Kirchberg, 2022-09-05 The focus on concepts of power and domination in societal structures has characterized sociology since its beginnings Max Weber s definition of power as imposing one s will on others is still relevant to explaining processes in the arts whether their production imagination communication distribution critique or consumption Domination in the arts is exercised by internal and external rulers through institutionalized social structures and through beliefs about their legitimacy achieved by defining and shaping art tastes The complexity of how the arts relate to power arises from the complexity of the policies of artistic production distribution and consumption policies which serve to facilitate or hinder an aesthetic object from reaching its intended public Curators critics and collectors employ a variety of forms of cultural and artistic communication to mirror and shape the dominant social economic and political conditions Arts and Power Policies in and by the Arts brings together diverse voices who position the societal functions of art in fields of domination and power of structure and agency whether they are used to impose hegemonic totalitarian or unjust goals or to pursue social purposes fostering equal rights and grassroots democracy The contributions in this volume are exploratory steps towards what we believe can be a more systematic empirically and theoretically founded sociological debate on the arts and power And they are an invitation to take further steps Contemporary Artists Working Outside the City Sarah Lowndes, 2018-04-17 This book reflects on the motivations of creative practitioners who have moved out of cities from the mid 1960s onwards to establish creative homesteads The book focuses on desert exile painter Agnes Martin radical filmmaker and gardener Derek Jarman and iconoclastic conceptual artist Chris Burden detailing their connections to the cities they had left behind New York London Los Angeles Sarah Lowndes also examines how the rise of digital technologies has made it more possible for artists to live and work outside the major art centers especially given the rising cost of living in London Berlin and New York focusing on three peripheral creative centers the seaside town of Hastings England the mid-sized metro of Leipzig Germany and post industrial Detroit USA
