Up For Sale Human Trafficking And Modern Slavery:

Up for Sale Alison Marie Behnke, 2017-01-01 Trafficking thrives in the shadows And it can be easy to dismiss it as something that happens to someone else somewhere else But that is not the case Trafficking is a crime that involves every nation on earth and that includes our own US secretary of state Hillary Rodham Clinton 2009 Human trafficking is as old as slavery and continues to be practiced in the modern world Victims of human traffickers include workers in restaurants and in garment factories maids and nannies in the homes of wealthy families child sex workers beggars on the street boy soldiers even infants kidnapped for foreign adoptions Women and children are more likely to be coerced or seized than men and boys especially if they are poor and uneducated Traffickers sell their victims for their bodies or for their labor and reap an enormous profit Human trafficking is estimated to be a 30 to 45 billion industry on an annual basis rivaling weapons and drug trafficking as one of the most profitable criminal undertakings in the world Up for Sale takes a hard look at human trafficking identifying perpetrators and telling the stories of victims through their own words You ll discover why some people become vulnerable to trafficking and you ll read about what their lives are like on a daily basis You ll also meet some of the courageous individuals and organizations working to free people from lives in bondage so that in the words of US president Barack Obama each person can forge a life equal to their talents and worthy of their dreams Child Abuse, Child Exploitation, and Criminal Justice Responses Daniel G. Murphy, April G. Rasmussen, 2020-01-08 There are few things in our society that provoke such raw emotions as that of child abuse Most people justifiably so are outraged when they hear of allegations of abuse and their anger is intensified as they learn of what seems to be an inappropriate criminal justice response However the debate on child abuse usually happens though visceral emotions rather than facts Taking emotions out of a child abuse debate is much easier said than done but it is of utmost importance to identify the facts When the reader has a better understanding of the scope of child abuse they can become more objective but still maintain their passion about ways to protect this vulnerable and targeted population Child Abuse Child Exploitation and Criminal Justice Responses is unique in that it offers the reader contributing facts based not only through scholarly research but practical experience working in field from this wonderful collaboration of criminal investigator and forensic nurse Thus providing much personal insight and demonstrating how these two areas of expertise can join forces to achieve the objective of working as a team to facilitate safeguarding children The authors also presents the research on this complex yet worthy topic by identifying the unique challenges of investigating these offenses while ultimately bringing the perpetrators to justice and presenting the research from various perspectives of child abuse including both national and international issues and responses Human Trafficking Augustine Avwunudiogba, Elisha Jasper Dung, 2021-11-05 Human Trafficking Global History and Perspectives argues that far from being a recent development human trafficking is rooted in the history of the human condition and has only been amplified by globalization Using a multidisciplinary approach that traces the historical roots of human trafficking in global history the chapters explore case studies from different parts of the world to show that human trafficking is not only a global phenomenon but a localized enigma The contributors contend that the causes and thus the solutions are rooted in local and regional social cultural political and economic conditions of victims The case studies include global regional and local examples to analyze the complex causes and effects of human trafficking as well as the legal ramifications
