Stealing All Transmissions Randal Doane, 2014-10-15 Stealing All Transmissions is a love story It's the story of how The Clash fell in love with America and how America loved them back The romance began in full in 1977 when select rock journalists and deejays aided the band's quest to depose the rock of indolence that dominated American airwaves This history situates The Clash amid the cultural skirmishes of the 1970s and culminates with their September 1979 performance at the Palladium in New York City This concert was broadcast live on WNEW and it concluded with Paul Simonon treating his Fender bass like a woodcutter's ax This performance produced one of the most exhilarating Clash bootleg recordings and the photo of Simonon's outburst which graced the cover of the London Calling LP was recently deemed the greatest rock n roll photograph of all time That night marked one of the last opportunities for American audiences to see The Clash as a punk band teetering between conviction and uncertainty before they became a seriously brilliant rock group Stealing represents a distinctive take on the history of punk for no other book gives proper attention to the forces of free form radio long form rock journalism or Clash bootleg recordings many of which are now widely available on the web This story which takes its title from the 1981 single Radio Clash includes original interviews with key figures from the New York punk scene This secret history concludes with an analysis of how we listen to music today and its impact on the written word My Life is a Rock and Roll Song ... ready to be sung! Ray

Mack,2023-07-09 Born to a Slovenian Mom and an Irish Dad I grew up in a small Ohio town in the 40 s and 50 s with many memories of my family struggling during and after World War II Studies came easy for me graduating with honors in College Preparatory Classes in 1959 I spent the last years in high school having overcome a Meatball weight problem and hanging out with buddies that were cool Although I was accepted and had a college scholarship waiting for me there was this stronger urge to accompany my buddies and join the Marines promising my parents college would come later While serving 4 years in the Marine Corps Univac Computers I followed one of my cool buddies to a local Albany GA radio station in search of a part time job and fell in love with the thought of being a DJ with hundreds of girls admiring me and my now Mr Bronze America muscular body I did make it with an on air gig but only got there because of my Sales Marketing skills With a few delays my parents were elated when I graduated from Kent State University with a Bachelor s Degree in Telecommunications and a Master s Degree in Broadcast Management The road to success has taken me on a lot of twists and turns some right turns while making my share of boo boos along the way There has been more than 50 years invested in writing this book some parts based on life others based on my vivid imagination During and following a career in radio and helping to build up and sell radio stations there was success as a motivational speaker across the country while promoting other famous speakers including Zig Ziglar Og Mandino and Norman Vincent Peale Several money making projects were always active while living life to the fullest including looking for the next lady to share it with and the next opportunity to do something exciting Enjoy Billboard ,2003-02-01 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication
