unSpun Brooks Jackson, Kathleen Hall Jamieson, 2007-04-24 The founders of FactCheck.org teach you how to identify and debunk spin hype and fake news in this essential guide to informed citizenship in an age of misinformation Americans are bombarded daily with mixed messages half truths misleading statements and out and out fabrications masquerading as facts The news media is often too intimidated too partisan or too overworked to keep up with these deceptions unSpun is the secret decoder ring for the twenty first century world of disinformation Written by Brooks Jackson and Kathleen Hall Jamieson the founders of the acclaimed website FactCheck.org unSpun reveals the secrets of separating facts from disinformation such as the warning signs of spin common tricks used to deceive the public how to find trustworthy and objective sources of information Telling fact from fiction shouldn't be a difficult task With this book and a healthy dose of skepticism anyone can cut through the haze of political deception and biased reporting to become a savvy more responsible citizen Praise for unSpun Read this book and you will not go unarmed into the political wars ahead of us Jackson and Jamieson equip us to be our own truth squad and that just might be the salvation of democracy Bill Moyers The definitive BS detector an absolutely invaluable guidebook Mark Shields syndicated columnist and political analyst NewsHour with Jim Lehrer unSpun is an essential guide to cutting through the political fog Mara Liasson NPR national political correspondent The Internet may be a wildly effective means of communication and an invaluable source of knowledge but it has also become a new virtual haven for scammers financial political even personal Better than anything written before unSpun shows us how to recognize these scams and protect ourselves from them Craig Newmark founder and customer service representative Craigslist Critical Media Literacy and Fake News in Post-Truth America Christian Z. Goering, Paul L.

Thomas, 2018-04-16 This edited collection is not a response to the 2016 United States Presidential Election so much as it is a response to the issues highlighted through that single event and since when incredibly smart sophisticated and intelligent members of our society were confused by misinformation campaigns While media literacy and critical media literacy are ideas with long histories in formal education including K 12 students and higher education the need for increased attention to these issues has never reached a flash point like the present The essays collected here are confrontations of post truth fake news mainstream media and traditional approaches to formal schooling But there are no simple answers or quick fixes Critical media literacy we argue here may well be the only thing between a free people and their freedom Adman's Dilemma Paul Rutherford, 2018-01-01 The Adman's Dilemma is a cultural biography that explores the rise and fall of the advertising man as a figure who became effectively a licensed deceiver in the process of governing the lives of American consumers Apparently this personage was caught up in a contradiction both compelled to deceive yet supposed to tell the truth It was this moral condition and its consequences that made the adman so interesting to critics novelists and eventually filmmakers The biography tracks his saga from its origins in the exaggerated doings of P T Barnum the emergence of a new profession in the 1920s the heyday of the adman's influence during the post WW2 era the later rebranding of the adman as artist until the apparent demise of the figure symbolized by the triumph of that consummate huckster Donald Trump In The Adman's Dilemma author Paul Rutherford explores how people inside and outside the advertising industry have understood the conflict between artifice and authenticity The book employs a range of fictional and nonfictional sources including memoirs novels movies TV shows websites and museum exhibits to suggest how the adman embodied some of the strange realities of modernity

The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe, Faith Rogow, 2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today what is it why is it important how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels and does it work Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas

Saving American Elections , Mind Over Media Renee Hobbs, 2020-10-20 Winner of the AAP 2021 PROSE Award for Excellence in Social Sciences Propaganda is inescapable It's everywhere Students need to analyze resist critique and create Media literacy educators have always insisted that we are both creators and receivers of media messages The truth of this is even more apparent in today's digital environment with children and adults alike participating in a ubiquitous nonstop stream of social media Clearly students need the tools to interpret news and information critically not just for school but for life in a post truth world where the lines blur between entertainment information and persuasion Renee Hobbs demonstrates how a global perspective on contemporary propaganda enables educators to stimulate both the intellectual curiosity and the cultural sensitivities of students Replete with classroom and online learning activities and samples of student work Mind Over Media provides a state of the art look at the theory and practice of propaganda in contemporary society and shows how to build learners critical thinking and communication skills on topics including computational propaganda content marketing fake news and disinformation

Automating the News Nicholas Diakopoulos, 2019-06-10 From hidden connections in big data to bots spreading fake news journalism is increasingly computer generated An expert in computer science and media explains the present and future of a world in which news is created by algorithm Amid the push for self driving cars and the roboticization of industrial economies automation has proven one of the biggest news stories of our time Yet the wide scale automation of the news itself has largely escaped attention In this lively expos of that rapidly shifting terrain Nicholas Diakopoulos focuses on the people who tell the stories increasingly with the help of computer algorithms that are fundamentally changing the creation dissemination and reception of the news Diakopoulos reveals how machine learning and data mining have transformed investigative journalism Newsbots converse with social media audiences distributing stories and receiving feedback Online media has become a platform for A/B testing of content helping journalists to better understand what moves audiences Algorithms can even draft certain kinds of stories These techniques enable media organizations to take advantage of experiments and economies of scale enhancing the sustainability of the fourth estate But they also place pressure on editorial decision making because they allow journalists to produce more stories sometimes better ones but rarely both Automating the News responds to hype and fears surrounding journalistic algorithms by exploring the human influence embedded in automation Though the effects of automation are deep Diakopoulos shows that journalists are at little risk of being displaced With algorithms at their fingertips they may work differently and tell different stories than they otherwise would but their values remain the driving force behind the news The human algorithm hybrid thus emerges as the latest embodiment of an age old tension between commercial imperatives and journalistic principles

Mysteries and Secrets Revealed Loren Pankratz, 2021-04-01 Mysteries and Secrets Revealed uncovers the reality behind mysteries of nature and secrets of frauds that eluded common understanding The journey begins in the ancient Greek city of Delphi where priests claimed the gift of a priceless gold lion was an acknowledgement of their clairvoyant powers But their concocted story concealed an embarrassing blunder Those sufficiently savvy to catch the lie became aware of even deeper problems Author Loren Pankratz then guides us through the conflicts of Renaissance scholars including Galileo who explained things in ways that enraged philosophers and infuriated priests Galileo's methods of investigation were perpetuated by the meticulous work of the Academy of Experiment and Bernard Fontenelle's enthralling dialogue enabled common people to accept life in the rearranged sun centered universe Clairvoyants in a mesmeric trance claimed they could visit distant planets and endure brutal surgical procedures If any of this was real how was it possible One nineteenth century mesmeric savant Alexis Didier was so convincing that someone claimed no case of clairvoyance could be made for anyone if his accomplishments were not real This unchallenged declaration is now unraveled here for the first time through information gleaned from uncommon documents and rare antiquarian pamphlets The surprising manifestations of modern spiritualism quickly escalated into a psychic arms race that included mysterious tipping and turning of tables Scientist Michael Faraday devised ingenious experiments to show how subtle muscle reactions outside of awareness created these manifestations On the other hand explanations for table levitations and mysterious writing on slates could only be solved by individuals with acute observational skills and acquainted with the methods of trickery Each story in Mysteries and Secrets Revealed captures the tension of conflict the thrill of discovery and the strategies of science that unmasked frauds fakes false belief and the enigmas of our natural world
