Bodhisattvas Natasha Heller,2025-01-31 In Literature for Little Bodhisattvas Natasha Heller makes two key interventions first she argues that picturebooks are a new genre of Buddhist writing and second she calls attention to an emergent family Buddhism in Taiwan that fashions children as religious subjects through shared attention with adult readers Surveying Taiwanese Buddhism from the ground up Heller explores the changing family dynamics that have made children into a crucial audience for Buddhist education and the home a key site for Buddhist cultivation By taking picturebooks seriously as part of the Buddhist textual tradition Heller demonstrates their engagement with canonical sources alongside innovations for modern audiences Close readings analyzing both text and image trace narrative themes about Buddhist figures and connect representations of buddhas and bodhisattvas to a visual culture where new values such as cuteness are articulated Heller shows that picturebooks have become an integral part of a contemporary Buddhist education that equips children with strategies to interpret everyday life in Buddhist ways and provides religious models for action in the modern world Literature for Little Bodhisattvas is a pathbreaking work revealing how contemporary picturebooks reframe Buddhism and offer fresh perspectives on its teachings and ideals of family for both children and adults Daoist Encounters with

Since discourses on humanistic traditions have so far largely been focused on European cultures this volume attempts to open the field to counterparts within Chinese culture which as a matter of fact has a rich autochthonous tradition of humanism as well The contributors explore Confucian and Daoist dimensions of humaneness in Chinese philosophy and history up to the first half of the 20th century when Chinese and Western concepts of humanism first merged This book addresses a non sinological audience as well as specialists in this field and contributes to a non eurocentric view on humanism history Vital

Nourishment François Jullien, 2025-09-30 An intellectual history of the concept of life and body politics in Chinese philosophy The philosophical tradition in the West has always subjected life to conceptual divisions and questions about meaning Although this process has given rise to a rich history of inquiry it proceeds too fast contends François Jullien In its anxiety about meaning Western thinkers since Plato have forgotten simply to experience life In Vital Nourishment Jullien slows down and begins to think about life from a point outside of Western inquiry using the third and fourth century BCE Chinese thinker Zhuangzi as a foil in this installment of his continuing project of plumbing the philosophical divide between Eastern and Western thought The question of how to feed life or nourish it is the point of departure for the Chinese tradition that Jullien locates in Zhuangzi Life is something that passes through each of us and we have a duty to become amenable to its ebbs and flows We must cultivate a sense of being adequate to it so that we can house it Exploring notions of breath energy and immanence Jullien reopens a vibrant space of intellectual exchange between East and West In doing so he refuses to commit to a rigid thesis of meaning and his text unfolds as an elegant process that begins to mirror the very type of thought he explores While his inquiry is certainly weighted toward reinvigorating Western thought with ideas from the East Jullien points out that this approach is intellectually and politically imperative at present Against the self help industry which pursues an opportunistic simulacrum of this type of intellectual exchange Jullien seeks to create a space of mutual inquiry that maintains the integrity of both Eastern and Western thinking Vital Nourishment is therefore both a rich intellectual historical journey and a text very much attuned to the philosophical politics of the present Those Who Act Ruin It Jacob Bender, 2024-07-01 Drawing on both western and Chinese philosophy Those Who Act Ruin It shows how Daoism presents a viable alternative to established moral theories The Daoist critical of the Confucian and Mohist discourses of their time

provides an account of morality that can best be understood as achieving an attunement to situations through the cultivation of habits Furthermore Daoism s meta ethical insights outline how moral philosophy when theorized in a way that ignores our fundamental interdependence devolves into moralistic narcissism Another way of putting this as the Daodejing states perfectly is that those who act ruin it Sensitive to this problem the Daoist account of moral attunement can ameliorate social woes and not ruin things In their moral attunement Daoists can spontaneously respond to situations in ways that are sensitive to the underlying interdependence of all things Franz Kafka and Chinese Culture Yanbing Zeng,2022-10-20

This book conducts a comprehensive and in depth analysis of Franz Kafka s relation to China Commencing with an examination of the myriad Chinese cultural influences to which Kafka was exposed it goes on to explore the ways in which they manifest themselves in canonical stories such as Description of A Struggle The Great Wall of China and An Old Manuscript This leads the way to thought provoking comparative studies of Kafka and major Chinese writers and philosophers such as Zhuang Tzu Pu Songling Qian Zhongshu and Lu Xun Highlighting kindred philosophical concepts shared aesthetic tastes and parallel narrative strategies these comparisons transcend mere textual analysis to explore the profound cultural historical and philosophical implications of Kafka s works Finally the book turns to an examination Kafka s impact on modern life in China including its translation studies literature and even its mass culture Basic Principles Of Chinese Philosophy (Volumes 1 & 2) Jiexiang Hu,2019-01-22 Among world s three major philosophic traditions Chinese philosophy excels in ethical discourse As a collective wisdom on a par with Aristotle s Ethics and Kant s Critique of Practical Reason Chinese philosophy now needs to be systematized and developed Today Chinese philosophy per se has often been reduced to the historical approach to it hence its slower development in comparison with European and Indian philosophies The author of this book avails himself of Kant s model of human psychic structure synthesizes the basic elements of Chinese philosophy into a rigorous theoretical framework and presents a panoptic view of the edifice of traditional Chinese philosophy New Life for Old Ideas Yanming An,Brian J. Bruya,2019-05-15

Munro was more than an intellectual mentor He has been an unfailing source of wisdom inspiration and support Over five decades Donald J Munro has been one of the most important voices in sinological philosophy His rapprochement with contemporary cognitive and evolutionary science helped bolster the insights of Chinese philosophers and set the standard for similar explorations today In this festschrift volume students of Munro and scholars influenced by him celebrate Munro s body of work in essays that extend his legacy exploring their topics as varied as the ethics of Zhuangzi s autotelicity the teleology of nature in Zhu Xi and family love in Confucianism and Christianity The Humanist Spirit of Daoism Guying Chen,2018-02-12 In The Humanist Spirit of Daoism Chen Guying presents a concise overview of his understanding of the meaning and significance of Daoist philosophy Chen is a leading contemporary Chinese thinker and spokesperson for a new Daoist approach to existential and socio political issues He was born in mainland China in 1935 but after having resettled to Taiwan he received his education there and was a student activist in the 1960s He became famous in the Chinese speaking world with his writings on Nietzsche Laozi and Zhuangzi At present he is a Professor at Peking University This volume collects representative essays from the past 25 years which not only outline Chen s interpretation of Daoism as a deeply humanist way of thinking and living but also show how he employs this philosophy in a critique of totalitarianism and neo imperialism Visual Subjectivity in Chinese and American Thought and Literature Guozhong Duan,Ming Dong Gu,2025-10-15 Providing the reader with a systematic study of visual subjectivity in comparative thought and literature this book analyses the role that vision and visuality especially interpersonal visuality plays in the constitution of subject and subjectivity in Chinese and American traditions Examining the formation of visual subjectivity in the philosophical works by major Chinese and Western thinkers this book provides a comparative study of four masterworks of Chinese and American fiction focusing on The Plum in the Golden Vase The Story of the Stone Moby Dick and The Scarlet Letter It demonstrates that there are both psychologically universal and culturally specific factors and features in the visual constitution and representation of self identity subject and subjectivity Offering fresh insights for cross cultural studies of intellectual thought literature ideology and culture through the visual lens this book will appeal to students and scholars engaged in comparative studies of Chinese and American thought literature and narrative theory
